3. Medals shall be given to the winners of each of the events named below, except the all-around, for which a cup is provided. In addition, the winner of high and kick on the evening programme shall be awarded a medal, and boxing shall be for a purse.

4. First places count two points, and second places one, for all events, except boxing, in the contest for the cup given to the college association winning the most points.

5. Substitutes are allowed in boxing, tennis, and the all-around contests only.

6. The field meet shall be held on June 3d, 1892.

7. Having procured Phinney’s band, no tin horns will be allowed on the dancers, except the all-around, for which winning the most programme shall be awarded.

That the all-around champion shall be awarded a prize, the value of which shall be no more than twenty-five (25) dollars.

Changes.
Drake University, Des Moines, takes the place of Parsons College, Fairfield.
Executive Committee, 1891—
H. W. Hughes, C. W. Emery, C. J. Martin.

Deputy Conference.
The Western Deputation Conference, of the College Y. M. C. A.’s, convenes at Close Hall, Thursday, April 8. The National College Secretaries, Messrs. Mott and Broekman, have charge of the meeting. Two or three delegates will be present from each of the following states. Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, and Missouri.

Committee Meeting.
The officers and committee men of the Y. M. C. A. hold an important meeting to-night for the discussion of their work in the University. They meet in Close Hall at 5:30, and supper will be served at six o’clock.

The English seminary will be revived this term. Students who care to undertake the work will be good enough to report in Room 6, south hall, at two o’clock, on Monday, April 8. The day for the meeting of the seminary has not yet been decided upon. The subject will be the history and development of the novel. Each student will work on one line throughout the term, submitting a report of his work at each meeting of the seminary. The instructor will outline the work and give what assistance he can to the members of the seminary, but there will be no lectures.

N. W. Stephenson.

Professor T. J. Lawrence has been elected a lecturer in the University Extension work of Chicago University. He is at present a lecturer on international law in Cambridge University, England, and the author of two standard works on that subject, “Essays on Some Disputed Questions in Modern International Law” and “A Hand-Book of Public International Law.”

The English proctors, Miss Katherine Barber, Miss Laura Clarke and Mr. George C. Cook, have tendered their resignations, considering that the remuneration was not sufficient to justify them in the work and expenditure of time required of them. The resignations have been accepted and the vacancies will not be filled. Only good words are heard of their work during the past term.
The Vidette-Reporter

President Schaeffer has just received a letter from Sir Donald Smith, governor of the Hudson Bay Co., practically granting the request made by Professor Nutting some weeks ago that a representative of the University be allowed to travel through the Hudson Bay Company's territory for a period of two years for the purpose of collecting specimens for the Museum. Sir Donald is practically the ruler absolute of the whole region and his aid means not only safe and speedy transportation, but aid in securing guides and supplies, without which no expedition, however well equipped financially, could succeed. No other institution except the Smithsonian has ever been permitted to send a collector into these lands so rich in rare and wonderful beasts and birds. Although the expense of the trip will be trifling compared to the results to be attained, yet the scanty appropriation received this year makes it extremely doubtful if the generous offer of the Canadian authorities can be taken advantage of. Oh, for some generous alumnus, who would be willing to guarantee the expense in case the expedition did not pay for itself in cash!

The National Bureau of Education has just issued its annual report for 1888-9. In naming the forty leading universities of the United States, Iowa is not mentioned. Illinois has two of the forty, Indiana one, Nebraska one, Minnesota one, and Missouri one. A report for 1892-3 will not include our University. We can never be placed at the top as long as we are hampered and driven down by such legislatures as have met during the past. We can only hope that there is a good time coming.

"A County Fair."

So much has been said and written about this comedy that little remains to be told. It bears a record of a three years' run at the Union Square Theatre, New York, and will be presented here exactly as in the metropolis, with a fine company and complete scenic environment.

Manager Clark has this winter successfully demonstrated his wish to please the theatre going people by bringing the very best possible attractions. In the "County Fair" he has made his crowning hit. This is a rare chance to see an attraction with a national reputation, and one that we should not miss. At the Opera House, April 6.
