THE STRAW VOTE

Great Interest Taken in the Students' Election—The Votes for President and Congressman

The election was a great success. The question often asked as to how the students of the university stand politically was answered yesterday in the poll taken by the VIDETTE-REPORTER. Over 800 votes were cast by the men and women of the university from 8 in the morning till 5 in the evening. The number of men voting at the election was large, the per cent of students participating being larger than at many colleges and universities where similar elections have been held. Those that refrained from voting were largely women. Only 86 women voted and the majority of these did so only upon the personal solicitation of the wide-awake editor in charge of their ballot box. The men were ready and anxious to vote. The voting in the College of Liberal Arts and Law continued briskly up till five o'clock. Mr W. J. McDonald, the vice-president of the Students' Bryan and Stevenson club, was one of the last laws to vote. In other colleges, the election was completed early in the afternoon.

The total number of votes cast by the men in the different colleges was 725, the total number of votes cast by the women of the university was 86, making a total of 811 votes cast in all. The total number of votes received by McKinley was 669, by Bryan 128, by Wooley 9, by Debs 1, by Leonard 1, scattering 3.

The men voted 593 for McKinley, 122 for Bryan, 5 for Wooley, 1 for Debs, 1 for Leonard, and 3 scattering. The women voted 76 for McKinley, 6 for Bryan, 4 for Wooley.

The total number of votes cast for congressmen was 735, of which the men cast 650 and the women 85. The men voted 529 for republican candidates in this state, 88 for democratic, 3 for prohibition, and 30 scattering. Most of the scattering votes were for congressmen outside the state. The women voted 73 for republicans, 10 for democrats, and 2 for prohibitionists.

The votes received from the men by candidates for congress in this state were, Hedge 30, O'Connell 4, Tussey 1; Rumble 132, Vollmer 48, Hart 2; Henderson 48, Birdsall 6; Haugen 17, Foley 3; Cousins 74, Kerr 4; Lacey 36, Steck 4; Hull 27, Crozier 4; Hepburn 19, McGinnis 4; Smith 43, Wadsworth 5; Conner 63, Dale 4; Thomas 40, Mulvaney 2.

The men of the College of Liberal Arts voted 180 for McKinley, 29 for Bryan, 2 for Wooley, 1 for Debs. The College of Law voted 152 for McKinley, 28 for Bryan, 2 for Wooley. The College of Medicine voted 148 for McKinley, 44 for Bryan, 1 for Wooley. The College of Homeopathic Medicine voted 24 for McKinley, 4 for Bryan, 1 for Leonard, 1 for Holman. The College of Dentistry voted 49 for McKinley, 9 for Bryan. The College of Pharmacy voted 40 for McKinley, 8 for Bryan, 2 for Belva Lockwood.

Student Clubs

Plans are on foot to organize a Western Club at the university, whose membership will include all those students whose homes are west of the Mississippi. The idea is a good one. Much of the undergraduate body at Pennsylvania is made up of men from the west, and the advantage of a club composed of these men from the west, at once obvious.

There are already in existence a New York State Club, a Southern Club and a newly reorganized Pittsburg club so that the endeavor to reorganize a Western Club is directly in line of such student organizations.

There yet remains an evident need for similar clubs in the undergraduate body of students from New England from the Middle West, which comprises Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin. The Pennsylvanian is decidedly in favor of more student activity along these lines and it pledges its support to any efforts which are made to effect these proposed organizations. The Pennsylvanian.

Normal Students

There are now seventy-five alumni and undergraduate students of the State Normal School attending the University of Iowa, says the Normaleyte. They are divided as follows: Instructors 2; College of Liberal Arts 37; College of Medicine 19; College of Law 6; College of Pharmacy 3; College of Dentistry 8.

A New Pass

Coach Lea of Michigan has been devoting much of his time the past two weeks in teaching his center a new method of snapping back the ball. By the system now in use Coach Lea thinks the opposing side see too much of the ball and have too good an opportunity to get through the line and break up the play before the offensive backs can get under way. All that the opposing line has to do now is to watch the center rush's arms when they move back with the ball the opposing players smash in.

Lea's idea is to keep the opposing team in wait until the ball reaches the quarter back and at the same time have the ball between the center rush's legs so clearly in view of the men behind the quarter back that they know the instant it is snapped. In doing this, the center rush now uses his fingers only from the middle joints to the end. He gets his hand well under the point of the ball which is nearest the opposing line. His fingers are hidden from view and while he is looking directly at the opposing center the ball is deftly snapped back by the muscles of the finger ends alone. The opposing team has practically no tip that the ball is in play until it has completely disappeared from their sight and into the waiting hands of the quarter back.

The brief time gained by this new pass is expected to get the formations under way just a little quicker than heretofore. The pass was first used against Purdue and was accompanied by some fumbling because the players were not used to it.

THE CHICAGO IOWA GAME

Team Leaves at 10:28 A. M., Friday—One Fare Rate Secured

The round trip rate of one fare to Chicago assures that a large and enthusiastic crowd of rooters will accompany the team when it leaves for Chicago tomorrow morning to do battle with Stagg's Maroons on Marshall Field Saturday. Still others will go to Chicago on the night trains, until, it is expected no less than four hundred will be included in the Iowa City party. News is coming in from alumni living in all parts of Iowa, that they expect to be in Chicago to see the game to which all Iowans have been eagerly looking forward ever since the Hawkeye team tied and outplayed the Maroons on October 7th of last year.

From Iowa City a rate of one fare for the round trip has been secured, the tickets being good going at 10 28 Friday morning and thereafter, and returning leaving Chicago on all trains Sunday up to and including the one leaving there at 11:30 p. m. Sunday.

Reserved seat tickets to the Iowa section of the bleachers are now on sale at Wienekes Arcade bookstore, at $1.50 each. It is desirable that the Iowa crowd should all get these tickets which are for the best seats in the stand, being directly opposite the 55 yard line. It is necessary for the Iowans to be assembled there in order to do effective rooting for Iowa. Those who desire only general admission tickets can secure them at the grounds for 75 cents.

Manager McCutchen, who returned from Chicago yesterday morning will be in that city at the Chicago Beach Hotel this morning and until after the game. He will be glad to attend to out-of-town orders for seats with the Iowa crowd.

The team will leave Iowa City at 10:28 a. m., Friday and will remain at the Chicago Beach hotel on 51st street and the lake shore from Friday evening till 10:30 Sunday morning when they will leave for Detroit over the Michigan Central. Here they will be located at Lakeside Inn on Lake St Clair until the day of the Michigan game.

Owing to the rainy weather yesterday, the team practiced signal work on the campus. The practice was quick and snappy. It was the last view which the students will have of their team before it goes to Chicago and that view was encouraging to the admirers of the eleven. Watters was unable to appear for practice on account of a bruised and poisoned hand which Dr Knipe thinks may keep him out of the game with Chicago. Captain Griffith says that he will play Saturday.

Dr Knipe said last night: "The team's weak point is its lack of practice against other teams. Only four games have been played and these against minor teams. This may be the cause of Iowa's defeat when she enters her big games."

Following are some of the comments made by the Chicago papers on the two teams:

Maroons Fear Iowa

There is a wholesome respect for the University of Iowa football team among University of Chicago students and players. The team which came out of the west last autumn unheralded and almost ran the maroons off their feet has not been forgotten by the older players, and the new ones are being warned regarding the westerners. Coach Stagg shares the opinion of his men regarding the Hawkeyes, and is leaving nothing undone to get the team in the best possible condition for the game. Reports of the unbounded confidence felt by Iowans reached the university yesterday, and only added to the fear already felt over the game next Saturday.

The visitors will have an evenly balanced eleven, thoroughly trained, and confident of its ability to defeat Chicago. The visitors' backfield is the same as the one which raced around Chicago's ends in last year's game. With the added experience of another season, even faster and better work may be expected. Stagg however will not be caught napping this season, knowing as he does the style of play employed by the visitors. Yesterday he had the 'varsity training against a strong scrub, employing Iowa plays. The guards' back, borrowed from Pennsylvania, is used by Coach Knipe, and end runs invented by himself proved effective last season. Though Stagg's men proved their inability to stop guards back at Philadelphia it is thought that Iowa guards are not so formidable as Hare and Teas.

The regulars are all with the exception of Henry and Eldridge in good physical condition so that little excuse can be offered if they are defeated Saturday. The work today will be done in secret, but Professor Stagg has promised to open the gates during the scrimmage practice.

Manager McCutchen of the Iowa team called upon Stagg yesterday and discussed arrangements for the game. The visitor said he was not confident that Iowa would win but said the team would give a good account of itself next Saturday.—The Chicago Record.

Stagg Prepares for Iowa

Stagg's football men played with dash on Marshall Field yesterday afternoon in scrimmage practice for the Iowa game next Saturday work was done in secret, and no others besides the coaches had a chance to get a good line on the practice. But when the gates were opened Coach Stagg looked more cheerful than he has for a month. He praised the men for the way they fought in the scrimmages.

Stagg was especially emphatic in words of commendation for Snider, who played at full back on the varsity, while Fell was on the reserves. However, Fell's fighting spirit has been aroused by this arrangement, and his friends predict that before the end of the week he will be working like a demon, and breaking up the varsity plays.

Iowa formations were the subject of instruction for the day. Coach Herschberger in the preliminary practice taught the reserves in the play in which an end and tackle go over to head the interference, and also the Penn "guards back" play used by Iowa. In the scrimmage these plays were used against the varsity. But the varsity was given the ball most of the time. The men played together, helping one another in offense with unusual unity. However, the reserves did not allow any big gains to be made.

It is expected that Iowa will have a big repertory of unique plays and tricks. Coach Knipe is regarded as an original man, and as he had his old team drilled in all the ordinary plays last year, he has had a long early season to develop novelties. Stagg has had no opportunity to get much of a line on the Iowa plays, and is coaching his men to be on the alert for every thing.

Manager McCutchen of the Iowa team was at the local university yesterday in consultation with Manager Butterworth. He took 300 tickets home to Iowa City last evening. A delegation of 100

Hawkeye students have ordered tickets. McCutchen has proposed excursions from various points in Iowa, as the whole state expects the team to win. But the business men object to excursions that will take Iowa people to Chicago, and so the idea was given up.

Henry was in the signal practice yesterday, but kept out of the scrimmage. Flannagan was kicked in the side during the practice and had to leave the field, but the accident was nothing serious. Athlswede will have hard work to get into physical condition for the game Saturday, even if he becomes eligible. Signal practice winded him yesterday.—The Chicago Times-Herald.

Prepare for Iowa Game

The University of Chicago football team continued to show the spirit aroused by the mass meeting on Monday in practice yesterday. Stagg was pleased with the work and said the men went into the plays hard and every one played for all he was worth. A strong sub team was lined up against the varsity and put through the Pennsylvania formation, the guards, back in particular, as Iowa is expected to use these plays on Saturday.

The men are hopeful of making a good showing against Iowa, but are not predicting a victory, and the general impression on the campus is that they will have a hard fight and will be lucky if they succeed in winning.

Eldredge and Horton played at half back in the practice game, but Henry was in the line during the signal practice. Atwood and Pettit were the ends. Chicago ends will play an important part in the Iowa game, as Iowa is said to be strong in end running and is expected to try end running and is expected to try end runs frequently. Pettit is speedy enough and no doubt will do the work. The only trouble about him is that he is too speedy and frequently overruns his man. Atwood has not had much chance to show what he can do in carrying the ball when playing end, but played a good defensive game against Pennsylvania.

Stagg thinks the heavy Iowa line will make things interesting for Chicago.

Manager McCutchen of the Iowa team was in Chicago last night. Notwithstanding the reports as to the condition of the maroons, he is not hatching any chickens prematurely. "Stagg's men may be in bad condition," he said, "but nevertheless by next Saturday they probably will be in shape to play strong football and we are not expecting a walk way."

Among the Colleges

A training table for the Freshman football team is maintained at Princeton.

A new football song book has been completed and recently put on sale at Stanford.—The Daily Californian.

The University of Chicago has an endowment of $11,000,000 since the $4,000,000 recently secured by President Harper.

Harvard has two political papers published weekly during the presidential campaign. "The Harvard American," republican and "The Harvard Democrat," published by the democratic club.

Illinois has more students than any other state in the Union, there being 12,787 students enrolled in the various colleges and universities of the state. New York comes next with 12,007.

The Vote Yesterday

The election yesterday was conducted amid great interest of students, faculty, and citizens. It was successful in every way. The women and the graduate students were the only students who failed to vote in any large numbers. Many of the resident graduate students do not attend classes every day and a large number of the total graduate students are in absentia.

The vote cast by the women shows that they are not at all anxious for the ballot. Only one-third of the women voted and all but four or five of these did so upon personal solicitation. Their vote for the prohibition candidates was five per cent of the total, while less than one per cent of the men voted for Wooley. This shows, perhaps, that we might have stricter laws on the liquor question if the women were allowed to vote in national and state elections.

The result of the vote among the men shows much the same result as the recent poll of the faculty by the VIDETTE-REFORMER. Eighty-four per cent of the faculty will vote for McKinley. The vote of the male students shows eighty-two per cent for McKinley and seventeen per cent for Bryan. Republican candidates for congressmen received eighty-three per cent of the votes cast for congressmen, and the democratic candidates thirteen per cent.

In the second district Vollmer received twenty-six per cent of the votes for congress, Ruple receiving seventy-three per cent, showing a democratic gain over the average vote in the state. In the sixth district Mr. Steck received ten per cent of the votes and Major Lacey ninety per cent, giving a republican gain over the average. The republican candidates in the state, outside of the second district, received ninety-one per cent of the total vote of the men for congressmen, the democratic candidates receiving nine per cent. The democratic gain in the second district of thirteen per cent over the average in the state shows the popularity of the brilliant Davenport alumnus of the university.

The Big Games

As the day of the Iowa-Chicago game approaches it is evident that everybody is confident—that Iowa will win, that is, everybody but those on whom will devolve the responsibility of the success or failure of next Saturday. Were the average Iowa enthusiast less optimistic and more discriminating he could not fail to note that the team is certainly not in the best possible condition to meet so redoubtable a foe as the Maroons have proved and will prove to be. To be sure, Chicago was defeated only last Saturday by an immense score, but it must be remembered that their defeat was at the hands of the strongest team in the country this year. Add to this the fact that Henry and probably Alhswede will be back in the game, and that the Chicago players will have become more accustomed to their changed positions, add this item and one doubts whether victory will be by more than a small margin at best. Then add the further fact that Chicago has had a "practice game" against a team which employs practically the same system of play with ourselves. Remember then that the Maroons will play a hard desperate game, for anything would be preferred by them to a defeat by Iowa, and one may be pardoned if possessed of one little fear that Chicago will—tie. There is a fear that the more than cheerful expressions of their numerous well-meaning friends may have caused the team to forget for the moment that the game of next Saturday is not to be won by merely appearing on the gridiron of Marshall Field. Let every man on the Iowa team put that idea from him. Let him remember that George Woodruff, the great Pennsylvania coach, in speaking of this same Chicago team after the Pennsylvania-Chicago game Saturday, credits them with pluck, nerve, and fierce determination to win if possible, even against odds. The Iowa team is going to face a desperate opponent Saturday. Only by "fierce determination to win, even against odds" can victory come to Iowa. The Chicago team even in defeat has the support of the great enthusiastic student body of the institution as witnessed by the mass meeting held after the Pennsylvania defeat, and attended by over a thousand. To win the Chicago game, which means much, very much indeed, to Iowa, the team must have the enthusiastic support of every Iowan, and the presence of as many as possible at Marshall Field Saturday to yell for Iowa. To win the Michigan game, which means more, far more to Iowa than does the Chicago game, whether victory comes next Saturday or not, the team must be made to know that it has the regard and confidence of the student body and the entire University.

UNDER THE DOME

Lincoln J Carter who is known as the author of several melodramas including "The Fast Mail," "The Tornado," and "Heart of Chicago" has scored the biggest kind of a hit with his new play "Under the Dome" which comes to the opera house Thursday night.

The action of the play takes the characters over a broad territory and gives opportunity for some startling scenic effects and some very beautiful sets. The two big sensations of the play are the ferry boat trip from Jersey City to New York, and the reproduction of the awful hurricane at Apia, which proved so destructive to the German and American navies. In addition to these are three beautiful sets showing familiar Washington scenes and one if the Capitol illuminated.
