OLD GOLD TRIUMPHS
IN ALL BUT ONE OF THE SEVENTEEN EVENTS IOWA’S ATHLETES
FIND A PLACE

The state field meet of yesterday proved to be the most successful one ever held. The crowd in attendance was never larger and owing to the satisfactory rain, the only matter which made the annual Old Gold quite different from the teams by pulling out six firsts, eight seconds and five thirds showed that the confidence reposed in them was not misplaced. In only one of the seventeen events, Grinnell, first, behind the money and here by only one score, they were defeated.

The results which best illustrate the record being made were the following: In the mile run, Wisconsin, 9\% seconds; Iowa, 10\% seconds; Grinnell, 12\% seconds. In the 220-yard dash, Iowa, 24\% seconds; Wisconsin, 24\% seconds; Grinnell, 24\% seconds. In the 880-yard run, Wisconsin, 2:01; Iowa, 2:03; Grinnell, 2:04. In the mile run, Wisconsin, 4:33; Iowa, 4:34; Grinnell, 4:34. Iowa’s 440-yard relay team finished first, second, and third. In the 1,600-yard relay, Wisconsin, 3:16; Iowa, 3:17; Grinnell, 3:18. In the 220-yard hurdles, C. H. Scruggs of Iowa was first, Mr. C. E. Harky of Wisconsin second, and Mr. C. E. Harky of Grinnell third. Iowa in the javelin had a score of 126\% feet; Wisconsin, 116\% feet; Grinnell, 114\% feet.

The freshman contest in foot ball was one of the strongest in years and sagged well for the future forensic contests. The first selection was an occasion entitled, Our True City, by Mr. M. J. Fitzpatrick of Irving Institute, who made a most creditable appearance. Mr. H. W. Green gave the audience, Webster and the National Idea, for the Zetacatagan. Too much praise cannot be given Mr. Green’s graceful appearance in the face of his physician’s orders. His delivery was much improved over even his fine appearance at the university artistic contest.

The debate was on the question, That the system of National bank notes secured by government as the gold coin by the public is preferable to the system of National bank notes secured by United States bonds. Mr. E. R. Aldrich, opening for the affirmative side, made a good appearance, as did Mr. E. iPod. Mr. H. W. Green, opening for the negative side, made the best speech of the evening. His argument and surge delivered the victory to his side. Mr. M. L. Counce, the second affirmative speaker gave the negative side one of the best speeches of the evening. Messrs. McCay and Connel closed for their respective sides, the debate on the whole a most enjoyable contest. The two sides were quite evenly balanced on argument. The affirmative earlier in delivery.

Forest King’s Victory, was the title of Mr. W. L. Baughman’s declamation for Irving Institute. His interpretation of the nature of the subject was strong and effective. His delivery could hardly be improved upon. Mr. G. T. Swift, giving the interlocutory in a manner which pleased the majority of the audience immensely. A humorous passage has since been given in the society halls which took better with thehears. The two declamations were entirely different in character, making judgment between them difficult. Mr. Baughman carried home in his favor but he probably would not have carried it, if he had not used his best piece, Mr. Baughman’s gesture was superior to Mr. Tuckers. The judges on the debate decided two in favor of the affirmative; the negative and declamatory giving unanimous to Mr. Baughman and Mr. Tucker. The contestants are all to be congratulated upon their fine preparation and excellent appearance.

Athletic Union Meeting

President Smith admitted that the general membership was only a temporary scheme. He showed the success that had come to the union last fall under unchallenged management as an argument for continued management by Mr. shoppers. Mr. Walsh said that the fact that many instructors were not receiving, the union went on to plan the union into debt. In a typical session, 1909-1910, the Union could not not have been in better shape. He emphasized the fact that the proposed salary would take all the surplus. Athletics in this university ought to have some sustainer besides paying their own. It is within the reach of the teams, the students, and everyone to work and pay to the Union money to the pockets of one man who receives a great deal of honor and lots out of the position at the same time. A few instructor said that the general manager, because of the college professors, too much money is connected with the universities who were not receiving. Mr. Smith walked into the union in debt. I have been given to know that Mrs. A. B. B. did not agree with the plan for union money to the pockets of one man who receives a great deal of honor and lots out of the position at the same time.
The Commencement Hop

The annual commencement hop is regarded as the best assembly of the university year. Coming at the close of the commencement festivities it has always been most enjoyable for all who attend.
Alumni and former students who have
were formally suggested to them—
a chair of public speaking. Such a chair would meet a long felt want in the university and would commend itself to the people of the state and the friends of the university generally as an excellent addition to the force of instructors.
