Ames vs. S. U. I.

Students of the University and other lovers of the National game will be pleased to hear that the University has secured the game with Ames for Decoration Day. Manager Reimnert met Manager Deering of Ames at Cedar Rapids last Thursday and made all arrangements. S. U. I. will pay all expenses of the trip, and Ames will arrive here at 2:25 A. M. In order to reduce the expenses of their visit while in the city it is desired that they may be entertained by the students and anyone having vacant places for tables and wishing to entertain will please hand their names to the manager at once.

The game will decide the winners of the Inter-Collegiate league and also the ownership of the silver bat, and every body desiring to see the best game ever played on the grounds here, should not fail to be present. Zunnt, Ames' long distance thrower is the pitcher and has a wonderful control of the ball, besides being very speedy. Our own Lindsay however never was in better condition and Ames' batters will be kept guessing through most of the game. Let everybody turn out. Admission 25 cents.

The Ames team will arrive here Monday morning at 9:25, by way of the H. C. R. & N., and we hope they may be welcomed by a large delegation of students. Following are the two teams with their positions:

Law Examining and Theses Committees.

The following committee has been appointed by the Supreme Court, at the suggestion of the Law Faculty, to examine the graduating class of the Law Department, June 9th and 10th:

David Byar, Newton; J. D. Nichols, Vinton; H. C. Hemenway, Cedar Falls; Henry Stone, Marshalltown; John C. Beem, What Cheer; Walter W. Carle, Perry; Jefferson F. Clyde, Osage; J. H. McGuire, Mason City; W. H. Norris, Manchester; W. B. Quarton, Algona; J. B. Baker Jr., Des Moines; D. V. Jackson, Muscatine; and Otto Byington, Iowa City.

Of these the first (a graduate of the department, class of '87), is a Judge of the District Court, and the next three are prominent lawyers in the State who have never been connected with the Law Department. The others are graduates of ten years ago, except Mr. Jackson and Mr. Byington, who graduated in 1881.

The committees to examine theses and award prizes consists of John L. Kennedy, of Omaha, a graduate of ten years ago, and Messrs. Carle and Jackson of the above committee. Mr. Kennedy is not a member of the examining committee because residing outside of the State.

The editors of the Gopher, the University of Minnesota Annual, are experiencing some difficulty. The publication contains a number of merciless caricatures of certain students and members of the faculty, and on that account its sale has been prohibited. The editors, however, intend to put the Annual on sale and in this event there are apt to be breakers ahead of them.

IONA CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, ACADEMY, AND SCHOOL OF SHORT-HAND,
Our young friends desiring good positions should attend the Iowa City Commercial College Academy and School of Short-Hand. The proprietors, Messrs. Willis & Williams, are having more demands for their students to take good positions than they are able to supply. They have placed six in good places as stenographers, book-keepers, cashiers and teachers, during the past few weeks. Now is the time to prepare yourselves. New students are entering this popular institution every day. Students of the University and other schools may take Book-keeping, Short-Hand, Penmanship, or any other branch taught, at very reasonable rates. Call and investigate.
