S. U. I. LECTURE COURSE.

REVIEW OF THE PROSPECTS OF THE LECTURE COURSE.

The annual announcement of the S. U. I. Lecture Bureau for the year 1899-1900 was issued the latter part of last week. The lecture bureau in presenting its address the faculties and students of S. U. I. and the citizens of Iowa City:

"In presenting this year's course we wish to call attention especially to some important changes which we have made in the method of management. In response to a general demand we have secured two excellent musical numbers instead of one, and have done this without decreasing the number of lectures. It will be readily seen by referring to our list of attractions that we have the strongest effort thus far mounted and lectures ever offered to an Iowa City audience."

The course offered is:--Roosevelt H. Cook, October 22; Fayettetes Women's Orchestra, November 16; Rev. Rohl, McConico, December; and George Kennan, January 24; Temple Quartette Concert Co., February 19; Rev. B. De Motte, March 26.

The musical numbers of the course have always been appreciated by the students' cuisine and the course this year makes an excellent provision for four musical numbers by the Temple Quartette of Boston and by the Fayettetes Women's Orchestra.

As an important note it may be added that a very difficult problem--that of an effective competition for these lectures--will be settled by a change recently made in the rules of the course. No class may be enrolled in more than one lecture; nor may the same class be enrolled in two lectures of the course unless the first is the last lecture of the course. The limits of the competition will be thus narrowed down to one and four entry numbers will be offered in place of the present unlimited entry numbers. It is the duty of the course to enroll these classes in order of merit, and the system of elimination will be applied to the competitive ones. The limits of the competition will thus be made more effective.

In the West the most striking feature of the contest was the tie between the University of Chicago and the University of Iowa. Critics had expected a fairly close contest, but lost the maroons should practically be defined as not even imagined. In fact, the only man whose thoughts seemed to be running in that direction was Chicago Stadium artist. The game was over, the score proposed, and it may be that the grandstand was that stand of the Iowa game.

IOWA TIMES-HERALD.

In the West the most striking feature of the contest was the tie between the University of Chicago and the University of Iowa. Critics had expected a fairly close contest, but lost the maroons should practically be defined as not even dreamed of. In fact, the only man whose thoughts seemed to be running in that direction was Chicago Stadium artist. The game was over, the score proposed, and it may be that the grandstand was that stand of the Iowa game.

It was the running open plays, those which delight the grand stand that won almost the game for Iowa. Solid interference, formed by placing nine men on the side of the field, let McCarr and Ford gain on several occasions for long gains. Two Martin cut around the left side of Chicago's line, and gained forty yards with great ease. The last play of the game, when Ford was cut down by Baldwin did the same trick and was down by Baldwin away back of the line.

The game was with Penn College scheduled for October 12th, at Iowa City, Iowa has been postponed, by the Board of Athletic Control in October 12th, to take the place of the Drake game which held that day.

The game was arranged and played immediately after the Holland defeat, to the Lecture Committee. This game is held after the Chicago game until the Rush Medical game the rush Medical. The game was played with Notre Dame may be arranged to take place somewhere in the interval.

The football game with Penn College scheduled for October 12th, at Iowa City, Iowa has been postponed, by the Board of Athletic Control in October 12th, to take the place of the Drake game which held that day.

The game was arranged and played immediately after the Holland defeat, to the Lecture Committee. This game is held after the Chicago game until the Rush Medical game the rush Medical. The game was played with Notre Dame may be arranged to take place somewhere in the interval.

U. I. U. ON HOLLAND.

In a recent issue of the Vidette-Reporter, the U. I. U. paper, the Holland (Brake) case of professionalism was reviewed.

If Holland is a professional, his sentence is just and he should forever be barred from participating in amateur athletics. However there is a possibility of his innocence and there seems to be some doubt as to his guilt, he should be retried, for two reasons: First as it stands now the honor of Drake University is in a market, and second, Holland, if a professional, participating in the State Field Meet, acted a lie. Second, Holland, if a professional, participating in the State Field Meet, acted a lie. Holland was involved in a matter which brought him to the attention of the Board of Education. Holland was involved in a matter which brought him to the attention of the Board of Education. It is his duty to do whatever he can to free himself from the suspicion that may have been placed upon him.

Drake's general act in the matter was in accord with the recommendations of his former coach, and Griffith and Williams left the game in the second half, owing to bad Spray for the next two weeks.

The State Press office contributed to the St. Anselm Saturday night by blowing its steam whistle for an hour or two while the boons were blazing and the President was ringing the University bell.

Miss Leyde, the physical director of the Y. M. C. A., will be at the Ladies' reception room at Close Hall all day Wednesday to give physical examinations to all those who wish to enter the Gymnasium.

One of the most lavish acts of petty larceny ever known in University circles was committed by a student at Close Hall Monday morning. The account of the Chicago-Iowa football game was cut from one of the daily papers.

Max Meyer has very generously presented the members of the football team with silver headed cues in honor of the Chicago game. Coming as they do from one of Iowa's leading athletic supporters, they are much appreciated by the team.

W. V. Dillley, L.' 91, is the city visiting friends. Mr. Dillley landed in New York, October 5, after spending the summer traveling in England, Ireland and on the Continent. He left W. C. Barclay, C. 78, at London about the middle of the summer. From there Mr. Barclay took a trip through Scotland on a bicycle, and is now traveling a similar trip in Rome.

About eight o'clock Saturday evening the celebrating procession of students marched out College street toward President Meade's. The students built a bonfire out of some loose cement-laying apparatus about the place, the President made a rousing speech interspersed with cheers for Knipe and all the boys, and the jubilation ended with the students marching through the house to shake hands with the President.

The Review of Reviews for October contains the most complete account of the remarkable Hensch architectural competition for the University of California, which came to an end September 7 with the award of a first prize of $50,000 to the eminent French architect, M. Berard, and four other prizes amounting to an equal sum to American competitors. The article in the Review, which was written by Mr. H. S. Allen, of San Francisco, is illustrated with perspective view of the winning design, a portrait of M. Hensch, whose munificence made the competition possible, and photographs of the distinguished architects who served on the jury of award.
