The building and executive committee of the board of regents, consisting of Regents Hubbell, Alward, Hatch, and Wright, met yesterday afternoon at the central building.

The board adopted a resolution that clinical schools at the College of Dentistry be held by on the day the work is finished, if a service of operations is done, at the end of those operations.

The request from the dental schools in the university architect looked over the building with reference to enlargement was granted.

Miss Rilla A. Kelly, W. H. of Iowa City, was appointed assistant in charge of the dental clinic, Ralph Taylor Mason, resigned. Miss Kelly will have charge of a part of the theme reading in the English department and will be paid by the college.

The suggestion of Professor MacLean and the medical faculty that a new form of books be used this year for the work of those students who were under the medical college was approved.

The board of the state of Iowa was happy to announce that the play of the university, "The Secretary," was a great success.

It was voted to hold a special meeting for the purpose of determining the penalty to be imposed upon the members of the class who were responsible for the damage.

The committee for the next meeting of the board of regents was appointed.

The board of the city were:

Mr. Walter Blaisdell and Mr. John Wagoner.

The University Examiners

The University Examiners will not hold their office during the two weeks before and after the examinations. All such students are expected to attend the examinations at the regular hours and their courses at the opera house not later than the hour appointed for their presence.

The facilities will meet at the central building in full academic costume, and go to the opera house in procession.
