TWO GAMES FRIDAY

Drake vs Iowa—West Des Moines High School vs Iowa City High School

Friday October 26th will be a great day in Iowa City. The afternoon will be an "at home" day of the University, which will suspend all classes and throw open its doors to the immense throng of visitors who will come to Iowa City, on every train Friday. A special train will arrive from Des Moines bringing over 500 Drake rooters together with their team, and also the West Des Moines High School team with a delegation of its followers, as well as a large number of S. U. I. alumni and friends.

Special trains will also run, as before announced, from West Union, Independence, Cedar Rapids, and other points on the B. C. R. & N. The people of Waterloo and of the State Normal School at Cedar Falls have also applied for reduced rates and a special train.

The visitors will be met at the train by the Y. M. C. A. entertainment committee, and from 12:30 till 2:30 o'clock guides will conduct visitors through the university buildings and grounds.

The hotels and eating houses are making extensive preparations for the entertainment of the visitors, and meals will also be served and baggage checked, by the ladies of St. Patrick's Catholic church at the Armory, on the corner of College and Linn streets; by the ladies of the Congregational church in the church parlors, one block north of the post office corner; and by the Christian church ladies at their church on Iowa Avenue, between Dubuque and Linn streets.

Two games of football will be played in the afternoon At 1 o'clock the Iowa City High School will line up against the strong team from the West Des Moines High School. Neither team has been beaten this year. At 2:30 o'clock the Drake and Iowa teams will play their game, which will have much to do in deciding the championship of the state. Drake has been beaten but once and Iowa has not been scored against this year. Coupon tickets to the two games will be sold for 75 cents. All who desire to see only the High School game may cash the coupons at the gate as they go out for 50 cents, before 2:30. After 2:15 o'clock the admission will be 50 cents. Tickets will be on sale at Bloom & Mayer's and Coast & Son's clothing stores.

Freshman Sociable

The freshmen held their first sociable last night. It was a very successful affair considering the fact that they overruled all traditions by holding their little gathering in a building outside the university premises, thus obtaining the aid of the "Brave Police" to keep "Those Horrid Sophomores" from causing them any trouble. Another example of degeneration, was that instead of having the famous punch bowl they had instead a dish pan.

Early in the evening five or six sophomores climbed over the transoms and entered the banquet halls. They then hid themselves in an adjoining room and barricaded the door with tables. When the freshmen arrived they heard curious sounds coming from the room and decided to investigate. They tried the door and found it locked; then they got a ladder and used it as a battering ram against the door. The door was quickly demolished and out rushed the sophos to find themselves surrounded by an admiring group of freshman, who prevailed upon them to tell "how they did it," then escorted them to the door and bade them good night. While this was occurring up stairs, down stairs the sophomores were trying to keep the refreshments from entering the building. This they in all probability would have succeeded, in doing but for the presence of the police who used their clubs over the heads of the sophomores—in fact they used them when the occasion did not call for it. President MacLean, Dean Currier, Miss Young, and the instructors of the freshman classes were present as invited guests.

Wyoming Athletics

Athletics here at Wyoming are considerably hampered by the lack of a gymnasium and of suitable training quarters. Of course it has been argued that military drill largely takes the place of gymnasium work; but does it? Drill is compulsory and not at all popular among the students and for that very reason can never be beneficial as an exercise. One must be interested in the exercise he is taking in order to derive any beneficial results from it. We can hardly expect the state to appropriate money for a gymnasium while the needs of the University along other lines are so pressing. Therefore our only hope is that someone will either donate or at least raise by subscription a fund to build a suitable structure on the campus. Fifteen or twenty thousand dollars ought to built a gymnasium that would answer the needs of the University for years to come, while the benefits resulting from such an outlay would be manifold and far-reaching.

Professionalism among western college teams is the source of a common jest in the east, and we hope that our athletic board will adopt "Purity in Athletics" as their watchword. Some one of our western universities must take the initiative step, and why should Wyoming not be the pioneer in the reform of western athletics—Wyoming Student.

Senior Sociability

The plan which is being formulated among the senior girls in regard to receptions and informal parties to be given throughout the year is a good one. Minnesota students are hard working and ambitious for the victory in all lines, but Minnesota students are not sociable. Many come here and pursue their studies throughout the four years, win their laurels, receive their diplomas and say farewell to a very small number and are gone. Little comes into the college life of these students to break the monotony of class room work. Thus a great part of the real enjoyment of a career is missed and many lessons of practical value in latter life are passed by unheeded.

The senior girls are aware to the fact that there is a lack of sociability among the students and are planning to start the movement as far as the young women are concerned. The senior class girls will meet early next week to adopt definite plans and then set about putting their theory into practice. Every young woman of the class of 1901 should consider the matter and be ready to suggest plans or to enter into those which have been decided upon—Minnesota Daily.

C. W. A. Jones, L. '95, is visiting in the city.

THE HAWKEYE TEAM

The State Wide Interest in the Iowa Team—Our Chances in Tomorrow's Game

The interest in the success of Iowa's football team was never so intense and at once so general. Enthusiasm over its past work and hope for the future is not confined to the immediate university circle and to the city of Iowa City. It is state wide. Not only are the alumni of the State University praying for Hawkeye victories over Chicago, Michigan and Northwestern. The alumni of other Iowa institutions, and their students, and college men in Iowa generally are looking to their State University to demonstrate to the people of other states that "in all that is good Iowa affords the best." And the enthusiasm is not confined to college men only. The people of Iowa,—merchants, farmers, and mechanics,—all the people of the great Commonwealth are looking forward to the close of a triumphant season that shall place Iowa in the front rank among the championship teams.

The management is in receipt of dozens of letters from alumni and friends of the university asking for information relative to rates to Iowa City for the Drake and Grinnell games, and to Chicago for the game of November 3.

The interest in the Drake game tomorrow perhaps temporarily overshadows that in the later contests. In the last game played between Iowa and Drake in 1898, the latter succeeded in winning the game. Last year,—the year of the late unpleasantness—there was no game. State University men,—alumni and students,—are looking to the 'oo team to wipe out the record of that defeat, and to do so by a score that will never be forgotten.

Iowa may well feel proud of the 'oo team if it succeeds in accomplishing what its friends desire, for Drake has a very strong team this year. Even the score of 6-0 made against Grinnell October 6th can not be taken as standard by which to judge Drake's team. It had improved greatly when a week later it met and defeated State Normal by the score of 51-0. Drake claims that the Nebraska game of last week was practically stolen from them by the act of a Nebraska official in ruling Captain Bacon out of the game for a fancied offense. Whether this be true or not, the fact remains that until Bacon went out it was anybody's game.

Drake has shown surprising strength in offense, her line being comparatively heavy and her backs very fleet of foot. Young who was not in the lineup against Grinnell, has exhibited especial swiftness and ability to advance the ball.

Iowa will enter the game handicapped by the absence of Captain Griffith, who is still out of the game caring for his knee which was injured in the Simpson game two weeks ago. Nevertheless Iowa will put up her strongest game, and there is hope that her goal line may be successfully defended, and that her war cry after October 26th may still be that of over a year,—"an uncrossed goal line."

The lineup tomorrow will be as follows:

IOWA	DRAKE
Watters	re McFerrin
Burrier	rt McGugan

Ely	c Still
Little	lg Pell
Warner	lt Graeser
Siberts	le Haviland

Medical Notes

Dr Mann, '94, of Ely had a patient before Thursday's clinic.

Blackmore '01 has been sick for several days with pleurisy, but is some better.

J. A. Pringle, '01, has been called home by the serious illness of his father.

Osborne, '03, and Eaton, '02 were called to Davenport last week by subpoena.

When, oh when, will there be a decent crossing at the west entrance of the hospital?

Clinic was so large Thursday that some of the operations were left for Friday morning.

King, '03, took unto himself a wife last week. The way he set up the cigars to the boys was a caution.

Courses in Journalism

The Kansas University Weekly desires to have at Kansas a course in journalism as is now provided at the University of Iowa. "Many eastern schools," it says "now provide regular courses in journalism. Minnesota expects to offer such a course next year. K U. would make no mistake by offering something in that line. There are many in school now who would gladly take such work, and the course would attract more."

The Bill Nuisance

This noon white and blue hand bills were distributed to those passing and out the campus gate. At twelve thirty o'clock the campus was conspicuously ornamented with these bills, scattered and tossed about by the wind. Inasmuch as the campus had just been raked, the new covering given it looked particularly bad. Would it not be a good idea to stop passing dodgers on the campus just before a day like tomorrow when hundreds of visitors will view the campus? Anyway it is against the rules of the university to distribute advertising matter on the campus at any time.

To Sophomores

The sophomores of the University of Illinois have posted the following notice:

PROCLAMATION.

Be it known that the great and noble Class of 1903

Demands of all the freshmen the observance of the following

PRECEPTS:

No freshman shall carry a cane.
No freshman shall wear his class colors.

No freshman shall grow a moustache.

No freshman shall wear a sweater on Sunday.

The wrath of the class of 1903 will be visited upon all freshmen who fail to obey these precepts.

The plan has worked so far this week to the satisfaction of the sophomores.

We commend the rules to the attention of the sophomore class. Some of the rules are excellent. The fourth for example.

Concerted Yelling

Tomorrow's football game will undoubtedly have a large attendance of students and alumni. The team will need good, hearty, appreciative, concerted yelling in this game more than in any other on the home grounds this season. Yellmasters will be appointed and it is hoped that the responses to their commands will be loud and generous.

Many a team has braced and held its opponent within the five yard line because of the support of the rooters. Coach Best of Drake says that Iowa will have an opportunity to do this tomorrow. We do not agree with him in this view, but who can tell? Let the rooting be hard and loyal, and, if Iowa's goal is endangered may every player and student do his best to preserve Iowa's record untarnished.

All For Fifty Cents

The Good Government of the University of Michigan has announced its lecture course for the coming year. Its attractions are: President J. G. Thurman of Cornell University who speaks on the Philippines; Don M. Dickinson of Detroit; Judge Orin Carter of Chicago on Primary Election Laws, Chaplain Orwick of the state prison at Jackson on Behind the Bars; Mayor Samuel Jones of Toledo on The Golden Rule in Politics; President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor on The Rough but Enabling Struggle of Labor, Professor Richard T. Ely of Wisconsin; William Alden Smith of Michigan, and Senator J. C. Burroughs of Michigan.

The appearance of these men at Ann Arbor will do the students and the university much good. A ticket to the entire course of ten lectures costs but fifty cents. Why is the lecture bureau of the University of Iowa unable to secure any better numbers than the mass backs offered by the lyceums and lecture bureaus? Because they cannot afford to? The Michigan course does not prove it.

The Good Government club's course is not so good as that offered by the Michigan Students' lecture Association. But its course makes that offered by the Iowa Lecture Bureau look like thirty cents.

Medical Notes

C. S. Frank, '01, now wears a paternal smile:—a bouncing girl arrived at his home Wednesday morning.

Social life received such an impetus at the recent reception that a social club of a hundred members is being organized.

A. B. Hender, '01, who was called away last week by the illness of Mrs Hender's mother returned Wednesday morning.

The poor Freshies are finding it pretty hard working nights in the "sky parlor" these nice nights—and their work has only begun.

The Middletonian Society holds its second meeting Thursday evening. The paper for the evening is on "Serum Therapy," prepared by R. D. Blackmore.

Weaver, L. O., is not transportation manager for the sixth congressional district. Those desiring transportation to their homes in this district should run down the officers of the University of Iowa Republican Club and give Mr Weaver a breathing spell.

Dr J. W. Harriman, professor of anatomy in the College of Medicine has returned from Ames where he has investigated the typhoid fever cases at the Agricultural college. There are now 35 cases of typhoid fever. One death has occurred and three or four more of the young people affected are in critical condition. The origin of the contagion has not been located. The State Board of Health will make its report on the conditions at Ames in two or three days.
