Yale defeated the West Point Cadets, 17-10, in the historic football game. The contest was played on Saturday afternoon, and the outcome was decided by the first half of the game.

Yale scored on the opening drive when Fullen kicked a goal from the 15-yard line. The score was increased on the next possession, as Woolley kicked another goal from the 40-yard line. The final Yale score came on a safety kick, making the final score 17-10.

The game was played in front of a large crowd of spectators, and the atmosphere was electric. The Yale and West Point teams were evenly matched, and the game was contested with great intensity.

The Yale defense was led by Fullen, who intercepted two passes and broke up several others. Woolley, the Yale placekicker, was accurate on both field goals.

The West Point offense was powered by Fullen, who rushed for 100 yards and scored two touchdowns. The West Point defense was led by Woolley, who made several tackles for losses.

The game was a testament to the skill and athleticism of both teams, and it served as a reminder of the rich history of college football.

"Fluors" were very common yesterday, caused by too close attention to the political situation and too little attention to study. Carl S. Newswen, 20, has left S. U. and returned to the University of Marty, Washington, D. C., where he was in attendance last year.

G. W. New was spending a few days with University friends on his way to his home in Appendix after finishing a job in engineering at Bottum.

Louise B equipment, Mite Fiel and Rose Hubbell, went Friday morning to Anamosa, to visit, to which and returned Wednesday morning.

The Board of Regents is in session today. The principal business will be the consideration of the plans for the new Medical Hospital.

The University presented a time-appropriate announcement Monday and Tuesday, caused by the unusual number of students who went home to vote.

Fred Larrabee has returned from his home in Clermont, la., where he combined his studies with jobbing to help to erect our next president.

After the program Saturday evening the students followed to the Cline Hall, where they spent nearly two hours in the world's sports. President Schaefer added to the enjoyment of the occasion by reciting several humorous selections.

A programme was to the Sunday Inter-Island Ocean from New Orleans tells of the arrival there of the steamer State of Kanawha, where several pleasure boats are now being boarded. One was Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pills, of Iowa City, on route to the City of Mexico.

The Faculty received the election returns of President Schaefer's office Tuesday night, while the less fortunate student was compelled to glean his information at the Army or from the bulletin of the Iowa City Republican.

The nomination for county attorney in Johnson County were two able graduations from our Law Department, Charles M. Leuker, L. H. 41, was running on the Republican ticket, and was elected by a small majority. Mr. Dutcher is a young lawyer fully qualified for the position to which he has been elected. His practice has been particularly active in this city, and is beginning to make itself felt by the citizens, who are naturalizing his interest.
