The Athletic Union held its regular monthly meeting on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 22nd, 1898, the President, Geo. W. Egan, presenting. In the absence of the Secretary, Mr. Griffith acted in that capacity.

The regular monthly meeting of the organization was held in the meeting adjourned without hearing their reports.

The following amendment was submitted to the constitution:

Amend the Constitution, Article III, by substituting the words "Section 2 thereof" for the words "Section 2 hereof".

Section II. There shall be an Athletic Board, which shall consist of the following members: The Manager of the football, baseball, and track teams; the President of the Athletic Union; and four Faculty members, one to be elected by the Faculty of the College department, one by the Faculty of the Law department, one by the Faculty of the Dental school, and one by the Faculty of the Medical and the Homopathic Medical departments, and of the department of Pharmacy jointly.

The Junior Annual.

Those who shall become the fortunate possessors of a "Hawkeye" will have a complete and accurate record of the events of interest and importance that have occurred in the University during the past year, as well as a fair representation of the ability of men and women as artists, writers, and thinkers and doers in general and particular.

It is a most appropriate tribute to this volume to be a special memorial to our deceased President, Dr. Charles Ashland Schaeffer. It will contain, in addition to his portrait, memorial sketches by Octave Théâtre (Miss France), Chancelloire McClain, Professor McPHERSON, Captains Wm. T. Oatland, C. B., '99, H. E. Kelley, and the Editor-in-Chief, Mr. George W. Egan. A special feature of the book will be the portraits of Geo. Shaw, as well as a series of the Faculty, together with the accompanying descriptions.

Any important organization connected with the University will be represented in half-tone or otherwise, with proper attention paid to the completeness of the portraits and the quality of the work. The book will be bound in heavy black cloth, sewed on three strings, heavy boards, and indented edges. On the front cover will appear a bow, or bow and a large eye, and on the back the words "HawkEye 99 S. U." both done in old gold. The book will be an interesting souvenir, and a valuable record of life in Iowa University during the past year.

Glee and Mandolin Club Trips.

The Glee and Mandolin Clubs returned from their holiday trip Tuesday night, coming up from Moline, where they had given their final concert the same evening. Their concert was given at MacKaslie, Dec. 26th, to a full house, and this, in connection with the melody of the way in which the boys were presented, tended to make the outlook very promising indeed. From MacKaslie they went to Columbia Junction, then to Fairfield, Ottumwa, M. P., Pella, Burlington, Monmouth, and Moline. At Moline the audiences were not set as large as could have been desired, due, in almost every case, to a lack of judicious and timely advertising. At Burlington members of the Clubs were given a reception by the Elks, who entertained them right royally.

New Year's Day was spent in Burlington, many of the boys enjoying the special services at the different churches.

Probably the most enjoyable time of the trip was had at Monmouth, Ill., Monday evening. Those who did not care to attend the dances given to the Clubs, were entertained informally by the Ladies Wagner Quartette and several of their lady friends. It was indeed with heartfelt regrets that some of the boys had to miss this treat.

Points of interest all along the route were visited—probably the most entertaining being the dark island of a naval armament. All in all a thoroughly good time was enjoyed by all, the only thing missing being the pleasure of being among these audiences that extended to them at two or three places.

The trip to Clinton, Vinton, Waterloo, and Cedar Falls scheduled for Jan. 12-14, has been postponed a week or two on account of condition of date.

New Students.

The following are some of the new registrations in the Collegiate Department:

Senior—M. L. Curtis.

Special-Edna Jones, W. M. Booth, Amy Zimmerman.

Instructor Bowman caught his hand in a fire hose, straining the Physical Laboratory, Thursday afternoon. The fingers were badly injured, and it is feared he cannot be able to save them.

Miss Dinsan spent New Year's at her home in Manchester, returning Monday night.

Miss Mae Blunt, who spent the holidays at home, returned to the hospital.

The Senior and Junior classes were treated to a surprise, quiz on Friday night, morning by Professor Biring.

Saturday, Tuesday, is putting over a suitable name to bestow upon a certain little girl who arrived at her home Xmas. How the name suits we

Professor J. W. Fish, Wm. Mingus, Dr. J. G. Gilchrist, Mr. George W. Egan.

Approved, Geo. W. Egan, President, Athletic Union.

Wedding Clinics.

Mr. J. W. Fellingham, '99, was married to Miss Minnie Marsh, at Charles City, Iowa, last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Fred Bailey, '99, acted as best man. Mr. Fellingham is the local secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., and Mrs. Fellingham was lately principal of the Charles City High School. The happy couple arrived in Iowa City Thursday evening, and will be at home to their many friends at 284 Fairchild street, after Jan. 414, where Dr. L. R. Hazzard extends congratulations.

Instruction was held to meet the University the remainder of the year, being away on a leave of absence.

W. L. Loomis went recently to McGregor, Iowa, to negotiate with a representative from the University of Wisconsin concerning the inter collegiate debate. The Wisconsin representative failed to appear, and Mr. Loomis, telegraphing for instructions to Professor Frankeneer, received a request to come on to Madison, where he goes today.

The Freshman, may read the portent of this social affair, it is defined as being a “waste of abnormal intensity among the Sophomores,” characterized by mysterious disappearances of “Freshmen,” an affair, in short, to which the verdant who finds himself and cab at the hotel door without having run the gauntlet of divers dyes and dreadful droolings, “yes” even of bound rags and buggy rides, retroactively unto himself, “I have not had my money’s worth.”

The Freshman Banquet is far and away the most talked of event of the college year. Despite this, there has at different times existed a most lamentable ignorance concerning its history. Last year even by old students who follow most keenly the tracks of the powers that be, it was popularly supposed that the only rules governing this significant occasion were contained in the old papers, “Don’t burn the college buildings nor mob the professors.”

Then was seen a sudden light, and hitherto the darkness yielded up its doomed. Now we are lucidly informed to hope, with many of our legionaries, who do not print quite all that happens at their respective institutions, that “dime scraps” are indeed “a thing of the past in B. U.” That they are, a reference to authorities will abundantly prove. And the future is hopeful.

In the light of history it behoves all not socially or intellectually qualified to attend this affair, to think twice of going out of town the day before the banquet. The precedents are indeed true, but a blind following of tradition may set the precedents all the other way. Likewise it behoves the Freshman who has not budgeted the requirements of a reputation that shall raise him above his fellow, not to inflict, his presence too frequently upon his superior classes, lest they forget.

Mr. Kelly, who is associated with Miss Jane Adams, of Hall House, Chicago, will give a lecture in the Unitarian church on next Tuesday evening, at 7:15. As Factory Furrier in Illinois for several years, Mrs. Kelly acquired a large knowledge of the subject of tineen in factories. Her subject will be “The Child in Industry.”

We wish to correct a mistake in the half-column advertisement of Beaumont’s perfumes, which appeared in our last issue. It should read: “The perfumes are neatly put up in ounce bottles, or in half, instead of nothing put up in ounce bottles.” Bloom & Mayer will make our uniform to measure, at same price as ready made.

The Powerful Southern Play, "At Fair Ridge." another of three plays that are destined to lay the foundation for the distinctive American play, will be given at the Opera House on Thursday evening, the 12th inst. This play has the air, purpose, and faithful depiction of the languorous life of the southern south, without any of the cheap stage exaggeration that has ruined so many so-called southern plays. The character of Jack Rose, the hero of the drama, is well told, and while Mr. Hughes has properly given himself in this part the lion's share of the interest and opportunities, he has not subdued the other characters, but has so distributed the material that every passage in the drama has at some time an excellent chance to produce effect. All the parts are good, and the scenery is especially characteristic. The reserved seat opens Thursday morning for 80c. Wednesday at 8:00. This is the last attraction booked in January, and is guaranteed one of the finest of the season.
