LOWRY MAKES A HOME RUN IN THE FIRST

IOWA'S first game in the Western Inter-collegiate championship series resulted 11 to 6 in favor of Wisconsin. The broadcast reports it seems that both sides battled heartily with the odds in favor of Wisconsin. Lowry and Yates of the Hawkeyes were especially strong at the bat. Wisconsin's fielders seem to have made quick catches that prevented runs while Iowa's fielders seem to have preferred to throw the base out. Mos and Reynold pitched the game and Lowry played in right field. The rest of Iowa's line up was the same in the Kansas game.

Lowry went first to bat. Storey, the first man up, fouled before Mattson's sacrifice bunt. Warner secured a base on balls. Davis then made a sacrifice hit which was followed by a home run by Lowry, setting two scores for Iowa. Yates then walked to first on four balls. Hal Reynolds made a base hit. Parsons found the ball but was thrown out at first, reviving Iowa for the first inning. Curta's three bagger brought in Harvey and Hensel. Two more hits brought Curtis home.

In the second inning only one run of each side reached first base. Iowa's only nothing in the third beyond Yates' base hit but Wisconsin brought in two scores on a two bagger by Wroe, a three bagger by Pierce, and a base hit by Cochran. In the fourth inning Wisconsin played excellent ball to prevent Reynolds from scoring after he had reached third on Harkins' wild throw to first. Parsons, Mos and Williams were unable to make hits to bring him in as well as he was caught on the first base. After a base on balls and second by Henn's hit, Harvey scored on fielder's choice on Curtis.

With two men out in the fifth, Lowry and Yates scored after base hits by themselves, Reynolds and Parsons and an error by Henn. Reynolds went into the box on Wisconsin's coming to bat in this inning. Pierce, Harkin, Mathew and Money found hits safely and an error helped along Wisconsin's three base hits in this inning.

In the eighth inning Ware and Pierce each made two baggers. Curtis, Werner and Storey struck out. Town rallied fairly in the ninth. Stirling and Smith made base hits and Yates' safe hit brought Werner and Smith home. Harvey threw Reynolds out at first, ending the game. with the score of Iowa's half of the inning unplayed. Score to 11 to 6.

The game was one that possessed much interest for the well—filled grandstand men at bat. In those three innings a bunch man faced the pitcher but a run­
