WANTED—An Idea.

The editor of The Vidette-Reporter, 305 W. Washington, has an idea for a World's Fair exhibit. Would any man or woman, or any society or association, or any corporation or company, or any one or any group of persons, have an idea for a suitable exhibit for the World's Fair? If so, he will be glad to hear from the person or persons or society or corporation or company. Please write his name and address. Send your ideas only by mail.

Judge Dean of the Supreme Court, is in the city for the purpose of teaching the law students in preparation for the winter examination.

The freshman Latin class received a vivid lecture from Mr. Potter yesterday, on the use of "poetry." The paper at Sessional to-morrow evening will be read by Professor Calvin, Subject: "The Poetics of Iowa."

Freshmen Collegetes and Academy students met at basketball yesterday. The odds were slightly in favor of the Academy.

Miss Barrett, the assistant librarian, has been too ill to be at her post this week, but is expected to be out to-morrow.

The much-needed of psychology examination came off yesterday, much to the relief of the friends of members of the class.

R. A. Deny, ex 97, was visiting in the city yesterday. He intends to be in school during the spring term and will graduate with the class of 98.

Miss Nina Swain returned Monday evening from her home in Oklahoma, where she has been in attendance upon her sick mother the past two weeks.

General James A. Grant, visited the Law Department, as the guest of Professor Esmer, Tuesday afternoon. He made the boys a speech, which was well received.

The Erudolphin will present a special Washington's birthday program tomorrow evening, after which they will entertain the Irvinrs in true colonial style.

The Junior Hop Committee, appointed at the recent meeting of the class of G. B. Carter, chairman, E. E. Hobby, F. A. Solomon, J. B. Hokinss and E. C. Saylor.

W. C. Keeler, who represents the university at the Grammar school in Chicago, Monday, is given of the Chicago Chronicle as having been given a flattering reception.

The Senior girls appeared yesterday morning in the "matured-bun" cap which, they say, will be worn during the course of the year. Generally speaking, it is quite becoming to our girls' style of beauty.

An investigation has been made by the Wisconsin legislature into the expenditures of their State University, and it is found that the University has overdrawn on the state treasury to the amount of $419,947.54 as of the 1st of May last.

James Lewis Kallam Jr., 96, and Lilian Bonorden, daughter of ex-citist Senator, and organist for the German Lutheran church, was married at her mother's home last night, at 8 o'clock.

The growth has at present a good business at Cheles, La.

"Celebrity-bowlers" should have heard Professor Winsor speak at the Unitarian church last Sunday evening. In an address full of wit, he showed such persons to be "false prophets." Present society, he said, is based upon that which is not going on. Some evils, it is true, do exist, but the greatest ill is our ignorance. The very fact that the present is not perfect, and that hitherto everything has been improved, is proof enough for any man that better times are to come.
