IOWA WINS IN TENNIS.

HADDOCK, WALSH, AND HADDOCK AND THOMPSON, DEFEAT NEBRASKA TRAMS WITH EASE.

Old Gold was in the ascendant on the tennis courts, Friday morning, when Haddock, Walsh, and Thompson, in singles and doubles, lobbied and volleyed and smashed, and outwitted, and outplayed their opponents in their matches, in almost every one of which Nebraska pulled out a set.

The general style of play on both sides in all the matches was easy, with occasional forceful work at the net. Haddock's work at the net was fine—time and again he volleyed the ball out of the reach of the Nebrascan. His headwork and generalship was at all times evident, and when he finished his last set, it was evident to all that in him Iowa possesses an inter-collegiate champion that should hold his own at Newport. Thompson's lobbing was excellent, accurate, and well-directed.

Walsh's steady smashing made a beautiful game to witness. His steady game won praise from the side-lines.

Dales was the best player among the Nebraskans. His accurate, fast, and powerful stroke was especially noticeable, and his legs were strong.

The match in doubles between Haddock and Thompson for Iowa, and Dales and Christie, came first. Haddock entered in the first set. In the second set, Thompson set a fast pace in serving, which was followed by all the players.

The scores in the matches were:

First set: Iowa won, 4-0, 6-2, 6-0, 6-0.
Second set: Iowa won, 6-1, 6-0, 6-0.

The first match in singles was between Walsh and Christie. Walsh's work from the service line was at times marvellous. Christie had a vivid Lawford that, carefully placed, was more than a match for Walsh. When in the third set, Christie's ground stroke he was unable to raise over the net. He took a great brace in the last set, however, and finished strong by hearty set play.

Score—First set: Iowa won, 4-2, 4-2, 6-0, 6-0.
Second set: Iowa won, 6-1, 6-0, 6-0.

The match in singles between Haddock for Iowa, and Dales for Nebraska, was short and sweet. Haddock's driving net work captured twelve out of thirteen games.

Score—First set: Iowa won, 6-0, 6-0, 6-0, 6-0, 6-0.
Second set: Iowa won, 6-0, 6-0, 6-0, 6-0.
