MASS MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT.

TO BE HELD AT CLOSE HALL IN THE INTERESTS OF ATHLETICS.

A students' mass meeting will be held at Close Hall, Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the meet with Grinnell the next day. Rousing speeches will be made by members of the Faculty, by prominent students, especially the manager and the captain of the University track team.

On this occasion the medals won in the home field meet will be presented to the University's champions of the field and cinder path. The "I's" will also be awarded to the men whose names lately appeared in the VIDETTE-REPORTER, as having been awarded an "I" for service on the base ball and foot ball teams of last year.

HANDICAP BANNER TOURNAMENT.

FIRST ROUND REACHED—MOST OF THE OLD PLAYERS TURN UP FOR IT.

The preliminaries in the Handicap Tennis Tournament were played off Friday, Saturday, and Monday, being somewhat delayed on account of the rains. The preliminaries went off in regular order, according to the predictions of the side-lines. The only old player to fall was Balle, who was beaten by Marsh, a new player, who proves remarkably fast.

In the first series played off the first round, Thompson lost to Weed after a closely-contested, three-set game, in which Thompson's handicap proved too heavy for him. The best game of the rounds will probably be that between Bailey and Haddock. Bailey is a new man that is showing very good form indeed, while Haddock is the scratch man of the tournament. So few new players have survived the weeding out process, that Bailey will have many sympathizers among the spectators. This will be offset by the sympathy of many of the side-line fiends for Haddock, who has had to win his every victory against considerable odds. Should Haddock win his first-round series, he will read his title clear to the finals, when Walsh appears as his very probable antagonist.

SCORES.

Preliminaries: Bailey defeated Shepard, 6-3, 6-4. Haddock quitted B. J. Lambert, 6-0, 6-1. Marsh won over Balle, 6-2, 2-6, 6-4. Hull proved too long for Thomas, 6-0, 6-1. Butler's remarkable brace in the second set did not win against Thompson, 6-0, 8-6. Weed defeated R. V. Downing, 6-3, 6-3. Walsh swooped down upon Koser, 6-1, 6-1. Umberger rolled up a score of 6-3, 6-1, against Coast, Monday afternoon, in time to allow the principals to take part in Major Schaeffer's Athletic Park frolic. H. H. Wheeler defaulted to Bond.

Bond being the odd player gaining the preliminaries, lots were drawn among the other eight men, to determine who should play him and restore the equilibrium of the tournament scheme. The lot fell to Hull, who will thus play Bond, the winner to play Walsh for a place on the first round.

First Round: Weed beat Thompson, 3-6, 8-6, 6-1.

A Patriotic Movement.

The necessity of early practice on the part of a foot ball team is very apparent to any one. Realizing this, one of the most enthusiastic supporters of S. U. I. athletics, Mrs. Knipe, has inaugurated a movement whereby the boys on the eleven will be enabled to return a few weeks before the opening of the fall term, without extra expense to them. The idea is to make flags, pennants, cane-adornments, etc., of old gold, for use at the coming dual meet with Grinnell, May 6. The money obtained in this way will be turned into a fund for the good cause mentioned before.

Egan on Cromwell.

A party of about fifty of his friends had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Geo. W. Egan deliver his oration on "Cromwell" at Irving hall last evening. Mr Egan is surpassing the expectation of even his most ardent admirers in his determined effort to win a good place for Iowa at the N. O. L. contest. He has his subject well in hand, and delivers the oration with a subdued fire and force that are truly wonderful. The weeks he has employed in training under Professor E. A. Ott, of Des Moines, have added a graceful, natural polish to his delivery. Mr. Egan, with Messrs. Hunt and Hawk, who will accompany him, leaves to-night for Oberlin, Ohio, where the N. O. L. contest will be held.

Hammond Law Senate.

Hammond Law Senate gave one of the best programs of the year, last Friday evening.

The piano solo by Miss Goldsmith was well rendered, and received a hearty encore.

Senator Hammond followed with a forceable and well-written oration.

The debate, on the subject of trusts, was well argued on both sides. The bill was lost by a vote of 10 to 11.

In the extemporaneous speech by Sen. Condon, on "Is Lynch Law Justifiable," the Senator failed to commit himself on the question.

Senator Smith delivered an address in his usual humorous manner.

A vocal solo by Miss Lee closed the program.

Zetaganthian.

A well rendered cornet solo by Mr. Kuck opened the program.

Mr. Jas. H. Burrus gave a selected declamation.

"Webster and the Union" was the subject of a thoughtful oration delivered in a most creditable manner by D. W. Rich.

The question discussed was whether immigrants should be allowed to vote before they have resided in the United States for a period of ten years. M. L. Kephart and R. A. Cook affirmed, W. P. McCulla and J. W. McBurney denying.

The debaters wandered considerably from the question and indeed failed to make the audience understand the exact question they were discussing. McCulla and McBurney made speeches that received the unanimous verdict of the judges.

A. P. Speers declaimed "Webster and Hayne," in an earnest manner.

The High School Orchestra closed the program with two of their characteristically good productions.

OTTUMWA LEAGUE 10, IOWA 5.

SATURDAY'S GAME LOST TO OTTUMWA'S PITCHER.

Saturday's game was yielded to Ottumwa with less of a struggle than was Friday's. Brown pitched four innings for the home team, when he was replaced by Fehan, whose curves were too puzzling for our boys. In his three innings our boys got only one hit, four men being struck out. Hurst pitched four innings, Captain Lowry then entering the box. In the sixth our boys made a beautiful triple play. Our pitchers were several times called down on the new balk rule.

The Varsityes made all but one of their scores in the second inning, when they touched Brown up for a three-bagger, a two-bagger and two singles. Yates started off by knocking a grounder to Griffith, which the latter stopped, but made a poor throw to first, and Yates was safe. Moss followed with a single to right, and both moved up a base on a passed ball. Parson's three-bagger into right field brought them both home, while Hurst's single to right brought Parsons across. Storey got to first on a fielder's choice, second on a passed ball, and safe across on Sargent's two-base hit. Their other run was made in the fourth inning, when Sargent got first on called balls, and came home on Lowry's hit to center field.

The home team began running up the score column in the second, when a pretty three-bagger by Stanton, two bases on balls, and a sacrifice by Behan, netted two runs. In the fourth again, the boys got worked-up, and with six hits, one a two-bagger by McQuaid, an error of the first baseman, and a balk of the pitcher, brought five runs across. In the sixth, Noonan was struck by the pitcher, stole second and came across the rubber on Stanton's single to center garden. In the seventh again one run was made by Behan getting a base on balls, and being sent around with singles by Griffin and McQuaid. The remaining run was scored in the ninth. McQuaid knocked a high one to Story, which he muffed, stole second, and came home on Noonan's single.

The following is the summary:

S. U. I. Presidency.

In a recent editorial beginning with the sentiment that "There is no more hopeful sign for the educational future of the country than the liberality with which the great States of the West support their universities," Harper's Weekly speaks further, as follows:

"The discussion now going on in Iowa, as to a vacancy in the presidency of its University, illustrates a breadth of view which is really remarkable. While many newspapers urge, with much force, that it would be better, other things being equal, to have in the position a man who is thoroughly familiar, by long residence, with Iowa conditions, there is also recognition of the truth that the best man ought to be secured, even if he be an outsider. Equally liberal is the spirit manifested as to the compensation which should be given. The salary of the President has been $5,000 a year, which is certainly generous, compared with the pay of most heads of colleges in the East, but it has been urged that a large sum should be offered if that were the only way to obtain the best talent."

Irving.

The following program was rendered before a rather small audience at North Hall last Friday evening:

Music..... High School Orchestra
Speech..... A. C. Cole
"Counting the Cost."

Declamation..... H. F. Alden
Debate—"Resolved, that an offensive and defensive Anglo-Saxon alliance would be desirable."

Affirmed by Messrs. Laartz and Nelson. Denied by Messrs. Kemmerer and Switzer.

Speech..... Mr. McCutcheon
Declamation..... Mr. McKinney
"How Aristarchus Studied Elocution."
Music..... Cornet Solo

The judges decided the debate three for the negative.

It is a matter of regret that space prevents further comment upon the program, but suffice it to say the program was well prepared.

Philomathian.

In spite of the unmerited criticism of the declamatory contest, the Philomathian society still lives and prospers. The program rendered Friday evening was good, but the audience was small.

F. M. Baker rendered "The Last Charge of Ney," in a very pleasing manner.

The debate was on the question: "Resolved, that a national divorce law should be passed, instead of state divorce laws."

Affirmed by L. Henson and C. W. Humphrey.

Denied by J. F. Kirby and A. L. Thorburn.

All the speakers were well prepared, and put forth their views on domestic relations as though they had had experience.

Mr. Hanson declaimed "The First Predicted Eclipse."

Mr. Hall closed the program with an excellent declamation, "The First Settler's Story."

Important Notice.

About one hundred more tickets must yet be sold to the Nebraska meet before a sum sufficient to guarantee the expenses will be realized. All having tickets to sell should endeavor to dispose of them at once. Report must be made by Wednesday evening to Manager McDonald, of the number sold.

The date of the Hesperian-Erodelphian contest has been changed from May 4th to May 8th, on account of the proximity of the Minnesota debate to the former date.

The High School declamatory contest will be held at the Opera House next Saturday evening. There will be nine contestants, and the winners of first and second places will receive medals.

"Dad" Moulton, the University's old coach, will leave Chicago, to-day, for Naahville, Tenn., where he will train the Vanderbilt University track team for the Southern Intercollegiate contest. He will return to Chicago next month and train the First Regiment athletes.

Professor W. A. Willis, President of the Iowa City Academy, has selected the following as commencement speakers. The exercises take place early in June—Frank Lewis, W. J. Leighty, L. K. Morford, W. J. Louis, Roland Jones, Leona Letts, Ruth Thomas, Helen Clair, Wm. Coyne, E. H. McCoy; valedictorsan, Rosa Wilson.

Beginning next Monday, Ex-Gov. Larabee will deliver a series of five daily lectures before the students of the University. These lectures are designed especially for students pursuing work in History, Political Science, Government and Administration, and Law Departments. The first three will be general in character, and the last two will treat especially of the State institutions. The hour and place of the lectures will be announced later.

Manager Fisher announces that Wisconsin and the University of Tennessee will meet on the gridiron November 18.

Former commander of the Merrimac, James Madison Miller, an alumnus of William Jewell College, has recently presented that institution with an interesting valuable souvenir. It is the captain's bell, which was removed from the vessel before it sank.

Mantell To-morrow Night.

Mr. Mantell is a thorough artist, and knows how to temper his work. Selecting one school of acting, he has acquired perfection in it, and to-day may be admitted to be the best romantic actor of our stage. Of course we know he is an Englishman, but he has been with us so long that we may call him ours. His first palpable hit was made here, he followed it up with success, and has wedded himself to our stage and country.

Iowa-Grinnell Field Meet, Fair Grounds, Saturday, at 2:30 Mass Meeting, Close Hall, Friday Night at 7 O'clock.

IOWA 7. UPPER IOWA 4.

A POORLY PLAYED CONTEST ON BOTH SIDES—WILLIAMS PUTS UP A STRONG GAME.

Tuesday's game with Upper Iowa abounded in errors, and mishaps Iowa succeeded in bunching her hits, and this, with her good fielding, won the game. The running to first base put up by the 'Varsity team, was a disgrace. J. D. Lowry had two excellent chances, and Story one, of making first, which were lost solely because they did not make any effort. Shock, for Fayette, showed a similar care for his fat.

The collision in the third should have been avoided by the captain's designating the man to take the ball. The best players should not be allowed to kill themselves by his neglect of duty. The home players, too, might consider better their plan of waiting for a base on balls after three balls are called.

Williams played the star game for the home team, securing six put-outs and three assists out of nine chances. Sargent played his consistent game. Story and Boyce covered left field well, and Dorman played a nice game for the Fayette boys. McDougal's record of three safe hits offsets his three errors.

Upper Iowa went first to bat. Dorman and McDougal went out on flies, Shock made a hit to center field, and made second. Coffyn sent a grounder to J. D. Lowry, who threw the side out. Story opened for S. U. I., going out at first. Sargent made a safe hit and J. D. Lowry followed with another in Fox's territory. Boyce caught Williams out. W. D. Lowry found the ball and reached second before the fielders could do the same. Sargent scored. Yates went to first on called balls, and Parsons struck out.

Fox, the first batter in the second inning, reached first through an error by Reynolds, but was neatly put out at second by Sargent on Atkinson's hit to center field. McLean and Boyce failed at first. Murphy, Reynolds and Story went out in regular order.

Cole initiated the third inning by flying out to Story. Dorman made a two-bagger. McDougal lifted a fly, which Sargent, Parsons, Williams and Murphy all took after. The first two collided with bad effects to the ball, and themselves. Shock failed at first, but W. D. Lowry made a wild throw to second, which let in the men on bases. Shock proved too tired for the 90 foot run. Coffyn sent a grass-cutter into Sargent's territory, and Fox made first base on W. D. Lowry's error. Reynolds threw Atkinson out at first. Shock made Sargent a present of one base. Fox made a circus catch of J. D. Lowry's hit. Williams and Yates sent swift safe hits to the field, but the side soon retired.

Fourth inning. McLean out to Williams. Sargent captured in time Baice's hit, which Lowry muffed. Cole sent a sizzling grounder to left field, on which Reynolds and Story both balked. Dor-man flew out to Story. Murphy and Reynolds filled two bases, and Sargent advanced them one base on called balls, but the side was retired in this position.

The fifth inning saw a nice double play inaugurated by Sargent, and Fayette soon retired. Iowa starts in to pound out five scores. W. D. Lowry singled and stole second. Atkinson let both Lowry and Yates in on his error. Murphy repeated Lowry's operation, and advanced to third by Reynolds's single. Story's whack at the sphere gave U. I. U's. captain a peck of trouble, while Murphy and Reynolds sprinted across the home plate. Sargent hit hard toward center field, and Story ambled into the fold. J. D. Lowry and Williams failed at first.

Sixth inning. Fayette out, one, two, three. After Yates got base on balls, Iowa dittoed.

Seventh inning. Fayette sent only one man to first. Sargent made a safe hit to left field, and was brought in by Williams' hit to Fox, who fumbled.

Eighth inning. Upper Iowa made good progress on bases before retiring. Parsons, Murphy and Reynolds closed the inning.

The visitors gingered up in the ninth inning. Three safe hits and a single, with the usual errors and slow fielding, brought Cole's and Dorman's spikes upon the plate. Atkinson closed the game with a soft thing for J. D. Lowry, who threw him out at first.

GRINNELL DUAL MEET.

WILL BE CLOSE—TWO HUNDRED GRINNELL ROOTERS COMING.

On next Saturday occurs the annual dual track meet of Iowa and Grinnell teams. As is well known, there was a controversy between the managements of the two teams as to where this year's meet was to be held, Grinnell claiming it on the ground that rain prevented any meet last year. The difference was amicably adjusted, with the result that the meet will be held on our grounds.

Grinnell's team, like our own, were hindered in their early training by bad weather, but, like our own, they have been working with redoubled energy during the past ten days, getting into condition for the dual meet.

Of the conditions at Grinnell a dispatch to last Sunday's Des Moines Leader speaks thus: "Grinnell's chances are considered from ten to twelve points poorer than in last year's meet, but defeat will not come through lack of hard work during the next four weeks. The records made in Drake's Freshman-Sophomore meet have occasioned a good bit of apprehension here the past week. With the exception of the distance runs the records are nearly all better than those made in Grinnell's Freshman-Sophomore meet of last year. This fact, with the knowledge that neither Captain Holland, Lowe nor Ferree was eligible for the meet, indicate that Drake will be anything but a trifling opponent. In fact, there is a growing sentiment here that the Des Moines men are more to be feared in the State meet than the State University. Captain Holland is nothing if not versatile, and his entrance in the high hurdles is very liable to cut off what Grinnell has regarded as a sure event for the scarlet and black. With his speed and ability as a high jumper, he has excellent prospects of lowering the State record in this event.

Indications are that the dual meet with Iowa College will be very close, although little is known of the situation at Iowa City. The old gold, with Brown and Wilson on its list, will, of course, have a sure thing of the distance runs in both the dual and state meets. If men are available for the places left vacant by Meyers and Prall, S. U. I. should make a strong bid for first place in the State meet, with Grinnell confronted by the disagreeable possibility of landing in third place for the first time in its athletic history. Little can, however, be said with any degree of definiteness until after the dual meet."

In its home meet, last Saturday, but two events, the 50 yard dash and the half-mile run, were completed, when rain put an end to the games. In the dash, Snider, '01, won over Skiff and Spaulding, who finished second and third respectively. In the run, Bacon, '02, Lyman, '99, and Risser, '01, finished in the order named.

We are, therefore, left in the dark as to the real condition of Grinnell's team, except for the Leader's dispatch, which may be taken as one of Grinnell's customary annual pre-contest wails of anguish.

The fact is significant that Grinnell expects to send a crowd of over two hundred rooters to the meet Saturday. It will behoove every loyal student of the University, every Faculty member, and every townsman, who wants to see one of the best meets ever held, to turn out with old gold banners and streamers, and cheer our boys on to victory. If we win the dual, it will go far toward winning the State meet. MAKE SATURDAY AN OLD GOLD DAY.

The Mass Meeting.

On account of the Iowa-Minnesota debate, the Friday night mass meeting at Close Hall will begin at 7 o'clock, instead of 7:30, as previously announced. The meeting will open promptly at 7 and will close in good season before the debate opens. The medals won at the home meet and the "I's." won by last year's base ball and foot ball teams will be awarded. There will be a few speeches, and then the crowd will practice yells for the Grinnell meet.

Minnesota Debate.

On Friday evening the Universities of Iowa and Minnesota will debate on the question: "Resolved, that the United States should continue her policy of expansion." The debaters on both sides have more than a local reputation for skill in debate, and with this vital and interesting topic of the day for discussion, Iowa City and University people should show more than a latent interest in the debate and its outcome.

The Iowa debaters are Messrs. John Ogden, Boddy, and Barclay, who will take the negative of the question. Messrs. N. N. Burghelm, R. A. Lee and Miss Lizzie Graham will affirm the question at issue in behalf of Minnesota University.

In the selection of judges the debaters have been particularly fortunate in securing men of ability and reputation. Five judges will decide the issue of this debate, instead of three, as has heretofore been customary. The judges are Hon. Wm. B. Allison, of Dubuque, Hon. Leslie M. Shaw, of Des Moines, Mr. A. H. McVey, of Des Moines, Rev. Cato A. Kaye, of Jefferson, and Professor H. H. Freer, of Cornell College, Mt. Vernon.

The Minnesota debaters will arrive this evening. The committee on arrangements for the contest are making preparations for the reception of a large audience to-morrow evening.

Notice.

The May meeting and social of the local Alumni Association, S. U. I., will be held at Society Halls, Tuesday evening, May 9. Faculties, graduates, and former students are invited and expected to be present.

A. E. SWISHER, Pres.

The date of the Hesperian-Erodelphian contest has been changed from May 4th to May 8th, on account of the proximity of the Minnesota debate to the former date.

The High School declamatory contest will be held at the Opera House next Saturday evening. There will be nine contestants, and the winners of first and second places will receive medals.

"Dad" Moulton, the University's old coach, will leave Chicago, to-day, for Naahville, Tenn., where he will train the Vanderbilt University track team for the Southern Intercollegiate contest. He will return to Chicago next month and train the First Regiment athletes.

Professor W. A. Willis, President of the Iowa City Academy, has selected the following as commencement speakers. The exercises take place early in June—Frank Lewis, W. J. Leighty, L. K. Morford, W. J. Louis, Roland Jones, Leona Letts, Ruth Thomas, Helen Clair, Wm. Coyne, E. H. McCoy; valedictorsan, Rosa Wilson.

Beginning next Monday, Ex-Gov. Larabee will deliver a series of five daily lectures before the students of the University. These lectures are designed especially for students pursuing work in History, Political Science, Government and Administration, and Law Departments. The first three will be general in character, and the last two will treat especially of the State institutions. The hour and place of the lectures will be announced later.

Manager Fisher announces that Wisconsin and the University of Tennessee will meet on the gridiron November 18.

Former commander of the Merrimac, James Madison Miller, an alumnus of William Jewell College, has recently presented that institution with an interesting valuable souvenir. It is the captain's bell, which was removed from the vessel before it sank.

Mantell To-morrow Night.

Mr. Mantell is a thorough artist, and knows how to temper his work. Selecting one school of acting, he has acquired perfection in it, and to-day may be admitted to be the best romantic actor of our stage. Of course we know he is an Englishman, but he has been with us so long that we may call him ours. His first palpable hit was made here, he followed it up with success, and has wedded himself to our stage and country.
