Vincent Refuses to Debate.

IT is with the deepest regret that we have to announce the fact that a debate between the members of the University of Wisconsin and S. C. T. U. is impossible. After waiting for a reply to the challenge the debate was sent some time before Thanksgiving, the S. C. T. U. girls sent a letter of withdrawal to Madison, which, of course, resulted in a challenge. The S. C. T. U. girls, being informed that the spirit of that institution is to look down upon those of lower social status, declined the challenge.
