OLD GOLD AT PAR.

They Score On A Place Kick. We Make A Touch Down.

The Iowa men played the Chicago team on Marshall Field this afternoon, and although the score at the end of the battle stood a draw yet the Illinians red with the Iowa touch. The one touch down of the game was made by a wearer of Old Gold. Chicago received her total by a lucky place kick. Those cornets could not cross our goal, but our men were able to invade their sacred territory.

Our defensive work was superb. We held them down for six times and once when they had the ball within six yards of our goal. The Iowa backs would pass the ball and Griffith went through line to do his part.

The Illinians kicked off to Chicago's 35 yard line and for fifteen minutes the ball was sent out from one side to another, first in Chicago territory and then on Iowa's side, until Chicago was within long kicking distance of our goal on the third down. Their field captain gave the signal for a place kick. Sheldon held the ball on the ground and Henry sent it to our goal posts. It was a good kick and Chicago's 5 points.

Iowa kicked off to Chicago's 25 yard line.

Walter Eugene Hutchison.

Walter Eugene Hutchinson of Lake City, Iowa, died in the reserve hospital at Manila, Philippine Islands, August 9, 1919, while a member of a Co. at Iowa Volunteers in service for the field. Eugene was born in Lake City, Iowa, June 17, 1877. He entered the University of Iowa in 1895. The following year he remained at home on account of his health, but in 1897 he returned to the University and would graduate with the present senior class.

He enlisted in Co. A, 51st Iowa Volunteers in April, 1918. He said to his mother when he learned that he was accepted for service, "Mother, I am the happiest boy in Iowa tonight." His regiment arrived in Manila Bay, December 26, 1919, and at once went into active work.

From April 1st to June 15th he was on three operations and took part in three battles and four fights. The swamp skirmishing and hard fighting wore Eugene's health and he was twice sent to the hospital. He was so ambitious to be on duty that he left the hospital when he ought to have rested and at last strength gave out. He died on August 8th, 1919.

On his sick bed, being commenced for his bravery in the campaign, he said: I have not been so brave, I have only done my duty." He bore the burdens of work patiently. The chaplain's wife said, "He gave no word of complaint, and we heard no sorrow." Judge Advocate John A. Hall wrote to his father, "I am so sorry to hear of his death, but he gave us all duty, glory, bravery, and with a spirit which will live in the memories of those who were with him. You are a man whom it was an honor to know, and the country has suffered a loss which may never be compensated by anything from these islands."

E. W. Beckman, C. R., sent this tri- o to his memory: "Though life had all of the charms for him that it can have for a young man, he gave it up without flinching and as a part of the sacrifice necessary to maintain the flag for helped to defend it. Though he had lived his full three score years and ten he could not have done a grander thing. In all the world today there is no greater work for men than the putting of the foundations of the world in the right place, not greater than that to give up a life for duty. Though in his early death Eugene Hutchinson lost the possi- bility of future earthly successes, yet therein he won the greatest success that can come to a man." The remains were buried at Lake City, Iowa, September 13th, 1919. Eugene died in the Chi- cago Illy-Koppa University chapter at Lake City, of which he was a charter member. Two graduates of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Though he of the law department gave her a jubilant welcome in which a stately was pro- fusely decorated with law signs and pic- tocards and drawn through Clinton street by four frolicky mules, all of which was very much to their liking.
