Crum Again in the Front:

Saturday was hello-day at Traverse Island, and more than half of the 5,000 guests of the New York Athletic Club, with the Traverse Island, were in attendance. The weather was cool and bracing, making almost perfect a day from a sporting standpoint. The English and other schools who were so badly beaten last Saturday, as well as several others who were included in the game between Cambridge and Yale Universities next Saturday, were present, and the fact that some of them entered in the competitions attracted an unusually large crowd. In the afternoon a new world's record in the 30 yard dashes, as he was first in the short dash, and he lined up for the 120 yard handicap run, which he won with an allowance of one yard in 12 seconds, and he exhibited no symptoms of the trouble, of which he complained last Saturday.

The hurdle races attracted much attention, as Stephen Chase and Godfrey Shaw were the scratch men, and Chase won the first trial heat from Oakley, to whom was conceded four yards, in 15 seconds. Godfrey Shaw was second in the world's record. In the second heat Shaw was second to Hatch. The final heat, however, was a match run between Chase and Shaw, and the world's champion beat the Englishman by five yards and broke his own record by one second of a fifth.

In the mile and a half handicap, Godfrey Shaw, the Englishman, was first, and the heat was won with an allowance of one yard in 12 seconds, and he exhibited no symptoms of the trouble, of which he complained last Saturday.

The Reenie Debate.

It will be remembered that owing to some difficulty last year the annual debate between the Junior and Senior classes of the University of Minnesota had to be abandoned. There is some misapprehension among the students as to the effect of the misunderstanding. The League is still in existence, and will hold a contest this year at Minneapolis. At the suggestion of both parties to the contest some needed changes will be made in the constitution so that the recurrence of the misunderstanding will be impossible.

Miss Gertrude Howell, who was the receiving officer at the game, last Friday, was again, in a few choice remarks, introduced the incoming president, Miss Helen Stewart, who took the gavel, and in a neat and well-mannered form her expression of the honors conferred upon her was briefly reviewed the aims and purposes of Hesperian, and placed a high standard for future effort.

Miss Gussie Gray delivered a recitation entitled "Defense of Burns of B. Anthony," Miss Gray gave this in costume, and her interpretation of the spirit of the selection was very pleasing.

Miss Jennie Bishop next declared "Possible in the Near Center," in a manner which demonstrated her ability to handle it. Her voice and manner were sympathetic.

The ladies' quartette rendered "Way down upon the Swansea River," which received a well-earned jump. The debate on the subject: 'Resolved, that European powers should not allow the Sultan of Turkey to exercise sovereign authority in his Christian provinces," was affirmed by Dr. Horace and Miss Few, 2nd and 3rd, and denied by Mary Hornbrook and Clara Ginnick. The subject is a live one, and elicited the closest attention of the audience. The way in which the debaters handled the subject showed careful research; however, it is not clear how the girls. Marion Davis made the most convincing argument of the evening, and won the decision of the judges for the affirmative.

The next number was a speech by Margaret Van Meter, who gave a most entertaining account of the life and work of the unpronounceable "Rosa Kovalsky.

The literary part of the program was closed by Amy Zimmerman's declamation, "Sepoy," a duet on Bishop of Beaufort and Joan of Arc." This was pronounced by many to be the best number on the program. Miss Zimmerman is to be complimented on her stage presence and the manner in which she entered into the spirit of her selection, which was a good one." Miss Harrison closed the program with a well rendered piano solo.

South Hall looks well in its newly added decorations. Hesperian extends a most cordial invitation to her friends to be present at her next bi-weekly program.

Walker Whiteside.

Polite playing circles of the metropolis are afoot anent the forthcoming Shakespearean presentations of Walker Whiteside, at the Herald Square Theatre the end of the month. Whiteside appeared here several seasons ago, and while the reception was respectful to a degree, few critics were favorably inclined in his favor. When he modestly withdrew after a brief season public and critical sentiment inclined to his worth, and many a word of glowing praise found its way into print from writers who hesitated to incorporate the praise directly in their criticisms of his performances. There is no misleading the undergraduate of interest hiding behind him now. His appearances are to be gained by postage stamped concrete and appropriate costumes. Hamlet is spoken of among his first offerings, with Rutherford to follow. Mr. Whiteside will appear at the Opera House early in December. Manitoba have completed arrangements to that effect.

A Chicago lady, formerly of Cedar Rapids, is the Midland Monticello's October type of midland beauty. The inside workings of the Associated Press, illustrated by the famous artist, Carpenter; the Rhine Journey, by the editor, with thirteen pictures; a strong paper by a brother of Edwin Copper (who was hung with John Brown), charging the post Richard B. Ely with the betrayal of Brew; "Lincoln as a Lawyer," with Robert T. Lincoln's favorite picture of his father; Col. Keating, on the Canon Life of the Alaska Indians; a vivid picture of the Battle of Allston, and four good stories, are announced as leading attractions in the October Midland Monthly, Des Moines. This is a magazine to include in your list for '76.

Young lady roommate wanted at 221 Van Buren St. Private family. Room and boarders, and day boarders also desired.
