Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION.

THE STRANGER WITHIN OUR GATES ARE HEARTILY WELCOME.

Old Clasp Hall was well filled last night, and if such receptions are usually a bore, as the Hawkeye would lead us to believe, last night was a notable exception to the rule. The old students were ready for a word of welcome to all the strangers. "Grove and revered Seniors" and "freshmen" freshmen, medics and dentists, the laws and the homoeopaths, mingled together, exchanging greeting, making or reviving acquaintances, and passing the right-hand of friendship to one and all. Each man being labeled with his name, department, class and town from which he came, did away with formality and form.

A little after eight the men assembled in and nearby filled the large auditorium, where a short program had been prepared.

The Y. M. C. A. quartet, composed of Messrs. Fred Bailey, Class, Buller, Fellingham and Barth, opened with a song and responded to a hearty encore.

Messrs. F. M. McHale and A. B. Simpson, practicing with their fathe...
