Talbott Says U.S. Leads In Air Might

CUSTER, S. D. (AP) — Secretary of Air Harold E. Talbott said Friday the United States air force has more planes "capable of taking off with atomic weapons" than all the rest of the world. He said the U.R. air force can deliver "the greatest destructive force" against any target or area.

In an address prepared for delivery at a convention of the Stock Growers association, Talbott seemed to be replying to some recent criticism that Russia may have outstripped American air power.

"Regardless of what the Communists may do," Talbott said, "the United States air force doesn't scare worth a damn."

Talbott said: "No other air force has available to it a greater amount of effective combat materials, particularly including atomic weapons of all types and varities, than has the United States air force.

"Today there are more air force aircraft capable of taking off with atomic weapons, of being controlled by reliable communications, of being supported by adequate logistics, of being flown by highly trained crews than are in all the rest of the world.

"This means that today the United States air force can deliver against any target or area of the earth with assured accuracy the greatest destructive force in existence. That is true today — it will be true next year — I see no time when it will not be true."

Army Shuffle Puts Dean's Job in Doubt

WASHINGTON (AP)—The army Friday announced a reshuffle of generals which left in doubt the future of Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, hero and prisoner of the Communists in the Korean war.

Lt. Gen. Willard G. Wyman will leave the command of the 6th army at San Francisco on July 1 and one month later will become deputy commander of the continental army command at Ft. Monroe, Va.

Dean, who once lived in Carlyle, Ill., is deputy commander of the 6th army. And in the absence of his three-star chief, Dean normally would be designated acting commander until a permanent appointment is made.

However, orders issued at the same time assigned Maj. Gen. Robert N. Young, assistant chief of staff for personnel during the army's long row with Sen. Joseph McCarthy, to 6th army headquarters. But the orders specified no definite job for him.

Dean outranks Young and for the junior general to become the 6th army commander would require special action by the President, which has not been forthcoming.

'All Connecticut's Crops Not Worth Iowa's Popcorn'

DES MOINES (AP) — Gov. Leo Hoegh indicated Friday he believes Iowa has won the farm state argument with Connecticut. But, as a parting shot, he declared:

"Why, the total value of Connecticut's farm production would not equal the worth of our popcorn crop."

Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut said recently his was the best farm state. His comment was prompted by a U.S. department of agriculture survey which said Iowa and Connecticut are equal from the standpoint of farm living, and lead all others.

The nearest comparable figures available to Hoegh at the time of his "popcorn" comment were 1954 corn acreages. Iowa had 10 million acres; Connecticut had 40,000 acres.

Commencement Gowns Arrive

ONE OF APPROXIMATELY 950 gowns to be worn by graduating seniors next Friday in commencement exercises is shown by Maxine Reed, Campus stores employe. The gowns arrived Friday. They will be distributed Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at Campus stores from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m., 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Set Final Plans for 1955 Commencement Program

"The Dynamics of Freedom" will be the subject of the Commencement address to be delivered by Arthur F. Corey Friday at 8:30 a.m. in the SUI fieldhouse.

Executive secretary of the California Teachers' association, Corey will address 942 SUI graduates.

President Virgil M. Hancher will award degrees and deliver the charge to the graduates. A commissioning ceremony, to be held at 8 a.m. in the north gymnasium of the fieldhouse, will precede the Commencement exercises for about 90 army and air force reserve officers training corps cadets.

Alumni will begin reunion activities the evening before Commencement, although Saturday will be officially observed as Alumni Day.

Various classes and colleges will hold special reunion activities, throughout Friday and Saturday. An all-alumni buffet supper is scheduled Friday at 6:30 p.m. in Currier hall, and an all-alumni coffee hour for Saturday from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Iowa Memorial Union.

Illinois Parolee Held In Newton Shootings

NEWTON (AP) — An ex-convict accused of an early morning shooting of an off-duty policeman and two other persons here, was held in the Jasper county jail Friday night to await charges which Sheriff Ed Scoville said probably will be filed Saturday.

Thomas Dodd, 33, a parolee from the Illinois State Penitentiary at Joliet, was captured in Des Moines early Friday after one of Iowa's biggest manhunts in months.

Dodd surrendered without resistance to a group of Des Moines police officers, Iowa highway patrolmen and Polk county deputy sheriffs shortly before noon Friday.

One of the men shot was Elmer Comstock, 48, operator of the Happy Corner Tavern. He was reported in critical condition Friday night.

Sheriff Scoville said he conferred with County Attorney Dale Swanson and that they agreed no charges will be filed pending the outcome of Comstock's condition.

Says 11 More To Be Freed

MANILA (Saturday) (AP)—Red China will free 11 more U.S. airmen within 24 hours, Managing Director J. C. Jain of the India Times said Friday night.

Jain said he obtained the information from a "very reliable source." He declined to say where the 11 would be released.

Red China set free four U.S. jet fighter pilots Tuesday near Hong Kong. The four now are in Honolulu with relatives.

The 11 airmen are crew of a B-29 medium bomber which was shot down Jan. 12, 1953. They were sentenced as "spies" to terms ranging from 4 to 10 years.

Won't Back Nixon's View On Top Meet

WASHINGTON (AP)—The state department sharply refused Friday to back up Vice-President Richard Nixon's views about the enormous importance of the proposed meeting of President Eisenhower with leaders of Russia, Britain and France.

Diplomats privately were more outspoken. They were astonished that Nixon, one of the highest officials in the government, and a person familiar with its most secret deliberations, would have taken the line he did in a Chicago speech.

'Last Chance'

Nixon told a Rotary convention Thursday night that "This conference could be the world's last chance to settle differences peacefully and avoid a catastrophic war."

He went on to say that the big question which it may answer is whether the danger of "nuclear war" is to hang over the world for generations.

The speech indicated either that Nixon was speaking with a personal excitement about the prospects not shared by President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, or that President Eisenhower and Dulles attach more importance to the session than they have so far seen fit to disclose publicly.

Contrary to Policy

Nixon's emphasis on the nature of the questions before the conference ran contrary to known administration policy in two ways. The administration line has been that nobody should expect any "miracle solutions" from the session at the summit.

On the negative side the line has been that should the conference fail to achieve any constructive results, it would not be a momentous failure calling for drastic actions.

These attitudes were clearly developed in the television broadcast which President Eisenhower and Dulles made from the President's office on May 17, with Nixon among the cabinet members present.

President Eisenhower and Dulles have repeatedly emphasized they would not go to a summit meeting to seek settlements as the Soviet press and radio have urged, but only to try to brighten a little bit the prospects for working out settlements later on.

AUTO TANGLE

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Jerry Allred only wanted a push for his stalled car. But when he started to flag traffic for assistance he set off a chain reaction that ended with thre semi-trailer trucks in a tangle. Police made 'a' conservative estimate" of $12,500 on damages, then gave Allred a push. No one was held.

Hurrying to Court

(AP Wirephoto)

POLICE WORK TO UNTANGLE the wreckage of a late model car in which Paul Hane, 19, Columbia, Mo., was seriously injured Thursday while hurrying to court to answer charges of reckless driving. Hane was approaching this bridge on U.S. highway 63 north of Columbia when his car climbed the bridge girder in the background, sailed 60 feet diagonally across the bridge, hit another girder and skidded 60 feet on its top. The cross marks the point of the original impact and the arrows show the car's path.

Cornell Coeds Stop Train, Avert Fire

MOUNT VERNON (AP) — A group of Cornell college coeds may have averted a serious fire on a Chicago and Northwestern freight train, officials said here Friday.

Near Mechanicsville, where U.S. highway 30 parallels the main line of the railroad, the coeds spotted a flaming hotbox on one of the train cars.

Winnifred Oswald, Palatine, Ill., driver of the car, pulled up quickly to a crossing and Catherine Wojniak, Palos Park, Ill., ran alongside the caboose, signaling the crew and shouting.

She was able to attract the attention of the train crew, but they didn't understand her message. So the coeds returned to the car and raced down the highway to get ahead of the eastbound train.

1,600 Applaud — U.S. Army Field Band — In Union

The U.S. army sent its field band to Iowa City Friday night and the town poured into the Iowa Memorial Union in spectacular style. The concert was sponsored by the SUI ROTC departments.

The Union was virtually unprepared for the turnout. Every available chair was pushed into the lounge to accommodate the estimated 1,600 who came. The overflow found listening posts in the sunporch.

What they listened to was an expertly prepared musical package that alternated marches, military airs and patriotic songs with such concert compositions as Tschaikovsky's 1812 Overture, Aaron Copeland's Rodeo, arias from Verdi operas, American folk ballads, and a few South American rhythms.

The audience, attentive always, was loudest in its appreciation for the marches they came to hear, "The Stars and Stripes Forever," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and others.

They weren't prepared, however, for the really fine interpretation Sgt. Enrico Dijiuseppi gave Pagliacci's final tragic aria. Dijiseppi had perfect control, excellent tone, and he choked up in the sad parts just enough. The band's accompaniment with quiet basses was pleasantly reminiscent of the distant music heard on old Caruso records.

A fine demonstration of drummanship was put on by five soldiers who after a few drum rolls began to juggle the drum sticks. They finished the act under a shower of sticks tossed from the band.

The children in the audience loved this, and as one boy broke loose from his mother and made for the stage, someone said: "Don't worry. They won't take him. He's too young."

The band was under the crisp direction of Maj. Chester E. Whiting, and the Soldiers Chorus was directed by M/Sgt. Arthur V. Donofrio.

Business Leaders To Study GAW

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Association of Manufacturers announced Friday night that business leaders will meet here June 15 to appraise labor's demand for a guaranteed annual wage "and seek a solution."

The chairman of the NAM-sponsored conference, Gen. Charles C. Haffner Jr., said in a statement:

"Occasionally an issue comes up that is most difficult to handle and, unless our own particular industry is affected, it is easy to keep hands off and hope the lightning strikes next door.

"Such an issue now faces all businessmen in the guaranteed annual wage.

"In the light of recent events in Detroit and the serious implications for all segments of our industrial community, we, as executives, have a mandate to sit down in common counsel and appraise the facts and seek a solution."

'WE CAN'T WAIT'

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — A burial momument dealer erected a sign at a right angle trun on Route 14 at nearby Clark's Ferry which reads:

"Drive carefully. We can wait."

State Tax Commission Compromises

DES MOINES (AP) — A compromise plan starting the new sales tax at one penny on purchases of 13 cents was agreed upon Friday by the Iowa tax commission and the Iowa Retailers.

The tax increase becomes effective July 1 and will raise the sales tax from 2 to 2½ per cent.

The commission and the retailers have been making proposals and counterproposals for a revised sales tax rate since the 1955 general assembly passed the law but left the decision on new rate brackets to the commission.

Former Proposals Dropped

All the proposals were based on collecting a cent tax on a 15 cent purchase as did the old schedule.

Commission chairman Martin Lauterbach said the new plan is this:

Sales up to 12 cents, no tax; 13 to 49 cents, 1 cent tax; 50 to 99 cents, 2 cents tax; $1 to $1.39, 3 cents tax; $1.40 to $1.79, 4 cents tax; $1.80 to $2.19, 5 cents tax, and an additional cent tax for every 40 cents increase in purchase price thereafter.

A commission spokesman said the drop to 13 cents came about in a compromise with the retailers who wanted the third cent to be imposed after 94 cents instead of at $1.

40c Gets What 50c Did

A second reason, he said, was the cut from 15 to 13 cents fell right in line with the plan to collect the extra tax by cutting the tax brackets 20 per cent. Each 40 cent bracket will now produce as much revenue as each 50 cent bracket used to.

The current tax schedule brings in 54 to 55 million dollars a year in revenue. The new half per cent levy will bring in another 13 to 14 million dollars.

Freed Fliers Enjoy Sights

HONOULLU (AP) — Four U.S. jet pilots back from Red China's prisons went sight-seeing with their families Friday.

Three of them remained in luxurious quarters at Hickam air force base Thursday night to continue the happy reunion which took place when their families flew in from the mainland Thursday.

Dinner and Dancing

But Capt. Harold E. Fischer Jr., Swea City, Iowa, took his parents to the Royal Hawaiian hotel for dinner and dancing. It was their first night together in nearly five years.

"Best I've ever had," Fischer said of the steak dinner. Hula dancers serenaded the family. The hotel picked up the check.

Lt. Col. Edwin Heller, Wynnewood, Pa., took time out from his reunion with his wife, Judith, to have an aching tooth extracted. All four need teeth repaired after more than two years of an alien diet in Red China prisons.

Questioning Periods

Lt. Lyle Cameron, Lincoln, Neb., and Lt. Roland W. Parks, Omaha, along with Heller and Fischer, also were separated from their families for two hours Thursday.

All four were questioned by air force officials on their long imprisonment. Short questioning periods will be held daily until they leave for the mainland — probably Monday — the air force said.

The fliers arrived Wednesday after their release at Hong Kong the day before. They were shot down during the Korean War. Red China accused them of violating the air over Manchuria.

Dr. Kerr Given Car at Honorary Dinner

Dr. H. Dabney Kerr, who will resign June 30 as professor and head of radiology at the SUI college of medicine, Friday evening received a new automobile as a gift from approximately 60 of his former resident physicians and past associates.

At an Iowa Radiological society dinner in his honor, Dr. Kerr was presented with a bill of sale which entitles him to pick up a new four-wheel-drive Jeep station wagon when he arrives in the east later this summer.

The physician is acknowledged as one of the nation's leading men in his field.

Among those attending the dinner were doctors from eight states who have trained under or worked with Dr. Kerr at SUI, where he has been head of radiology since 1930.

The event opened a meeting of the radiological society which will continue through Saturday at the University Medical Center.

Dr. H. B. Elkins, associate professor on the radiology staff and a former resident physician under Dr. Kerr, read a telegram from another physician who had trained under Dr. Kerr. Dr. Elkins told the group that the telegram expressed the sentiments of all those who had contributed toward the purchase of the auto.

From Dr. Delphin Von Briesen of El Paso, Tex., the message read: "Although unable to be present . . . I do wish to say . . . that I am genuinely thankful for having had the privilege of beginning a wonderfully interesting career in radiology with Dr. Kerr. I cannot say anything that would add to his stature but I do sincerely want to join you in paying respect to so fine a gentleman and radiologist who will continue to inspire all who have been privileged to be associated with him."

DR. H. DABNEY KERR, left, accepts a bill of sale entitling him to a new Jeep station wagon, presented him by some 60 of his former associates and resident physicians at University hospitals. Dr. H. B. Elkins, associate professor of radiology at SUI, made the presentation on behalf of the donors at a banquet honoring Kerr Friday night at the Mayflower.

In presenting the bill of sale to Dr. Kerr, Dr. Elkins said a Jeep station wagon was chosen because Dr. Kerr had expressed an interest in buying such a vehicle.

"In fact," Dr. Elkins said, "we had some difficulty in preventing him from buying the car before this presentation could be made. With the aid of his secretary, we inserted a note into an envelope bearing instructions which he had dictated regarding the purchase of a Jeep. In our note, we explained to the addressee that the instructions could be disregarded."

Dr. Elkins said a bill of sale for the vehicle was given because Dr. Kerr had planned to drive his present car East.

Following his resignation, Dr. Kerr will serve as a consultant in the Milton Campbell Radium Therapy service in the department of radiology of the Memorial hospital in Easton, Md., and also take up part-time duties at the Ann Arundel General hospital in Annapolis.

He will be succeeded by Dr. Eugene F. Van Epps, an associate professor of radiology at SUI.

A New Russian Policy—

Marshal Tito signed a declaration of principles with the Soviet Union Thursday night but he apparently didn't yield any of his independence in the process.

The western world has been watching the overtures the Soviets were making to Tito the past few days in Belgrade. The delegation from Russia included the leaders of the Soviet state.

Nikita S. Krushchev, boss of the Communist party, led the delegation seeking political reconciliation between the two countries. Premier Nikolai Bulganin, head of the Soviet state, actually signed the declaration with Tito.

This conference was the first which the heads of the Soviet state have attended outside of the Soviet Union and its satellites since Stalin's death. This is some indication of the importance the Soviets placed in this meeting.

In effect both governments agreed to support a feeling of "friendly cooperation," "democratic" ideals and a program of "respect for the sovereignty, independence, integrity and equality among states in their mutual relations and in their relations with other states."

Tito seems to have met with the Soviets, agreed with them to support the best principles of mutual friendship, and commited himself to nothing.

It is possible that Tito's success in keeping his political independence will encourage like action on the part of other small nations in dealing with the Soviets. The Russian reluctance to press for advantages or concessions may indicate that the Soviets desire a few years of relaxed tensions in which to build up their own country.

Or possibly with the signing of the Austrian peace treaty, the Soviets felt the need of assuring peaceful relations in the Balkan area.

Or possibly the Russian farm program which has received the personal attention of Communist Party leaders indicates the food problem is too serious to support the country in a period of tension.

There are many possible interpretations of the bland Russian attitude at the Belgrade meeting. But the interpretation that we feel is least likely to be correct is that the Russians have turned over a new leaf and really want world peace.

Many Religious Functions This Summer—

Informality to Mark Religious Activities

Informality is the keynote of summer religious activity on the SUI campus. Some religious activities have been suspended for the summer, but the ones that continue on a regular schedule will emphasize outdoor and informal activity.

The student group of Bethany Baptist church will continue its regular 6:30 p.m. Sunday meetings throughout the summer. The first weekend in August a camp for college students will be held at Iowa Falls.

The Disciple's Student fellowship of the First Christian church has planned seven summer meetings. They will be June 19 and 26, July 10, 17, 24, and 31 and August 7. Beginning this Sunday and continuing through July a special study class on experimentation in prayer will be held at 9:15 a.m. in the Tower room of the church. About 12 students are expected to attend the Ecclesia, a national meeting of Christian church college students, at Epworth Forest, Ind., Aug. 28 to Sept. 3, the Rev. Albert C. Hofrichter said.

Plan Weekend Trip

The United Student fellowship for Congregational Christian and Evangelical and Reformed college students has no definite program for the summer, although a deputation team will be sent to McGregor the weekend of June 25 and 26. Four or five members of the group will go to McGregor on Saturday and stay overnight to take part in the Sunday morning worship servce. The Rev. Nancy Forsberg, pastor to students, will preach the sermon.

SUI Students Repair Old 'Brick Chapel'

Thirty-five members of Wesley foundation, Methodist student group, have had as a project for this year the renovation of a 100-year-old chapel five miles southeast of Iowa City.

The small brick Methodist chapel will be used as a retreat center for religious groups on the SUI campus and as a meeting place for 4-H clubs and other organizations.

The present structure, constructed of bricks made by hand from clay taken from a field across the road, replaced a frame church on the same site which burned within a year of construction.

Student Pastors

For many years Methodist ministers from Iowa City preached in the little church and student pastors filled the pulpit at other times. The chapel has not been used for 25 years.

Members of Wesley foundation have applied a new beaverboard ceiling and cleaned and varnished the rough, unfinished pews. A floor furnace and electric lights have been installed, so for the first time the building is useable the year around.

The SUI students also replastered sections of the walls and patched cracks in the remaining plaster before painting the interior of the church.

Plan Picnic Area

The group, under the direction of the Rev. Robert R. Sanks, Methodist minister to students at SUI, has also planned a picnic area in a wooded spot near the church, to be equipped with outdoor fireplaces and picnic tables. The group also plans to install a hotplate in the church so all-day meetings can prepare hot dishes for meals.

Former members of the church and friends now living in the area have shared the cost of materials for the rebuilding with the Wesley foundation. A centennial celebration for the church is being planned for late summer or early fall.

Trustees of the little church, which carries the name "Brick Chapel" in a stone over door, are Henrietta Schell, a teacher at Bellevue, Mrs. W. S. West, Ralph Cozine, and Mrs. George Hunter, all of Iowa City.

Lutheran Church Plans Centennial Celebration Sunday

A special centennial and family worship service have been scheduled for Sunday at 10:45 a.m. at First English Lutheran church.

The centennial marks the 100th anniversary of the formal organization of the church. On June 5, 1855, the missionary pastor, the Rev. Henry R. Ealy, announced the organization of the church. At that time the congregation numbered 28 and services were held in Old Capitol.

A lecture Bible, presented to the church by this year's confirmation class, will be dedicated at the service.

Following the morning service a congregational picnic will be held at the church. At 2 p.m. a hymn sing will be held in the church auditorium.

Grundy Center Girl Wins Halsey Award

Barbara Fritzel, Grundy Center, has been named winner of the first Elizabeth Halsey scholarship award given by the SUI Physical Education Major Alumnae association.

Covering full tuition at SUI for a year, the award was named this spring in honor of Professor Halsey, retiring head of the SUI department of physical education for women. Miss Halsey has headed the department since 1924.

Miss Fritzel is graduating from Grundy Center high school and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Fritzel, 1004 Eighth st., Grundy Center.

Applicants for the award must show high scholarship, need, promise as a teacher of physical education, and be outstanding in high school activities. Fifteen Iowa high school seniors applied for the scholarship this spring.

Accredit Dental Hygiene Program

The two-year dental hygiene program at SUI has been fully accredited by the Council on Dental Education of the American Dental association, SUI President Virgil M. Hancher announced Friday.

A committee representing the Council on Dental Education, American Dental association, American Association of Dental Schools, American Dental Hygienists association, Iowa state board of dental examiners, and the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools recently spent two days on the SUI campus evaluating the dental hygiene program. Dr. Donald Fitzgerald of Mason City represented the Iowa state board of dental examiners.

The dental hygiene program at SUI is directed by Prof. Helen Newell.

Vatican Hints At Peron's Banishment

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Argentina's President Juan D. Peron, a Roman Catholic once decorated by Pope Pius XII, is only a very short step from excommunication, if not already so punished by the church, a Vatican authority said Friday.

"We cannot say yet whether he has fallen into the state of excommunication, nor can we deny it," a monsigner consultant of the Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office said, in comment on a church-state feud flaring for seven months in Argentina.

"But certainly he is in grave sin, and with him all the legislators of the Peronista-dominated congress who have adopted the law on divorce, eliminated religious education from the schools and concurred in the arrests of priests and Catholic laymen.

'Short Step'

"What is certain, if the President has not fallen into the state of excommunication, is that he is a very short step from it."

Excommunication varies in degree. In minor cases it means suspension of the sacraments. Major excommunication calls for absolute expulsion from the church and all its rights and advantages. In the case of great offenders even social intercourse with other Catholics is prohibited. Sometimes it may be incurred automatically. At other times the church proclaims it, usually through decree of the Holy Office, which the Pope heads.

No Identification

The monsignor consultant asked not to be identified by name.

The Peron government has pushed through legislation authorizing divorce, dropped traditional tax exemptions on church properties and financial support for Catholic schools and proposes, through a constitutional convention, to separate church and state. It has lopped several religious holidays from the Argentine calendar and cracked down on Catholic outdoor mass meetings and marches.

A total of 62 priests and scores of laymen have been arrested, many on a charge of disrespect for Peron.

Congregational Church Plans Senior Luncheon

A senior luncheon for Congregational students who are graduating will be held on June 10 at the Congregational church.

Students who wish to attend with their families are asked to make reservations at the student center.

UAW Seeks More Grants From Ford

DETROIT (AP) — The CIO United Auto Workers sought Friday to wring further concessions from the Ford Motor Co. Ford is reportedly the first auto manufacturer to offer even a "guaranteed semiannual wage."

Armed with Ford's offer, the UAW also went back to General Motors hopeful of getting something better from the industry's biggest producer.

Ford and the Union met briefly Friday morning, then took a three and a half hour mid-day recess for separate caucuses before resuming the meeting later. GM and the union met Friday afternoon.

Offer Secret

Just what was in Ford's latest offer still remained an official secret under a so-called company-union news "moratorium." But unofficial sources on both sides agreed that Ford, the industry's second largest company, had agreed in principle with the union's guaranteed wage demand.

Ford made its latest offer Tuesday after the UAW had rejected the company's "partnership in prosperity" plan. This was a combination stock purchase, layoff-loan and separation pay deal.

Lay-Off

The subsequent proposal, perhaps revised in negotiations over the past three days, now reportedly would guarantee a laid-off worker 6 to 65 per cent of average take-home pay for up to 26 weeks. The company would pay the difference between what such a worker receives in state unemployment compensation and the 60 or 65 per cent.

For example: A laid-off Ford worker in Michigan, where roughly half of the company's 140,000 hourly rated workers are employed, might get $40 a week in state compensation. Say his average take-home pay is $75.

During each of the first four weeks of an idleness, Ford would pay the $8.75 difference between his state benefit and the 65 per cent of the $75 he would take home if working, or $48.75.

After four weeks, the company's obligation would drop to $5—the difference between $40 and 60 per cent of $75, or $45.

6 Cents

To finance such a plan, Ford would contribute at the rate of about 6 cents an hour per employe. This would build up at the rate of about 18 million dollars a year.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther and fellow union negotiators reportedly are seeking to persuade Ford to raise the company's supplement to unemployment compensation and to extend the duration of benefits.

The UAW has extended its contract with Ford to Sunday midnight, but says it will not agree to a further extension. A settlement could well provide a pattern for the industry.

Flag Day Speaker

REP. FRED SCHWENGEL (R-Davenport, Ia.) looks over the 30-by-40-foot flag that flew over Fort McHenry when Francis Scott Key wrote the Star-Spangled Banner in 1814. The Fort McHenry flag is in the Smithsonian Institute.

Illinois Doctor Says Technicians Not Medics

DES MOINES (AP)—After two and one-half days on the witness stand, Dr. Charles Letourneau, Winnetka, Ill., completed his testimony Friday in the doctor-hospital lawsuit being tried before District Judge C. Edwin Moore.

Letourneau concluded that he was "completely in accord" with the March opinion of Virginia Attorney General J. Lindsay Almond Jr. that a "hospital would not be practicing medicine if it employed a radiologist to operate its X-ray department in order to furnish . . . diagnostic aids to the attending physician."

Parts of the Virginia attorney general's opinion were read into the trial record by A. A. Herrick, an attorney for the Iowa Hospital association and 34 member hospitals.

The association filed the lawsuit after Iowa's attorney general last year ruled that hospitals hiring certain medical specialists to operate laboratories are practicing medicine illegally.

Most of Letourneau's testimony Friday was concerned with questions on whether pathologists and radiologists in hospital laboratories are consulted by attending physicians, whether pathologists and radiologists conduct diagnoses, and whether they practice medicine.

He said "visits" between laboratory pathologists and attending physicians are "merely exchanges of ideas — medical chit-chat; this is not regarded as a medical consultation."

Prof. Popov Gets Research Award

Prof. Alexander I. Popov of the SUI department of chemistry has been awarded a $1,850 grant from the Research corporation for study in electrochemistry of polyhalogen complexes.

Prof. Emory D. Warner, head of the pathology department of the SUI college of medicine, did not receive the grant, as was reported in Wednesday's Daily Iowan.

The research corporation is a non-profit foundation established in 1912 by the late inventor and scientist, Frederick Gardner Cottrell.

Home Study Ruled Valid

Prof. J. L. Davies, director of the SUI bureau of correspondence study, Friday pointed out that a reversal ruling by the state board of public instruction makes correspondence study good for credit for teacher certificate renewal.

The board made the reversal ruling at its May meeting. It had ruled in June, 1954, that correspondence study could not be used for credit.

The bureau this year is offering 22 courses used in teacher training.

Climate Problems To Be Discussed

Iowa rainfall, Kansas water planning and other climate-soil relationships will be subjects of a seven-state conference of the America Geophysical Union at the SUI college of engineering June 16-17.

Crash Kills SUI Alumnus

Funeral services for Dr. Frederick E. Hambrecht, 51, Galesburg, Ill., surgeon and a resident of Iowa City for 16 years, will be conducted at Oakland cemetery at 2 p.m. today.

Hambrecht was killed in an auto accident Wednesday night east of Monmouth, Ill.

Four youths riding in another car involved in the accident were also killed.

According to police officials, Hambrecht's car apparently struck the rear of a slow-moving, two-wheel trailer at the rear of a car being towed, and then veered into the path of the car carrying the youths.

Hambrecht, a graduate of Iowa City high school and the SUI college of medicine, had planned to return to Iowa City this month for a reunion of his Iowa City high school class.

League To Consider Health Agency Study

The Iowa City League of Women Voters Monday will consider a study of health agencies in Iowa City and Johnson county.

The league's board of directors will recommend the study at a meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the Elks club.

The membership of the league must approve the study before it will be undertaken.

"The ultimate goal of such a study would be better-organized health agencies in Iowa City and Johnson county," Mrs. Paul Vermillion, league president, said.

Mrs. William Lyle has resigned as treasurer of the Iowa City league. Mrs. Robert Thorne has been elected by the board of directors as a replacement.

U.S. Claims Chinese Have No Hardship in Going Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — Immigration officials said Friday they are not aware of any hardships in the current program for returning Chinese students in this country to their homes in Red China.

A spokesman took note of published reports in the New York Times that some "students and scholars are being returned to their homeland from the U.S. under conditions that are said to threaten to impair their pro-American sympathy."

The Times quoted "one person familiar with a number of cases" as saying "We are driving highly qualified, intelligent people straight into the arms of communism."

A large number of Chinese have been pursuing advanced studies in this country for many years. Many have expressed fears for their physical safety if they were returned to Communist territory, and have been allowed to remain here.

About 70 others who have scientific training in the U.S. have been clamoring for exit visas in order to return to Red soil.

The immigration service for several years had refused them departure on the theory that their learning in this country should not be made available to the Communist regime in China.

However, the detainers against this group were lifted last month at a time when this country was making every effort to obtain the release of U.S. personnel held in Communist China.

Flies to Farm

Ike Sets Precedent, Uses Light Plane

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower set a presidential precedent Friday by flying here from Washington in a little twin-engined aircraft. It is the first time he has flown to Gettysburg. Aides said he'll probably use the light plane frequently in the future for short hops.

Mr. Eisenhower came to Gettysburg to visit his farm nearby and receive the gift of a cow and a calf from the Brandywine Aberdeen Angus Breeders association. He planned to return to the capital Friday night.

The flight took 32 minutes compared with an average of about two hours required for the trip by automobile over Maryland and Pennsylvania highways.

City Council To Consider Paving Jobs

The Iowa City council will consider street improvement projects for this summer at a special meeting Monday night.

The projects: paving on four city streets, highway improvements inside the city, work on the Madison st.-Iowa ave. intersection and improvements on Newton road.

The state highway commission has approved the widening of Burlington street between Madison and Linn streets and the re-surfacing of North Dubuque st. between Ronald st. and the Park bridge.

The projects will cost $57,600, of which the highway comission will pay half.

The widening of the Madison st.-Iowa ave. intersection was proposed in January by the Associated Consultants of Evanston, Ill., in traffic recommendations for Iowa City.

No formal action has been taken on the project by the council.

The council will consider plans for improving the brick portion of Newton road between Riverside drive and Woolf ave.

City street paving projects to be considered: Governor st. between Jefferson and Market sts. Ginter ave. between Howell and Pickard sts., Pine st. between Lower Muscatine road and Highland ave. and Seventh ave. court two blocks southeast from Seventh ave.

Can't Stop Heroin Entry

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harry J. Anslinger, U.S. narcotics commissioner, told senate investigators Friday a concentration of the army, navy, coast guard and FBI wouldn't stop heroin smuggling into New York city.

"Searching ships is a very difficult matter," Anslinger said. "Seizures are made on the basis of information developed here and abroad."

With only four agents in Europe, he said, the narcotics bureau is able to stop at the source about 40 per cent of the illicit drugs destined for the United States.

"These four men," he said, "are worth 100 men here."

Anslinger testified for a second day before a senate judiciary subcommittee investigating the narcotics traffic and the possibility of strengthening laws to fight it.

Chairman Price Daniel (D-Tex.) asked in tones of astonishment:

"You mean four agents cover Europe?"

"That's all we can afford," Anslinger replied .

"Is it as much as this country can afford?" the senator inquired.

"No, sir," Anslinger answered.

To Hold Workshop For Counselors

About 60 counselors of students in Iowa schools and colleges will attend a counseling workshop Monday through Wednesday at the SUI Center for Continuation Study.

Sponsored by the Iowa Association of Deans of Women and Advisers of Girls, the workshop will summarize trends in counseling and will consider problems of students transferring to college from high school.

Discussion groups will be formed to study academic counseling, discipline, individual counseling problems of residence workers, personal counseling, problems of youths, and working with parents of students.

Housemothers, directors of housing units on the SUI campus and administrative staff members of hospitals in the state, where students affiliate for part of their nurse's training, have been invited.

Funeral Director Files Damage Suit

M. J. McGovern, Iowa City funeral director, has filed suit in Johnson county court for $6,184 in alleged damages from an auto accident here Sept. 21, 1954.

The suit is against James and Lewis Maske of Iowa City.

McGovern claims that an auto owned by Lewis and driven by James struck his auto from the rear on Washington street as he pulled away from the curb.

McGovern allegedly suffered neck and back injuries.

3 Cub Homers Defeat Giants, 4-1

NEW YORK (AP)—Home runs by Gene Baker, Eddie Miksis and rookie Bob Speake, accounted for all of the Chicago Cubs' runs Friday night as they defeated the New York Giants, 4-1. Don Mueller's inside the park homer in the first was the Giants' lone run and snapped Bob Rush's scoreless string against the National league champions after 26⅓ innings.

Ramon Monzant, righthander brought up from Minneapolis two days ago, was the victim of the homers by Miksis and Speake in the third. Miksis's blow, his third of the season, came with Harry Chiti on base. Speake's homer was his 11th.

Monzant left the scene in the third with two out and Paul Giel, ex-Minnesota All-America football player, hurled the next 3⅓ innings. He yielded Baker's homer — the third for the brilliant Cub second baseman.

Hoyt Wilhelm and Marv Grissom hurled the last three innings for the Giants and pitched shutout ball but the New Yorkers could do nothing with Rush, who had shut them out in two previous games this season.

Rush gave up only five hits and was invincible after Mueller's homer spoiled his shutout.

Bruton's Home Run Beats Phillies, 4-3

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bill Bruton's leadoff 10th-inning homer—his fifth of the season—enabled the slumping Milwaukee Braves to edge the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-3, Friday night.

Roy Smalley tied the ball game up with a three-run homer in the fourth. With one out, Andy Seminick—the grand slam homer hero of Thursday night's game with the Chicago Cubs—singled. Bobby Morgan walked and Smalley followed with a four-base smash into the left field stands.

Garver Stars As Tigers Win, 7-2

DETROIT (AP) — Ned Garver, winless in more than three weeks, scattered six hits and drove in two runs with a single and double while pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 7-2 victory over the Baltimore Orioles Friday night.

The 29-year-old righthander, whose last victory was on May 11, tied the game with a run-scoring single in the sixth inning then doubled home another as the Tigers wrapped it up with four runs in the eighth.

It made Garver's record 4-7.

Breda Pitcher, 18, Signs with Giants

CARROLL (AP)—Verle Tiesenthaler, 18, a graduate of St. Bernard's high school at Breda, Ia., this spring, signed a baseball contract with the New York Giants Friday.

He will report to the Sioux City Soos of the Class A Western league this weekend.

Tiesenthaler reportedly received a $4,000 bonus for signing with the Giants.

He was the star pitcher for the St. Bernard's team this year, winning six games and losing two. When not pitching he played in the outfield. His batting average was over .400.

St. Bernard's reached the semi-finals of the Iowa boys state baseball tournament this spring, being eliminated by Des Moines Lincoln, 2-1.

Brooklyn Scores 12-5 Victory over St. Louis

BROOKLYN (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals paraded eight pitchers to the mound Friday night and equalled a National league record while the Brooklyn Dodgers and Duke Snider continued their slugging ways for a 12-5 victory at Ebbets Field.

The league leaders belted starter Tom Poholsky for four runs in the first inning when Snider rapped his 17th homer and Roy Campanella got his 15th, and they never let up on the harassed Cardinal mound corps.

One ray of light came for St. Louis in the fifth inning when Stan Musial whacked the 300th homer of his career over the right field scoreboard with two mates aboard to spark a 4-run rally.

That sent Johnny Podres, the Dodger starter, to the showers, and brought on Clem Labine who went the rest of the way.

It was Musial's eighth homer of the year, and he joined a select group of 12 players to have hit 300 or more four baggers.

The eight hurlers used by St. Louis tied a record of eight teams which have used that many pitchers in the National league.

The major league record is nine, by the St. Louis Browns against the Chicago White Sox Oct. 2, 1949.

WHITNEY MARTIN'S — Sports Trail

NEW YORK (AP)—This was a sort of meet-the-press luncheon at Toots Shor's, although Bobo Olson, the guest of honor, was no stranger to the assembled press.

Olson is the world middleweight fight champion who, after sampling representative light heavyweight in the person of Joey Maxim, an ex-champion in that division, and finding he could handle him without too much trouble, is going after that title.

He meets the venerable champion, Archie Moore, at the Polo Grounds June 22, so this get together with the boxing writers was a kickoff of the publicity campaign for that fight, as well as a renewel of old acquaintances.

Looks Ready To Step in Ring—

Olson had just arrived from San Francisco, and, in his civilian clothes at least, looked like he would be ready to step in the ring any time he received a telephone call. Weight never has been one of his problems, and although he expects to hit 170 for Moore he can make 160 for a title defense without using a paring knife.

They put Bobo and his outspoken manager, Sid Flaherty, in front of a microphone for an impromptu quiz program, and the champion proved just as nimble on his feet in that situation as he is in a ring, answering questions frankly and without hesitation.

His answers made sense, too, such as his reply to a question as to just what his tactics would be against Moore.

"I'll move faster because he can punch harder," he said logically, indicating that facing the tickling punches of Maxim he could slow down and get set as he had little to fear.

Must Watch 'Sneak Right Hand'—

He also said he planned to set a good pace and would have to watch "that sneak right hand," as he has seen Moore fight and knows Archie seems to reach into a hip pocket and bring out a right before you know where it came from, and it packs ample power.

Bobo put a severe strain on international relations when asked to rate the abilities of Rocky Marciano, the heavyweight champion; Moore ,and Don Cockell, the blubbery Briton with the built-in shock absorbers who chinned himself on Marciano's fists so courageously.

"Moore is smarter," Olson said thoughtfully, "and Marciano hits harder."

Someone pressed him for a comment on Cockell.

"Cockell," he said with a slow grin, "is very sad."

Flaherty plans to take Olson and a bushel of other fighters over to England, with Cockell a prospective opponent for Bobo.

It's a little too early to figure the Moore-Olson match, as there are so many factors involved, most of them concerning Moore.

Moore has to whittle away 15 or more pounds, and at his age that could take away a lot of energy, as well as a lot of Moore.

Harshman Stars As Sox Win

CHICAGO (AP) —Jack Harshman pitched and batted the Chicago White Sox to a 3-2 victory over the New York Yankees Friday night before a crowd of 40,020. The lanky lefthander set down the Yankees on nine well-spaced hits and drove in the winning run.

New York's only runs came on bases empty homers by Bill Skowron and Mickey Mantle.

Harshman set up the White Sox' first run, drove in the second with a single and accounted for the winning tally with a sacrifice fly.

Bob Turley, who suffered his third loss in 11 starts, gave up only five hits in the six innings he worked, but he walked six and struck out only three. Three of the walks blossomed into runs.

The victory put the Sox 3½ games behind the league-leading Yankees and one-half game behind the Cleveland Indians, who lost to Washington, 3-1.

It was Harshman's fourth triimph of the season against three losses and the first victory in his career against New York. In all the Yanks left 8 runners on base.

Nats Down Indians, 3-1

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mickey McDermott held Cleveland to three hits Friday night as his Washington Nationals beat the Indians, 3-1, on homers by Mickey Vernon and Roy Sievers.

McDermot, who shut out the Indians, 3-0, in their latest previous meeting, fanned six and walked five for his fourth win against five losses.

The Indians scored in the first when Al Rosen doubled in Bob Avila who had walked.

Vernon's homer into the right field stands in the fourth inning tied it up.

Duffers Get Chance For Medals Today

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The duffers of the nation get their annual crack at beating the best today on National Golf Day.

They'll match scores, less their full handicaps, against the cards turned in by National Open Champion Ed Furgol and Patty Berg who will be shooting on the lake course of the Olympic Country club, scene of the 55th annual U.S. Open tournament June 16-18.

All it'll cost the hackers from coast to coast is $1 for the chance to earn medals reading "I beat Ed Furgol" or "I beat Patty Berg," as the case may be. Proceeds will go to the Red Cross. Thousands of golfers—and dollars—are expected.

Miss Berg is a replacement for Babe Zaharias, who had been scheduled as the woman golfer against whose score all feminine golfers would compete.
