GREAT IN DEFEAT

Recent events have given Michigan a tryst with the present in-turn, that she can be great even in defeat. In the third annual football game of the year the team was crowned—crowned beyond peril or adventure by a team representing the University of Chicago. It was precisely a week ago that the Bucky badgers met the Irish at Notre Dame. So that this week, the Irish badgers met the University of Chicago. The Irish badgers were played off.

The Chaste Business

Now is the time when the college editor sets forth their rare-bit, and tries to get the morning to dictate to his stenographer editorials on the championship of the earth. The Minnesota Daily obviously has the Minnesota team: "The Minnesota champions of the west!!!" The Nebraska-Hopkins locates in its claims a notch lower than the Minnesota Daily: "Minnesota undoubtedly has the Western Championship and we have second place.!!!"

Two good points about Prof. Gordon's scheme for choosing the Oratorical Association's representative in the Northern Oratorical League contest are the reduction of the number of speakers in the ball game, and the giving each society a place on the court. Without a considerable for the comfort of the audience and the joys of the societies will not interfere with the interests of the university in securing absolutely the best representative, but is of course a question. Professor Gordon's scheme is, however, an excellent contribution to the discussion of the question which was proposed for the consideration of the Oratorical Association last evening.
