PHYSICIANS WIN.

S. U. I. Defeated—score 11 to 15.

The following account of the game played at Rock Island last Saturday, is taken from the Rock Island Union:

"The Iowa State University and Rock Medical College elevens met on the gridiron of the Rock Island ball park on Saturday afternoon, and the Iowans were defeated by a score of 11 to 15.

"There was a crowd of fully a thousand people on the grounds when the first team made their appearance. They received a well merit ed, but it was an Iowa crowd, at least so far as organization was concerned. While the orange and maroon of the elevens was flanked by several hundred Illinois colors, it was almost last sighted in the blare of old galloping by the Iowans. The latter only had the support of a big delegation of fellow-students with their gorgeous decorations, but the supporters from Fortport, which city is a strong pointer for the State University, seemed to vie with each other in the art of enlargement of their partnership, gorgeous yellow chromo-plates decorating each coat, and a few of silver ribbons was flanked by all, and they gave their rivals a rounding re epique.

The finishing-off of the game were as follows:

Before—Dr. E. E. Hollenbeck of Chicago.

Time Keeper—William Butterworth, of Moline, and Oscar Schroeder, of Rock Island.

Linemen, George Mixture, of Rock Island, and Dr. Arvis Kohle, of Moline.

The line-up of the teams were as follows:

RUSSELL COLLEGE—IOWA.

Grase 1 Rby.

Farr 1 W.

Moore 1 R.

Baker 1 W.

McKee 1 R.

McLernon 1 R.

McMillen 1 R.

Smith 1 W.

Iowa—Williams, Brockway, Eiber and Pease.

It was after 3 o'clock when time was called. Rush took the line-up, and chose the north half of the field. Meggers kicked off for Iowa, and the game opened with the play on the physicians' fifteen yard line. Under the circumstances this was regarded as a remarkable performance, and it elicited a wave of delight from the Iowa fans. But their joy was short lived, for the physicians steadily carried the ball toward the Iowa goal. And, so, as the physicians had possession of the ball at the twenty yard line, and with a sudden dart, the ball was kicked off, and the Iowa men were unable to pursue the play. The Iowans then made a point, and at the end of this period of the game, the score was 5-0 in favor of Iowa.

SECOND TEAM VS. PANORA.

A TEAM OF EX-COLLEGE MEN TOOK OFF FOR IOWA CITY.

Last Saturday the second team played a game of foot ball at Panora against a eleven composed of ex-college men. The Panora men are known all over the state for their clever work upon the gridiron, but one defeat having been theirs for the past four years. Among three or four years ago there were only one or two, but after a hard contest, so that no discredit is attached to a defeat by such men.

The game was honorable and clean from start to finish. The ground was somewhat slippery, but a brisk breeze made it pleasant playing. Quite a good sized crowd was out to see, and the best of good feeling, was manifested all the while. The score at the end of the game stood 38-0 in favor of Panora.

The following was the line-up:

PAANORA—S. U. I.

Montgomery T Cooper.

Tobin 1 S. U. I.

McBride T. D. B. D. F. S. U. I., too. We should like to have all of them get the editors of their respective college papers a "stand up."—S. U. I. Quill—such an article as the above most certainly has been written by one who is sorely lacking in gentlemanly qualities, and it should be known that such a publication, not only of the above mentioned colleges, but of every college in the state, especially Ames and the Prata Normal, whose executive offices have been much discussed candidates for the presidency of S. U. I. Every college has its forerunners in the feeling of a friendship and fellow feeling that is akin to brotherhood, and when a creation of a man, in a serious manner, those who we admire and love are termed "little executives," we just love to go for emollients. The position of president in any institution is one of trust and responsibility. The article is apocryphal from end to end. It is "Big I" and "Little You" all the way through. It is filled with promises of the sacrifice that any institution would have to make to fill this vacant position, the Quill, if a song as that would be nothing as compared with the honor of holding the presidency of S. U. I. We will admit that it is a great honor, but if the Quill wishes to be in the good graces of a possible future executive it would be well to cease sarcastic remarks, or the first endeavor reform from the appearance of an editor that for yellow fever colored magazine known as the S. U. I. Quill. It seems to be the fed with the Quill to unjustly represent a thing when in a white. Last week the proposed obligation by the student body of Dr. B. D. Blackmore, because he would not play foot ball, but this season, we disapprove as soon as read. In the October 23th issue of the Vincetia-Hawkenian, the paper that we think represents best, S. U. I. spirit, we find that we are not alone in this disregard, but that in two different accounts, which together take over a column in the paper, they must vitally protest the assertion of the gentleman in this proposed by the Quill. As home and abroad the Quill can have no reverse.—The Cornellian.

PHILADELPHIA

E. J. Louis opened the program with a well-received declaration entitled "Wiped Out!"

The debate was on the question: "Resolved, that a bank of three judges should be substituted for the present judges-jury system." It was affirmed by Otto Brackett and C. H. A. Springs, and denied by J. R. Tompkins and H. A. Muller.

The next, number on the program was a "Sociation: from Wendell Philip s" rendered by Mr. Albert. The subject was very interesting and excellently enjoyed the discussion.

The program closed with an impromptu speech by T. eden, entitled "The Jury System."

Rotating Our Policy.

A couple of weeks ago a local appeared in this paper, stating that certain gentlemen was a candidate for election this fall, and that his repeated assistance to University interests was for him the friendship of the student body. Some of the city papers have taken this up, and attempted to make political capital out of it, in favor of the Yeomen Reporter, that is not "dabbled with politics," but is "dedicated to the interests of the institution it represents."

Firstly, we would say we do not dabble with politics, but provided we did, it would be our blessed privilege to inculcate where we see proper.

Secondly, we said no more concerning this gentleman than we have about many others in time past.

The gentlemen forget that college papers are run upon a different plan from that of their respective sheets and that the editors do not receive a per capita remuneration from political candidates. We are sorry that the gentlemen are so imbued with the editorial-writing proclivity, that they believe the contaminating custom is prevalent among the managers of the University papers.

Taking Books Without Recordings.

Much complaint is being made about the students who have taken books from the library without recording them. It is commendable to have such a thirst for knowledge, but such means for gratifying it are contemptible indeed. The majority of the books thus "borrowed" are reference works, and with the smallness of our library, the absence of every volume is sorely felt. We have been racking our brain to find an epigraph that would be suited to such persons, but feel convinced that there is no word in the English language strong enough to be applied, and ostracism—the old-fashioned, antiquated kind—would be a proper punishment for the offenders.

The librarian cannot prevent this, and it is upon the student's honor and honesty that he is allowed admittance to the book room. There is not a library of any size hereabouts—at least to our knowledge—where the public is allowed access to the book shelves, and it has often been the boast of U. C. I. that a folk that the moral standard of the students was so high that books were never stolen. But this fall a large number of volumes have mysteriously disappeared. Several reference works upon debates have walked off. Of course it is impossible for the librarian to say where they are, but when there are two men working upon the subject, the chances are that one of these six men knows something as to its whereabouts.

We hope that whoever is guilty of this may have the satisfaction of knowing that he is the most out of the mean, the lowest of the low, and that he would receive the contempt of the Faculty and student body were he found out.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the damaged portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an infected condition of the mucous lining of the ear. When this gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be checked and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. If you wish for help, come to our Hundred Dollar Fund for any case of deafness caused by catarrh, and we will send you a pair of Hall's Catarrh Cures. Send for specimens free. G. Professor Bobbins gave the lecture course a very complimentary notice before his Law class, yesterday. He advised every student to attend the course, "not to help anyone else but to help himself."

The State Normal and C. L. U. football teams played at Cedar Rapids, Saturday. Neither side was able to score. Why does S. U. I. get a game with S. S. N.? They have a team, but have not been scored against this year. Leighton, an old S. U. I. player, is coach.

What's the matter with the High School? A newspaper report of the game last Saturday says, "For the first time in many years, the Iowa City High School football team defeated the Cedar Rapids High School eleven here today. The game was played on Coe College grounds and the score was 0 to 5. It was a Jiologically contested game, and practically decides the championship of eastern Iowa.

Y. M. C. A.

The meeting Sunday afternoon was held at Mr. Wolfs, who read an interesting and instructive lesson. Most of the time was given to the text-song, and was much enjoyed by all present. The young men's choir (Novum V. M. C. A.) quartet furnished special music. Although there were something like one hundred present, it was strange how many vacant chairs. Come out next Sunday afternoon to the mission meeting of the Y. M., of Y. W. C. A., and see if you don't have a profitable hour. There is no reason why the room Should not be filled every Sunday. Come and bring your roommate.

Eredelsham.

The ladies of the Eredelsham societ entertained a roomful of visitors Saturday evening, with an especially good program. The first number on the program was a piano solo by Miss Hummer. A polka solo by Mr. Kelley was also well received.

The literary program was as follows: Declaration, by Miss Otto; Speech on Halloween and its Customs, by Miss Otis; Miss Graft; Debate, by Misses Slocum and King. Each of the debates was the result of a college education and did not satisfy a man for business life.

Affirmed by Misses Fenton and Howard. Denied by Misses Owens and Hall. Denied in favor of the affirmative. Speech, by Misses Lida Pinkham and Pinkham. Declaration, by Misses Green and Eredelsham.

The program was closed by a piano solo by Miss Swisher. The medal of national aim, with variations, was well rendered.

All the speakers on the program soared, without exception, thoroughly prepared—the debaters especially entering into the spirit of the occasion. Miss Pinkham's speech threw a new and more favorable light on the sometimes much abused war correspondent. She showed a thorough familiarity with her subject.

The declarations for Misses Green and Fenton deserve special mention. Each was especially well delivered and true interpretation of the thought. Another notable thing throughout the program was the clear enunciation. This is especially pleasing to those in the rear of the room.
