So is grandeur to the dust. So is God to man. There, where the whispers low, there is his must. That is the mystery.

So is the unanswerable, the impossible, the marvelous. So is the mystery of life and death. So is the mystery of love and hate. So is the mystery of the universe itself. That is the mystery.

The Hesketh, C. Jarratt (of the Royal Academy of Music, London) has boss a concert to be given in the Institute by the National Vocal Institute, which is under the management of Miss A. J. Bowker. The concert will open with a group of songs and instrumental music by the students of the Institute.

The University of Chicago will give free tuition and rooms to its students if they will be enrolled in the United States Public School system. The students will be found paying their living expenses.

The National Guard of the State has the fatigue cap for dress occasions such as ceremonies and the campaign hats and leggins for use on all other occasions. The members of the Guard are united in declaring the campaign hat much better looking and much more serviceable.

The use of leggins saves the trousers much in wet weather and in dusty weather. It will be much easier on the men when they are going to Dairy Park to wear the leggins. In the first place, when returning home to and from Smith’s army men wear trousers and feet will be saved by the use. The complete equipment of campaign hat and leggins to the equipment of the leggins to the battle equipment will from this point in advantage to its members both individually and collectively.

The only way in which the hat and leggins can be obtained is by voluntary petition of every member of the battalion, each man promising to buy the equipment if ordered. The republicating marching club of Iowa City secured an equipment of campaign hat, khaki uniform, and leggins, for the sum of two dollars. The cost of the hat and leggins will therefore be not much to the members of the battalion, each man making an average contribution of three dollars. The leggins can feel more than compensated for the small outlay.

Samples of hats and leggins have been sent for and will arrive soon. Let every member of the battalion sign the petition.
