Fall Field Meet.

A Most Perfect Day and a Successful Meet for Our Athletes.

A Large Crowd and Great Enthusiasm.

This afternoon saw the consummation of the most successful field meet ever held at the State University of Iowa. Credit may be given to many for the success of the day, but no one can deny to Chantland the most of the honor which was conferred by the events of the afternoon. As track-captain he has worked indefatigably, and his scheme of procuring an inter-class cup added to the interest and enthusiasm of contestants and spectators alike.

The first event was called almost on time, and what is still more phenomenal the track was kept reasonably clear. No time was lost between events, and each contestant appeared on the track when his race was called. Think of over one hundred entries in a fall field-day, and the meaning which such enthusiasm bears to our prospects in the State Meet, and no one can have the least fear that next spring the cup will not remain right where it is.

As was announced at the track, the class cup, medals, and prizes, will be presented to the winners at Close Hall, at 8 o'clock this evening.

The officers who managed the events, and who did it in a creditably business-like way were as follows: Lieut. Vogdes, field officers; George Decker, clerk of course; Fred Iarrabee, assistant; Prof. Wade, W. L. Converse, and C. H. Burton, judges of finish; Prof. Loos, Clark, Fickes, and W. H. Bremner, field judges; the time-keepers were Prof. Jameson, A. G. Smith, F. A. McMaster. A. M. Van Allen was marshal, and J. G. Lindsay acted as referee.

The first events, 100 yd. dash and shot-put were called at 1:45, but there was considerable delay in starting. A strong tip was out on Brown, H. M. '95, but it was generally conceded that Crum would win, judging by his performances at State Field Day. A light wind blew down the track and was some assistance in this race. Kallenberg acted as starter. Crum showed his training and got the advantage of a good start, which he maintained to the end, winning by five feet. Huston was second, and Rowell took third by a good finish. The time as announced was 10 2-5 seconds, but the watches were probably well oiled.

Rogers, '96, won the shot-put by a throw of 32 ft. 11 in. Littig, '95, second, 32 ft. 7 in. Van Oosterhout, third, 31 ft. 2 in. This event took place on the stretch east of the grand stand and so was not seen by many of the spectators.

The half-mile bicycle race was a pretty event, but Smith was not pushed to win in 1:17 1/2. Cox led to the stretch, but Smith easily pushed past him and won by five yards. Cox was second, and Miller third. Smith is a strong rider and it is said has a record of 2.20 for a mile.

The pole-vault for height is a recent enough innovation to rouse great interest, and as it takes place in front of the grand-stand everybody secured a good view. Miller and Van Oosterhout quit early in the race, but Chantland gave a number of exhibition vaults and finally cleared the bar at a height of nine feet, with something still in reserve. Chantland will make a strong bid for first at State field-day next spring.

In the 440 yd. run there were twelve entries, nine of whom started. This was one of the prettiest races of the day. Leach ran an elegant race and paced himself well. He trailed to the hundred yard line and then coming to the front with a great spurt won by three yards in 56 1/2 sec. Brockaway was second and Brown third. The wind during the progress of this race blew in seventeen directions and was of considerable hindrance to the runners. This was Leach's initial appearance on the track and he will be at the front in this race next spring.

The pole-vault for distance was a new event, and the contestants showed their lack of practice, but nevertheless the records made were very creditable. Chantland won by 21 ft. 8 1/2 in. McCrary was second, 20-3, and Graves third, 20-1. The Laws began to feel quite jubilant at this stage of the game, and the way in which they had been doing business bid fair to secure them the inter-class cup.

120 yd. hurdle was won by Dey, after an exciting finish with Chantland. Time was 21 1/2 seconds, an excellent performance on the part of the winner as he had never started in a hurdle race before.

Crum stepped away from his field in the 220 yd. dash, and finished very easily in 25 1/2 seconds. He was not pushed at all and can run the distance without doubt at least 2 seconds faster. The Senior Laws again manifested their presence and won second and third places with Huston and McCrary.

Dey, Chantland, and Leach carried off the honors in the high jump. Dey, as was expected got first and had no difficulty at all in clearing 5 ft. Chantland was second with 4 ft. 10 in.

The 16 lb hammer throw had to be postponed as the handle was broken at the start.

Crum took the 220 hurdle and thus made a record of three firsts for the day. Time of 35 1/2 sec. was very slow.

Radasch and Graves had an exciting finish in the half-mile walk, the former winning at the wire in 4:11 1/2. Boyer was third.

The record in the hop, step, and jump, did not come up to expectations; but in this event at State field meets S. U. I. athletes have always done better than at home meets. Virtue won, 41 ft. 5 in. Chantland and Dotv. second and third respectively, with distance of 41 ft. 2 in. and 40 ft. 2 1/2 in.

The standing broad jump while not especially enticing from spectacular point of view is a fair test of skill. Virtue won by making a distance of 9 ft. 5 in. Snook went 9 ft. 3 1/2 in. and Chantland covered 9 ft. 2 1/2 in.

Clark ran a good half mile and won with considerable to spare. The time was announced as 2:18 1/2. Brown was a fair second, and Brockaway third.

In the running broad jump Chantland won with 18 ft., 10 1/2 in. and Virtue second with 18 ft., 10 1/2 in. There was no third.

The presence of Lindsay in the two-mile bicycle race would have added interest to the contest. As it proved the race finally narrowed down to Smith and Cox. Hill set the pace for the first half and then dropped out. On the second Cox went to the front and led for two laps, keeping his position well into the fourth round. But Smith had been riding along easily and in the home stretch got to the front by a good spurt and ended the race in 5:58 1/2.

Thursday's Foot-Ball Practice.

Since the game at Denver, a feeling more or less pronounced has been universal, current in the mind of the student body, that there are a number of things in the playing of the 'Varsity eleven that are open to improvement. As our coach has now left us and the captain personally takes part in all the work, we have deemed it our duty to watch the play of the men from the side lines more closely than has been done before, in order to be able to make an intelligent and impartial estimate of each man's playing.

The criticism of the candidates is given primarily for their benefit. No one need take offense at the remarks herein made as they are offered in good faith and in all fairness, for the sole and only purpose of correcting faults by calling the attention of the candidates to them and in so doing to render as strong as possible the team that is to represent us:

To begin at the middle Rogers at center plays a steady game and possesses all of the qualifications necessary for the position, strength ability, and a cool head. It would be well for him to break through a little oftener and to indulge in some tackling occasionally when the opponents have the ball.

Ingersoll at left guard is a strong man but inclined to be too slow. He seldom breaks through, even when playing against men that weigh 40 pounds less than himself. He should be taught to lunge forward with all the vim of the 200 pounds that he carries, the moment the ball is snapped. He must play lower also.

Pritchard at right guard does not improve so rapidly as he should. He does not seem to be able to keep track of both the ball and his man. He always allows his opponent to get the lunge on him and consequently is often brushed aside.

Aldrich at left tackle is playing very well. He is hard to budge and when the ball is given him seldom fails to make a gain. He is learning to get in the new style of interference and with a little more practice will do some good blocking.

Van Oosterhout at right tackle plays in his last year's position, and shows some improvement over last year's form. He only worked for a few moments Thursday, as he was not feeling well, and Tyrrell was put in his place.

Tyrrell's true position however in our opinion is on the end. He tackles low and hard and is not afraid to plunge head foremost into the interference and break it to pieces. He usually downs his man behind the line.

Robinson is on the right and shows a lack of nerve apparently. He seems afraid to go into the interference from in front and invariably tries to jump on the man's back and to tackle him from behind. This style of playing will not do for a man on the 'Varsity team, the interference must be broken back of the line and not after the ball had been carried thirty or forty yards down the field.

White who also plays at end is perhaps the nerviest of all the candidates for that position with the possible exception of Tyrrell. He goes into the interference and always goes hard. He would get the runner oftener if he would attempt to dodge in between the blockers a little more instead of running himself dead against a single one of the opponents.

Sawyer at quarter is invaluable. His blocking is excellent and as he is the swiftest man back of the line, he always makes it a point to keep up with the man with the ball. Where ever else the term may be weak it certainly is not at quarter as long as "Prince" is at his post.

Myers at left half though not as speedy as many backs amply atones for any short coming in this respect by the head work that he introduces into all his playing. He starts the moment the ball is in motion and follows his blockers very well indeed.

The position of left half is not definitely spoken for at present.

Decker has been playing here for a day or two his best points are his grit and self possession. He lacks strength, fleetness, and experience, three qualities which a successful half back can not be without.

Captain Elliott at full is doing good work. He plays better today than he did two weeks ago, and his blocking is fully up to the standard. His line smashing is getting better but he should learn to go still lower if he is to make the most of his opportunities. He would not make a mistake in our opinion if he could play the game faster while the men are in line.

Space does not permit us to extend our remarks to a consideration of the playing of the scrub team.

Allen and Collins are playing a husky game at guard and it behooves the 'Varsity players to look to their laurels.

At tackle we have Bush and Littig each putting up a fairly good game, but neither of them in their play being aggressive enough for their own good. There are other men equally good on the second eleven but they should come out more regularly. If the 'Varsity is to come out successfully in the end the players must be put through the baptism of fire and blood; come out therefore all you who have foot-ball suits, play hard and displace the dead timber on the eleven if there is any that needs displacing.
