In pursuance to a call issued by the prime movers in the Populist ranks, notably Senator William R. Bennett in St. Paul, and the influential young party growing from all sections of the United States assembled in Providence, R. I., today, for the discussion of the state of the country and to propose measures for its relief from the tyrannical rule of the "gold bag of Wall Street." Among the more notable Populists present were Senator Wolcott (Kins- mouth), Senator Pfeiffer (Williams), Weaver (Pitts), Simpson (Yankee), Rev. Dr. W. H. Blake (Hessigmann), Gov. Collings (Davis), Senator Jones (Bowell), and Ignatius Donnelly (Kearfs)

Shortly after 8 o'clock Senator Wol- cott called the meeting to order, and made a short prayer and a few sentences to the delegates to his city. As he concluded he placed in nomination the name of James A. Simpson for temporary chairman; the nomination was quickly seconded and the election made unanimous and rage, most vigorous applause of the convention. Simpson took the chair and made a ringing speech. He strongly urged the money interests which control our government, and pleaded earnestly for the people, and the people alone. Where, Senator Simpson's speech was frequently interrupted by applause.

The convention proceeded with the work of organization. Committees on permanent organization and on resolutions were appointed. While these committee were at work, word came were summoned by Senator Wolcott for a speech on silver. The senator responded in a stirring address in which he ridiculed the money question, He strongly advocated free silver, and showed the need of a new plan of coinage. The party to carry out reforms for the benefit of the laborer and farmer. The report of the organization committee was adopted, the convention ordered that the name of James A. Simpson be placed in nomination the name of the old parties, and that the convention was unanimous in its endorsement and adoption of the plan of coinage.

Among others were planks demanding the free coinage of silver at $1 an ounce, and calling upon the government to provide the means for promoting silver coinage. Some of the resolutions passed were as follows:

Resolved, That the demand for the "gold bag;" they demanded restriction upon the "conser- vatism" trusts and corporations and government indebtedness, and they denounced our present financial systems and demanded more money and a free coinage of silver at $1 an ounce.

Iowa Historical Record.
The last issue of the Iowa Historical record, published by the State Historical Society, is extremely interesting to friends of the University. The first article is a sketch of Amos Dean, LL.D., Dr. Boardman's immediate predecessor, of the University. It also contains a brief sketch of the lives of a number of alumni of the State University in public life, collected by Professor Jas. A. Bobbach. Both of the above named articles will be of great interest to the students who are unacquainted with the early history of the University and her students. The pamphlet also contains a beautiful poem written by Mrs. Leona C. H. Howard, a tribute of affection to the life of Mrs. Helen Cox Fairchild, whose musical attainments were so much appreciated in this city.
