The Lecture by Gassaus. The Opera House was crowded Tuesday evening by an audience assembled to hear Prof. Gassaus, of the S. U. L. Lecture Course, the lecture by the Rev. F. G. Gas- saus. Chancellor McEwen introduced the speaker, whose subject was: "A Chap-

"The Notes from Nebraska. The following notes, which will no doubt interest our readers, are taken from the last Nebraska Advocate:"

"It is true, Nebraska did not win the pennant, but she can feel the satisfaction of having defeated the team in the two of the greatest difficulties Iowa had her whole team back, with the exception of the starting five. Yet Nebraska lost the score against them in the Thanksgiving game. Our team, which, according to Minnesota, was negligible, according to Ohio, Robinson came to the University, he did not have to team as full when she won by Iowa. Ever the close of the season Nebraska un-
