

The Vitrina Reporter

A tri-weekly newspaper published by students of the State University of Iowa.

Vol. 29
IOWA CITY, IOWA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 30, 1897
No. 46

---

Early Oratorical Contest.

The approaching Oratorical Contest will be held in the city, and the amount of prize money given for the several events is considerable. The contest is well known, and the number of students and faculty members who will participate is large. The competition will be fierce, and the audience is expected to be enthusiastic.

---

Political Science Club.

The first open meeting of the Political Science Club was held in the Central Union this evening. The meeting was well attended, with a large number of students and faculty members present. The focus of the meeting was on the role of political science in society, and the importance of understanding political theory.

---

The Indian is the only true animal.

In his recent address, Mr. E. W. Stoughton, a member of the Iowa State University, discussed the role of the Indian in American history and culture. He emphasized the importance of understanding the Indian's perspective and the challenges they faced. The address was well received and sparked a lively discussion among the attendees.

---

Laws Department.

The meeting of the Law Department was held today, with a focus on recent legal developments and the role of the law in society. The department has been active, with several students and faculty members participating in discussions and debates. The next meeting is scheduled for next week.

---

The Bubonic Pest in Iowa City.

A case of bubonic plague was confirmed in Iowa City, and the authorities have taken several measures to prevent the spread of the disease. The community is urged to take necessary precautions to protect themselves and their families.

---

Mr. Peck's Address.

Mr. Peck, the new president of the Iowa State University, delivered an address on the state of the university and its future plans. He emphasized the importance of education and the need for continued support from the community. The speech was well received, and the audience gave a standing ovation.

---

The Turf.

The Turf, the student newspaper, published an article on the recent political events and the role of the media in shaping public opinion. The article was well received, and the editor, Mr. J. B. Troedel, was pleased with the response.

---

Notice.

All students are reminded to attend the upcoming meetings of the various clubs and organizations. The information for these meetings is available in the Student Union.

---

The Harvard catalog for 1897.

The Harvard catalog for 1897, which was issued on Dec. 15, contains a table of estimates of annual expenditure and tuition fees. The data is presented in a clear and concise manner, and the information is easy to access and understand.

---

Large Audience Present to Help Mr. Peck.

A large audience attended the meeting to support Mr. Peck and show their support for the university. The atmosphere was positive, and the gathering ended with a round of applause.
JUST as much Style, Good Fit, and Satisfactory Wear
As any Merchant Tailor can put into a suit for from ten to fifteen dollars more than Our Price.

Ours Range From $10.00 to $20.00.
Very Good Suits for $7.50.

CARTER School of Oratory.
Located in Close Hall.

We teach Elocution, Oratory and Dramatic Art According to the new school of Expression.
Special Work in Physical Culture if desired. Our Motto, "By Art, General Art!"
For information, terms, etc., address,
E. A. CARTER, Principal and Proprietor.
R. O. BOL, 1721.
IOWA CITY, IOWA.

FREE, GIVEN AWAY. FREE.
100 Pounds of Flour and 10 Pounds of Japan Tea, for our two Puzzles.
LUMSDEN & RUMMELHART, GROCERS.
130 SOUTH DUBUQUE STREET.

Cedar Rapids College of Music.
New Savings Bank Building,
Corner Third Avenue and Third Street,
Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Large corps of competent instructors from European, and American Schools.
Instruction based on latest and most approved European methods.
Special courses for students desiring to fit themselves for teachers.
All branches of music taught, as well as modern languages.
Free lectures on musical history, biography, and physiology of the voice.
Visitors always welcome.
Arrangements can be made for students to have piano practice at College.
Concert Bureau for supply of artists to churches, societies, etc. Prospects upon application to
Wm. J. HALL, Director.

LATEST STYLE HATS AND FURNISHING GOODS AT BLOOM & MAYER'S.
Katherine Way has gone home to stay for the rest of the term, according to a family letter.

The number of expulsions resulting from the Fresh-Soph fracas in Illinois has now reached eight.

Miss Ruby S. Jackson has recently donated to the Iowa City Public Library Thackeray's works in 9 volumes.

At the annual state convention of the I.U.C., the Iowa Male Quartette will have charge of the music.

Mrs. Becker, from Postville, whose husband is an assistant in the Homestead Department, was a visitor yesterday.

Northwestern University held a debate last night preliminary to the Wisconsin debate. Question: "Should Church Property be Taxed?"

Hamlet will be played at the Open House Monday evening by Professor Carter and his company. The proceeds will be given to the masonic charity.

Y. W. C. A. meeting at 5 p.m. Sunday led by Florence A. S. A. subject: "What does it mean to be a Christian?" All young women are cordially invited.

The basket ball team will go to Carbondale with the debaters. They have arranged for games with the University of Chicago and the Central Y. M. C. A. team.

F. W. Durkin and M. W. Williams were elected by the Kangaroo Club and John Hoak by Irving Institute to represent the University in the tournament with Minnesota.

The meeting at Cline Hall Sunday afternoon promises to be one of unusual interest, as the subject is one which means much to all thoughtful students. H. C. Dorn is the chairman.

Saturday evening at about 7:30 our boys are to play the Cedar Rapids team, who defeated them at Cedar Rapids 18 to 6. An interesting game may be expected for the. The price of admission is 25c. Members will be admitted for 10c.

The day of prayer was observed by two meetings, one of which was a conference of committees and members, and another at 6:30, when Mr. P. R. Ainsley, acting State College secretary, spoke on a creed on "The Value of Human Life." The Webster City High School Band comes in this month in a new building. The design or the cover is the work of a 9th grader. An exhibition of the football team is also given. The high school has received from the state a salary of 80 dollars, and W. H. Michaelis, 10c, will be their military instructor.

Dental Reception

J. J. Booth, freshman, is on the committee.

The Davis Boys of the Junior class, were called home by the death of a brother at A. I. E. 17.

Fay McClelland has been quite sick for the past week.

Dr. Howser has been elected by the Eastern Iowa Dental Society for a term of 2 years as a member of the board to note any progressive progressive dentistry and report to them each year at their meetings.

Guy, Jr., was called home last week. The Auditor was accidentally shot but is now out of danger.

Mrs. Becker, from Postville, whose husband is an assistant in the Homestead Department, was a visitor yesterday.

Northwestern University held a debate last night preliminary to the Wisconsin debate. Question: "Should Church Property be Taxed?"

Hamlet will be played at the Open House Monday evening by Professor Carter and his company. The proceeds will be given to the masonic charity.

Y. W. C. A. meeting at 5 p.m. Sunday led by Florence A. S. A. subject: "What does it mean to be a Christian?" All young women are cordially invited.

The basket ball team will go to Carbondale with the debaters. They have arranged for games with the University of Chicago and the Central Y. M. C. A. team.

F. W. Durkin and M. W. Williams were elected by the Kangaroo Club and John Hoak by Irving Institute to represent the University in the tournament with Minnesota.

The meeting at Cline Hall Sunday afternoon promises to be one of unusual interest, as the subject is one which means much to all thoughtful students. H. C. Dorn is the chairman.

Saturday evening at about 7:30 our boys are to play the Cedar Rapids team, who defeated them at Cedar Rapids 18 to 6. An interesting game may be expected for the. The price of admission is 25c. Members will be admitted for 10c.

The day of prayer was observed by two meetings, one of which was a conference of committees and members, and another at 6:30, when Mr. P. R. Ainsley, acting State College secretary, spoke on a creed on "The Value of Human Life." The Webster City High School Band comes in this month in a new building. The design or the cover is the work of a 9th grader. An exhibition of the football team is also given. The high school has received from the state a salary of 80 dollars, and W. H. Michaelis, 10c, will be their military instructor.