INAUGURATION DAY.

SEPTEMBER 29TH, 1899—PROGRAM OF THE DAY AND ORDER OF EXERCISES.

9:30 A. M.—Alumni football game at Athletic Park: The Varsity eleven will play the Alumni eleven, captained by Dr. J. C. ("Dad") Walker of Boone, Thomas, Gardner, Burge, Steve Coldren, Hetzel, Iverson, Littig, Elliott and Klingenberg, of the old stars have already signified their intention of being present. A fine line-up of the Old Gold's heroes of the past will confront Captian Eby's men.

1:30 P. M.—Inauguration of President George E. MacLean. The exercises will take place on the University campus. The program is as follows:

Music.
 Invocation by Ex-President Pickard.
 Introduction into office by Governor Leslie M. Shaw, president of the Board Regents.

Music.
 Inaugural address by President MacLean.

Music.
 Congratulatory addresses—
 On behalf of the Faculties—Emlin McClain, Chancellor of the Law Department.

On Behalf of the Alumni—Hon. Howard M. Remley, President of the Alumni Association.

On Behalf of Sister Colleges of the State—President W. F. King, Cornell College.

On Behalf of Sister State Universities—President Cyrus L. Northup of University of Minnesota.

The Republic of Letters—President W. R. Harper of Chicago University.

8-10 P. M.—President's reception at the Armory under the auspices of the faculties and of the local alumni association.

It is expected that all railroads will reduce rates for the occasion and all alumni and friends of the University are urged to be present.

Y. M. C. A.

A large number of students attended the Y. M. C. A., Sunday afternoon. Ira T. Hawk, president of the association, read the 15th Chapter of St. John. After the invocation by President MacLean, Mr. Hawk, took for his theme, "Is the young man Absalam safe?" 2nd Samuel, 18 Chapter, 23 Verse, and said that the same question might be asked of the young men of the University, in a three fold manner; physically, spiritually and intellectually. All students should avail themselves of physical training, athletics and every athletic should be a Christian. The Christian, who would make his influence count, should be a student. Special warning was given against intellectual activity at the expense of the spiritual man. Mr. Hawk said that there was no time for a Christian to lose while in the University. That he was needed in the Y. M. C. A., and that it was not only a right, but a duty to make himself known to the association. Mr. Hawk in a forcible manner explained the Y. M. C. A., was not working for its own glory alone, but for the development and advancement of others. The speaker was given close attention throughout his talk and at the close of the exercises a large number manifested their intention to join the association.

SOCIETY RECEPTIONS.

IRVINGS AND ZETAGATHIANS ENTERTAIN THE NEW MEN.

ZETAGATHIAN.

South Hall was decorated with Old Gold, the Zetagathian colors, Harvard crimson, and wild flowers, Saturday evening, the occasion being the annual reception tendered by the Zetagathian literary society to the new men of the University. The boys, assisted by their loyal sisters, Hesperians, began receiving the new comers at 8 o'clock and from then until late in the evening went on the cordial handshake and friendly greeting of the old men to the new.

Berryhill's orchestra furnished music throughout the evening and frappe was served by fair Hesperians to all who wished it.

When all in the hall had become acquainted, Chancellor McClain, chairman of the literary program, called the society to order, Lovell and Speer, old wheel-horses in that line, gave some excellent declamations and among the new men was easily discovered the new President who kindly favored those fortunate enough to be present with a short talk. President MacLean is an ardent supporter of literary societies. He still considers, he said, the honors he received in a literary society as the first honors he ever received. Both he and the members of the faculty, alumni of the society, who followed him, emphasized the benefits to be derived from membership in a literary society.

The reception did not end until some time after Jimmie had found his way to the society doors. Both the old and the new men left feeling that it had indeed been good for them to be there.

IRVING.

Assisted by their fair sisters the Erodolphians, the Irvings were at home in North Hall Saturday evening to the new men of the University. The hall was decorated with a fine canopy in the center and banners of old gold and the society colors ran from point to point in the room. The Hess orchestra furnished music during the evening and dainty refreshments were served under the auspices of fair hands.

The evening was spent in social chat and converse, many new men taking advantage of the opportunity offered to make the acquaintance of the Irving's Erodolphians. Several of the society's alumni were present and all, from the oldest graduate to the youngest Freshman girl enjoyed themselves and were glad for the new acquaintanceships and friendships that were formed.

Railroad Rates for Inauguration.

The railroads grant one and one-third fare from all points in Iowa to Iowa City on the occasion of the inauguration of President MacLean, Sept 29. Full fare must be paid at the starting point and certificates obtained to be presented to Miss A. B. Chase at the president's office to be stamped for return.

Vidette-Reporter Board.

The VIDETTE-REPORTER, Board will meet at Close Hall at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Every member should be present as important business will be considered. By the EDITOR-IN-CHIEF.

THE MIKADO.

OPERETTA BY LOCAL TALENT THURSDAY AND FRIDAY NIGHTS.

As announced in Saturday's issue of the VIDETTE-REPORTER some forty-five local vocalists will put on the delightful Japanese operetta, The Mikado, at the opera house on Thursday and Friday nights of this week, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the football team.

The cast is as follows:
 The Mikado of Japan . . . Frank Suepple
 Nanki-Poo, Hisson . . . George Suepple
 Distinguished as a Wandering Minstrel Man in love with Yum-Yum.
 Koko . . . Dr. Allen Arthur Knipe
 Lord High Executor of the Town of Titipu.

Pooh-Bah . . . John A. Eppel
 Lord High Everything else.
 Pish-Tush. A Noble Lord, . . . Fred Bailey
 Yum-Yum . . . Mrs. Hubbard
 Pitti-Sing . . . Miss Blanche Dow
 Peep-Bo . . . Miss Alice McGee
 Three Sisters and Wards of Koko.
 Katisha, . . . Miss Alice B. Chase
 An Elderly Lady in love with Nanki-Po.

This talented principals will be supported by the following chorus:

Ladies—Mesdames Bertha G. Ridgeway, G. W. Schmidt, Edwin B. Wilson, and Aiden Arthur Knipe and Misses Mary K. Heard, Mary N. Watson, Emilie C. Von Bergen, Alice Kessler, Lillian Fry, Minnie Barborka, Hellen K. Eppel, Pearl Hull, Sophia Moore, Ethel Parsons, Nan Kramer, Marie Rochret, Zoe E. DeSellem and Dot Green.

Men—W. P. Mueller, Dr. G. R. Bruce, D. G. Morgan, G. W. Schmidt, Bert Townsend, Will C. Hall, Howard E. Goodsell, Cemia Emmonds, Otto Meyer, Frank Konvalinka, Jacob A. Hamm, Louis A. Cerney, Dr. W. Lillibridge, Geo. A. Dostall, Ambrose McDermott, John McGee and Howard N. Powers.

With two or three rehearsals a week since early in August the company of singers has acquired an artistic finish so genuine as to remind one of the professional. The work has been difficult, but these loyal friends of S. U. I., will be rewarded by two crowded houses. The tickets are going rapidly. They will be reserved at Weineke's Arcade Bookstore on Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock for the Thursday performance, and Thursday morning for Friday's performance, and those desiring choice seats should reserve them at once.

The Library.

Many new books have been added to the library during vacation. Mrs. Ridgeway, the popular librarian, and two assistants have been employed during the summer in cataloguing and arranging the books. Six new book-cases have been put in and the entire library bears a general air of prosperity, contrasting favorably with past years.

The library force is at present composed of Mrs. Bertha G. Ridgeway, librarian and Misses Bessie G. Parker and Mary K. Hurd, assistants. More help will be added as needed in the work of the library. Without adding any new directions for the guidance of students using the library, the library force will confine itself to enforcing the old rules.

Junior Annual.

The Junior Annual board held a meeting Monday afternoon and decided to push the canvass for subscriptions, especially among the new men. The Junior Annual is published each year by the Junior classes of the University and is rightly considered the University publication of the year. It represents all the departments and activities of the University in a manner that will prove interesting to every student who attends the University this year. Not only that, but every one who subscribes will preserve his annual as one of his most cherished reminders of 1899-1900 in Iowa City.

This year's Junior Annual will be new in every respect. The editor-in-chief is bubbling over with new and fresh ideas which will be incorporated into the annual, and everyone of his staff has racked his resources for fresh suggestions and valuable new material. Everything in the book will be logically arranged and the book will be interestingly original from beginning to end. There will be no state features.

All the various departments of the University will receive a new and complete treatment which will be all that can be desired. Nothing that can add to the excellence, piquancy and completeness of the Hawkeye '01 will be omitted. The editors intend to make a record for themselves and everything assures us that this year's Junior annual will be a credit to the University in every respect.

It is the advice of the editors that all who wish copies of the work should subscribe at once as the edition will in all probability be confined within the limits of the subscriptions received.

Dental Department.

Miss Holson has been working for Dr Caseber at Tipton.

The Freshman class promises to be larger than any for a number of years.

Kederdine, '00, has been practicing at Livermore this summer.

A. R. Swisher has opened an office in Iowa City and is enjoying a good practice.

Dr. Godlove, '98, of Riverside was in town Tuesday.

Earl Holson, '00, spent his vacation in Southern Illinois and Missouri.

Moore, '00, has been practicing at Ely during vacation.

Morton, '01, is back in school and will play football.

Overholt, '00, has been working for Dr. Chapman this summer.

Nearly all of the Senior class is back with us to finish their course.

McKinley, ex-98, is in town, called here by the sickness of his sister. McKinley is practicing in the Boston Dental parlors of Chicago.

Lockhart, ex-99, has reentered the University with the class of '00.

Dr. Oyler, '99, of West Branch was in town Tuesday.

Dr. Rogers, demonstrator in the clinics spent his vacation in California and other Pacific states.

Dr. John Baumer, '99, is practicing at Brighton, Iowa.

Dr. F. A. Johnson, '98, is building up a good practice at Holstein, Iowa.

The Drake Protest.

An article in today's Des Moines Leader says that Chancellor Craig and Prof. Kinney of Drake have requested that our member of the games committee, Mr. W. H. Bremner to use his influence to secure a new hearing in the Holland case.

It is impossible even to guess what will be the decision, now that the matter may be reconsidered. True friends of college athletics will look upon the outcome of this case as a criterion of the sentiment in Iowa on the question of professionalism. It will be a grave blow to the athletic standing of every institution in this state if the star athlete and hired man of Drake University is whitewashed, merely because Chancellor Craig and Professor Kinney have belittled their University in the eyes of every gentleman and fair minded man by employing such bulldozing tactics as to threaten cancellation of games with Grinnell and Iowa City. This is mere bullying, bluster, and bluff. No one knows better than do Chancellor Craig and his athletic advisors that Drake University's most popular games,—the games that give her standing in athletics are those with Grinnell, Ames and S. U. I. No one of these three would lose in prestige by the loss of games with the one institution in the state that has been and is still making a practice of paying more than one man on its teams for their services thereon.

If Drake succeeds in getting a rehearing in the case the outcome will be awaited with anxiety, as the verdict will be either for or against a practice that will if allowed to survive ultimately place college athletics on par with the prizing where men meet not because of their love for honest manly encounter, but because they can earn their livelihood. It is well known the way some members of the committee would vote. The attitude others will take is a matter for speculation.

There is little doubt that Messrs. Rawson of Grinnell and Johnson of State Normal will vote as before with Mr. Bremner to sustain the charges. Whether Hunter of Cornell will change his vote which was favorable to acquittal is a matter for conjecture. Prof. Kinney of Drake will, of course, vote to clear that University's star athlete. McCartney who represents U. I. U., was not at the meeting when Holland was convicted, but left his proxy in the hands of the chairman, directing that his vote be cast for sustaining the protests. There is no reason to think his opinion is otherwise now. As Preston of Ames was absent from the other meeting, his vote would be in doubt, but for the fact that Ames is known to look with disfavor on attempts to retain professionalism in Iowa Collegiate Athletics. Byers of Penn voted twice to sustain the charges and on the third ballot became silent, thus showing that he had doubts of the innocence of the accused.

It is for the colleges and Universities of Iowa through their representatives on the games committee of the Iowa Inter Collegiate Athletic Association to determine by their votes whether they desire to stand for a standard of purity in athletics that shall entitle them to the respect and continuance of future relations with institutions to the east of us, where the same battles have been fought out and won.
