The program was opened by Signor DePasquali, with a piano solo. He is an artist of the first class, putting much form and feeling into his selection. The piano seemed to respond to his touch as if it were a part of him. Besides being a go od pianist he is a excellent accomplis hment, as was shown by his handling of the part through out the program. His music, although classical, possessed a spirit and harmony pleasing, not alone to musicians but appreciated by all.
