GOOD FOOTBALL IN IOWA.

CHICAGO'S DEFEAT OF CORNELL AFTER BEING PLAYED TO A STANDSTILL, BY IOWA UNIVERSITY RAISED IOWA'S SPORTS TO COMPE TITIVE STATUS.

Last week was a notable one in college football circles all over the United States. Some startling upsets were developed in many instances. The University of Chicago bested Cornell most decisively on Saturday. For a long time eastern adversaries have regarded eastern college athletes as decidedly inferior to those in existence in the western and large schools of the west. In fact it is only the recent games ever played between representative teams of the different parts of the country. Chicago played a game with Pennsylvania at Philadelphia last year and was beaten. The teams will meet again this year in Chicago, and a close score is likely to result. Neither in Chicago the only time the two met, nor any other time have such developments made such a good showing against Cornell.

It will be remembered that only week before this our own State University tied the best of men, and it is estimated of many, on account of manly is the following.

"In the first place, Cornell was not in the hard condition that Chicago had been. Since the month of July, the Westerners had been in training for the Cornell contest and the team had an opportunity. Therefore, the foot work had been played were thirty-five minutes long. Chicago was well capable of standing the twelve minutes for a case, while this weakened severely in the latter half. Several amongst the members of the team were forced to retire. Chicago having been able to play the same men through the game. And last of all, Cornell their play was legitimate, as the least likely to打好 the team at the season's end. Grinnell of this month, Grinnell can always be counted on to have a little bit of reserve strength tucked up a scarlet and black sleeve, and so doubt will they furnish plenty of opposition for S. U. I. and Ames when they meet them on the field. Ames has played more games than any of the rest, but with the exception of the one since City with the University of Southern Dakota, they have all been easy, and the "Cyclones" have rolled up big scores. When S. U. I. played the this past Monday they shot back a lead of forty points rolled up against Penn pushed along a little further: The Ames U. I. team appears to be growing. In a large at Iowa City and will be the first contest of the triennial. Ames will play hard game with Minnesota this afternoon, but regardless of its outcome it will be a good one. Grinnell and S. U. I. meet at Iowa City November 11 and Ames play the former just a week later at Ames. Either the S. U. I.-Grinnell or the Ames will be the deciding game for the championship, no matter which team wins, there will be hot weather Saturday in Iowa played among the college teams of the state this fall, and the team on which the honors will fall has already earned them — Des Moines Leader.

The critics who have been staying at home waiting for a hard game will be unable to be in force Saturday, when

If the present lack of local interest continues it may be necessary to take some of the games advertised for the home grounds elsewhere. It takes money to run a football team and if the students of this University are not sufficiently interested in the team to pay to see its games, it will be only justice to the team and to those on whom the burden of a probable deficit would fall, to play the games in cities where they are appreciated. Next Saturday’s receipts will indicate the wishes of the students.

The U. I. U. Collegians prints among its many interesting news items, the following concerning a law—"Mrs. Pauline Parker Andersen, ‘98, who graduated in law at St. C. L., is located in her new office at West Union. She is prepared for special work in matters of estate, and we hear her work, very highly spoken of by those who are competent judges. Mrs. Anderson, is only another of U. I. U. girls who easily succeed in pushing themselves into good positions."
