KNOX IS EASILY BEATEN

Iowa Team Shuts out the Galesburg Eleven.

Iowa 33; Knox 0.

Knox College received her most crushing defeat of the season Saturday at the hands of the undefeated Iowa University team. The score does not represent the quality of the football by any means. The contest was really an exhibition of high grade college football.

The heavy line of the Knox team was scarcely ever hit for considerable gains. Iowa relied upon her famous end runs and formations, and usually profited by them. Knox, on the other hand, gained frequently through over center. Her light backs smashed the line admirably well.

The defense of Iowa was not up to her standard. The center was too frequently hit for gains. Her ends, Williams and Waters, played their usual strong game, Williams especially did excellent defensive work, tackling the Knox backs for losses in several instances. Stratford, who was erroneously given credit for the 40 yard place kick, played a good game in the place of Edson who was out on account of a lame shoulder. Warner distinguished himself by his 40 yard place kick. His punting too, was above the average. Indeed, the play of the whole team was good. Referee Hayner made the statement that Iowa is much stronger than Chicago. An excellent comparison of our ability with Wisconsin's can be drawn by the showing we make against Illinois, whom Wisconsin beat 23 to 0, on Thanksgiving.

DESCRIPTION OF THE GAME.

Four minutes after the kick-off, by a series of end runs by the half-backs and full, Griffith was pushed over for a touchdown. Try for goal was lost by missing the punt out. Similar plays soon brought another touchdown by Griffith, Warner failing on a difficult goal; Iowa 10, Knox 0.

After a few plays Knox tried a punt. Warner blocked it, caught the ball and ran over the line for a touchdown, this time kicking goal; score, Iowa 16, Knox 0.

Knox braced determinedly in the next few plays and rushed the ball to Iowa's 22 yard line, there failing in a place kick. Time was called with the ball on Iowa's 25 yard line. Iowa 16, Knox 0.

In the second half by a series of line plays, Iowa reached Knox, 15 yard line and Griffith sprinted around the end for a touchdown. Warner kicked a difficult goal; Iowa 22, Knox 0.

The next score Warner made by a splendid place kick from the 40 yard line; Iowa 27, Knox 0.

After a few more runs and smashes, Warner ran 15 yards within 6 inches of Knox goal line. Watters was sent around left end for a touchdown. Warner kicked goal; Iowa 33, Knox 0. The game ended with the ball in Knox, possession on Iowa's 30 yard line.

The line up was as follows:

IOWA.	KNOX
Watters..... R.E.....	Lathe
Eby, Capt..... R.T.....	Smith
Brockway, Little, R.G.....	Pier
Baker..... C.....	Harbaugh
Burrier..... L.G.....	Brayden

Morton, Hoover, R. H. B.....	Capt. Dodge
Griffith..... F. B.....	Evans

Referee—Fred A. Hayner, Chicago.
Umpire—C. E. Lauder, Burlington.

Coach Knipe's Statement.

The Knox game again illustrates the superiority of team play and the advantage of a thorough knowledge of the game in all its details. I am of course proud of the team and feel assured that with the spirit of loyalty to their University and the confidence that the individuals on the team, have for each other, the final struggle on Thanksgiving day will be at least creditable.

Captain Eby's Statement.

Iowa defeated Knox much easier than it was generally thought she would be able to do; This was not due to the fact that Iowa played better ball than usual but that Knox was weaker than was anticipated.

Knox's line at times however proved a "tough proposition" and end runs were the only remedy.

Iowa was much stronger at ends and at no time was Knox able to gain at that position.

The team is in fairly good condition with the exception of Griffith who has a bad shoulder and a bad cold.

Iowa Second Team 6; Coe 5.

The game at Cedar Rapids Saturday between our Second Eleven and Coe was not a surprise in its results to those who knew the condition of our team, and taking into consideration the fact that our players had received news of Stephenson's death before going into the game. This sad news naturally demoralized the men to some extent and they did not put up the vigorous, fearless game that they would have, had they not heard the news. Three of the line men Cooper, Deeters, and Cogswell were in the poorest of condition, and Coe has been working diligently for this game in hopes of retrieving her lost fortune of a week ago. But Captain Ingham's pretty goal saved the game and for two reasons Iowa rejoiced Saturday night.

In the first half it seemed that our team would lose the game. Coe found but little difficulty in gaining her five yards through the line and when Iowa secured the ball, in holding her for downs.

In the second half our team began to force matters. The offensive tactics were changed from tackle smashes and half back runs to terrific guard plunges and long end runs. Two criss-crosses netted 25 yards apiece in this half. Coe could not solve the puzzling interference of our guards and backs until too late.

The game began with a long kick off to Iowa. Two tries netted but little and Macy was forced to punt. Then Coe's march began. Tackle smashes were frequent and when the ball reached the 15 yard line Coe tried a place kick and failed. Iowa secured the ball on 10 yard line but soon lost it to Coe on downs. Coe rushed it to the 25 yard line where our team held for downs, but lost it on a foul in the next play. Spicer and Cryor forced the ball to Iowa's 3 yard line. Shearer plunged over for a touchdown. Vanderpool missed goal.

After the kick off Iowa secured the ball on a punt and rushed it to Coe's 4 yard line. Coe braced and secured the ball on downs. She had forced it to her 25 yard line when time was called. Score, Iowa 0; Coe 5.

SECOND HALF.

Macy kicked off to Vanderpool who returned to 30 yard line. On third down Coe punted. Iowa began to force the play, carrying the ball to Coe's 20 yard line. Ingham called for place kick but Ford fumbled. Coe tried ends but owing to Cogswell's good work she was forced to punt. Then Iowa began guard plunges and short end runs by Ingham and Cogswell. A long end run by Dye scored a touchdown near the side lines. Iowa punted out and Ingham kicked a pretty goal. Coe began work with a determination to win. Iowa forced the ball to her 45 yard line. Then Coe tackled our half for a loss of 10 yards. Iowa punted and Coe got the ball. She rushed it for 15 yards and punted. Iowa carried the ball to her 25 yard line when time was called. Score, Iowa 6; Coe 5.

The team lined up the same as a week ago:

SECOND ELEVEN.	COE.
Cogswell..... R. E.....	Capt Knox
Goodenough..... R. T.....	Perkins
Cooper..... R. G.....	Armstrong
Hughes..... C.....	Bruce
Deeters..... L. G.....	Pearson
Hurst..... L. T.....	Grandle
Ingham, Capt..... L. E.....	Vanderpool
Ford, Coffee..... Q. B.....	Daniels
McCoy..... L. H. B.....	P. Daniels
Dye..... R. H. B.....	L. Daniels
Macy..... Q. B.....	Spicer

Subs for Second Team—Leehey, Logan, Banchbaugh.

The officials of the game were:
Referee—Chase of Iowa City.
Umpire—Bryant of Cedar Rapids.
Timers—Eaton and Monger.
Linesman—Logan.

Two halves of 25 minutes each were played.

Referee Chase's Statement.

The boys were disheartened by the news of Stephenson's death, which was telephoned to them at noon, and naturally did not put up their usual good game. Coe put up a much snappier game than a week ago and her offensive playing was greatly improved. Our boys tackled altogether too high and the runner often gained a yard or two after being tackled.

But on the whole Captain Ingham's players put up a good game considering the circumstances.

The following notice was posted Monday morning on the bulletin boards:—
Nov. 20th, 1899.

The funeral services of Winfred Norton Stephenson will occur at Des Moines, at 3 o'clock today. All retentions and lectures in the Collegiate Department will be suspended from 3 to 4:30 p. m.

G. E. MACLEAN.

O. G. Hubers, L. '01 enjoyed a visit from his mother and sister last Saturday.

Stephenson's Funeral.

Professor J. P. Stephenson of Des Moines College, Des Moines, the father of the late Winfred Norton Stephenson, '00, arrived in the city by the late train Saturday evening. After viewing his son's remains at Coroner Schneider's he was driven to President MacLean's home by the President, who had accompanied him on his sad journey from Des Moines.

The remains were escorted to the depot at 8.00 Sunday morning by the Senior Collegiate class, professors, and students. President MacLean, W. L. Hoffman, the delegate of the Senior class to the funeral and G. L. Schoonover, '00 accompanied Professor Stephenson to Des Moines.

The Senior Collegiate, and Sophomore Medical classes, Mrs. MacLean and Professor Nutting's classes of which Stephenson was a member, sent handsome floral offerings to Des Moines. The students and faculty subscribed money to pay all funeral expenses in Iowa City.

The funeral occurred at Des Moines at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, after which the remains were taken to Ottawa, Kansas, to be interred by the side of his mother, who died when Winfred was a child of seven. During the funeral which lasted from three o'clock to four-thirty, all exercises were suspended in the Collegiate department and during the entire day Monday, the University flag on the central building flew at half mast in his memory.

Stephenson was twenty-two years of age at the time of his death. His early boyhood was spent in Kansas and in the last fourteen years of his life his home was in Des Moines, Iowa. In September, 1898, he entered the medical department as a Freshman. This fall he enrolled as a Senior in the Collegiate department, expecting to graduate this coming June by the aid of advanced standing from Des Moines college and his freshman medical work. In his university course he was a diligent, assiduous student, popular among the students for his quiet pleasing manner and for his work on the track team, a favorite among his classmates, and a dear friend to those who knew him intimately. He leaves in his family, a father, Professor J. P. Stephenson of Des Moines College, and a sister, younger than himself.

Compliments from Chicago.

University of Iowa continues to show good form. This appears to indicate that its tie game with Chicago here early in the year was not so much of a scratch as the friends of the Maroons would have people believe. The Iowa men are undoubtedly a marvelously fast lot of fellows, with good heads on their shoulders.—The Chicago Tribune.

As the football season draws to a close, the situation becomes more and more complicated. No eleven in the country can with justice claim the championship. Only three teams of any importance remain undefeated Harvard, Chicago, and Iowa. All of them have been scored against and have been tied.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Dr. Gilchrist's Organ Recital at the Trinity Church last evening was an excellent production. Dr. Gilchrist at the organ and Master Olin Emmons' singing as the other appearances on the program were most highly appreciated.

The Freshman Banquet.

Within the last few years the Freshman Banquets have not occurred until the winter term. Circumstances seem to point to a repetition of the fact this year, but we sincerely hope that such will not be the case.

The object of the Freshman Banquet is to bring together the members of the class that they may know each other;
that they may arouse class spirit and get some unity of feeling and purpose. This banquet serves to develop the social side of the class. It promotes better acquaint-tance and closer friendship of each individual with each other. It is the first representative gathering of the class.

It behooves the Freshmen to be up and doing if they wish the object of the Banquet to be accomplished. They have already held a sociable and the formalities of acquaintances are over.

They have been in the University long enough to become thoroughly settled in their work.

While the class is yet undivided by by social or literary lines into cliques and clans; while the idea of "vive la 1903" is yet prevalent; and before the other class parties are yet determined upon, the Freshmen should hold their banquet.

Board of Control Meeting.

The Board of Control held a meeting last evening in Professor Smith's room.
A motion was made and carried that no other games be played this season with another team on our home gridiron. Professor Smith and George Egan President of the Athletic Union, were elected a committee to arrange for a mass meeting next week. They were also chosen as a committee to secure a special train to go to Davenport for the football game on Thanksgiving. It is the wish of the committee to get 500 people to go on a train leaving here at 9 o'clock on the morning of the game.
