RECEPTION TO FOOT BALL TEAM.

A HAMPTON GOLD WATCH PRESENTED TO COACH WAGNER.

The foot ball team and regular staff were delightfully entertained on Monday evening at the “Manor House” of Mr. J. G. Gilchrist. The affair was informal, and tall rolling was indulged in by the ladies. Mrs. L. E. Wood, her brother-in-law, Mr. Linn, and a host of friends made the occasion memorable.

In the course of the evening Coach Wagner was presented by the members of the team with a elegant gold watch and chain, "J. D. Walker," marking the presentation speech. This was one of the most unexpected and exclusive of gift of concern, the work of the watch is superb, and its beauty along foot ball lines. These men know how to do it.

WISDOM’S JEWELED RING.

WILL BE GIVEN BY DR. HEDLEY DEC. 26th.

The fact that Dr. Hedley was secured as a number on the Lecture Course added much to its popularity, but the interest in this number has greatly increased since it has been announced that the benefactor will be "Wisdom’s Jeweled Ring," the new and fascinating production of this talented speaker.

Every one that has listened to Dr. Hedley can testify as to his magnetic power over his audience, and when he turned to almost the tears and convulsions with laughter at his wit. His "blood side of Life" has been given hundreds of times, but his new production, although extremely different, is attracting this season great popular attraction. It will be a rare treat to hear this "Prince of Orators" on this delightful subject.

Law Department.

Most of the Laws have returned from their Thanksgiving visits.

Lieutenants, H. B. Bly and W. A. Wilcox are late additions to the Junior class.

The Hammond Law Senate held their pictures taken for the Junior Annual yesterday.

Chancellor McClain has announced Friday, at 2 o’clock, the time for examination in Study of Cases.

The course of true love did not run smooth for a member of the Junior class, and after putting on his clothes with a 20-pound, he returned to his home last Tuesday.

Professor Robichaux returned last Friday from a business trip in the east. Monday he commenced a course of four weeks on Criminal Procedure before the Senior class.

Mr. N. Wolf, of Chicago, who is attending the College of Physicians and Surgeons, married Robert Mr. O’Connell, the first of the week, and attended several receptions.

Judge Ney has returned from Vinton, where he has been assistant counsel in the famous Novak case. From the jury’s verdict the presence of the Judge was evidently felt.

The anxiously awaited examination in Real Estate will take place on Wednesday at 2 o’clock. Professor Hayes is kindly giving the class some extra subjects, which are highly appreciated.

Homoeopathic Medical Department.

Miss Coleman, class of ’95,ington in Cedar Rapids, Mercer Kaufman, class of ’98, and Alexander and Kepa, class of 1900, went home to spend Thanksgiving.

Grant Park, of Mr. Pleasants, has been spending a few days in the city, but he is going to his brother-in-law, Mr. E. L., of the class of 1895.

The first lecture in Medical Jurisprudence was given by Charles R. McClain at 10 o’clock Wednesday morning.

Dr. W. J. Ball read a paper Wednesday evening at the meeting of the Johnson County Homoeopathic Medical Society.

We notice in looking at the enrollment of this department in the new term book that there are a slighter mixed. Several names are missing from the Senior and Junior classes, as well as the Freshman class, thus giving the attendance as being much smaller than it really is.

To Aid Debtors.

The Assistant Librarian, Miss Loomis, has begun to prepare a reference book that will undoubtedly prove of great use to the members of the literary and social societies. Arrangements have been made with the Vindicta-Reporter to that effect. A number of its articles will be used in the Literary Library. Here each paper will be examined, and all subjects of important debts and contentions will be drawn and systematically arranged in a book.

Most of the large schools now have one or more forenoon classes every year, and as the Vindicta-Reporter exchanges with nearly all the college papers, it is hoped that a complete record of the "jag" debates and orations may be kept.

Below is given a copy of an announcement appearing in the last issue.

"Messrs. D. C. Heath & Co., of Boston, have in press an edition of De Quincey’s Confessions of an English Opium Eater that promises to be the authoritative students’ edition of this valuable piece. The editor is Professor George A. Walshe, of the University of Iowa, who has long made a systematic study of De Quincey. The text followed is that of the revised and enlarged edition of 1856, with the exception of the "Preliminary Confessions," in which the author’s notes have followed the original edition of 1824, giving De Quincey’s additions in an appendix."
The Vidette-Reporter

Now in the coming entertainments, which will be literary in character, let the same spirit be displayed, and common interest manifested. How better would be the demonstration if a larger crowd had attended the Grinnell game than was present at the Iowa-Minnesota debate last year, and how much more the assembly who gather to hear our preliminaries, in which the best talent we afford is brought forward. Both of these preliminaries, several numbers of the Lecture Course, and a home talent musical, will be given during this term, and they certainly deserve in their turn the unqualified support of all loyal students.

The University of Wisconsin is erecting a new literary building 214 by 108 feet, with a wing 56 by 65 feet, four stories high, and containing 500 rooms. It is expected to reach completion some time next year, or early in '96.

S. M. Bayford concluded his profitable visit here with a powerful address, Sunday, at 3:30, and in the evening the young people's societies of the east side churches united to hear him. He pleased all who heard him. -- O. of M. Artist.

Early in the season the college press generally circulated the report that President Harper, of Chicago University, had declared that any player on the Chicago football team who used unfair tactics would be expelled from the University. The fact that certain men on the team have been repeatedly ruled of the field for stumping, is causing certain parties to form the opinion that the President didn't mean what he said.

The Sundog Omaha has expressed the following opinion of Oskaloosa Wager-burner's work for Iowa: "The admirable manner in which Iowa came up to the front in foot ball during the latter part of the season was the most striking event in wene a foot ball circle, and renews the cradle credit in our Oskaloosa Wager-burner, coach of the Iowa team. The game Iowa put up against Nebraska Thursday would have defeated the majority of teams west of the Allegheny mountains. Her defense was superb, and was shown in grand style a half-dozen times in less than a dozen yards from her own goal. This was due to no weakness on the part of Nebraska, but solely to the magnificent defensive work of the Iowa team. All lovers of good, clean, foot ball sincerely hope that Oskaloosa Wager-burner, will return to Iowa next season to coach the University. He has done more to help foot ball in Iowa than any coach who has previously taught the young men how the game should be played."
