VICTORY FOR MICHIGAN

Storey Wins First Honors of Northern Oratorical League - Nelson of Chicago Second - Brackett of Iowa Third - Michigan's Eighth Victory

"It is not often, at such a distinguished seat of learning, that I have the pleasure of knowing more than the entire audience, yes, more than every man and even more than every woman in it," said President Jesse of the University of Missouri last night, announcing the decision of the judges in the eleventh annual contest of the Northern Oratorical League. "The winner of first place," he continued deliberately, "is to receive a testimonial of $100 donated by Hon Frank O. Lowden; the winner of second honors will receive a like award of $50; while the winner of third place is to receive the distinguished honor of being accorded honorable mention by me. Third honors in the contest tonight were won by the University of Michigan."

MR OTTO BRACKETT, UNIVERSITY OF IOWA, Winner of Third Place.

President Jesse took a couple of turns up and down the platform. "Iowa."

"Haw-Haw-Haw! Hi-Hi-Hi! Hawkeye! Hawkeye! U. of I.," from Iowa throats, mingled with cheers of all universities represented was the response to the announcement.

"Second place has been won by the University of Chicago."

A half a dozen Chicago men the left dress circle gave the Maroon yell and the audience cheered.

"The contest has been won by the University of Michigan."

"U. of M! Rah-Rah! Rah-Rah! U. of M! Rah-Rah! Rah-Rah! Michigan! Michigan! Rah! Rah! Rah!"

came from the audience, with cheers and applause the heaviest and heartiest that greeted any announcement that evening. For the eighth time in eleven years, Michigan had won the contest of the Northern Oratorical League—won it fairly and conclusively in a brilliant contest—won it by the surpassing excellence of her own trained son, her peerless orator—Carroll L. Storey. Honor and praise, huzzas and plaudits be unto his name from seven universities. And let his name long be cherished at the University of Michigan as one of the most gallant in the galaxy of heroes who have won on many fields and in contests honor for the Maize and Blue.

A large audience greeted President G. E. MacLean as, at 8:20 last evening, he stepped on the stage to express Iowa's pleasure in giving the university to the Northern Oratorical League, and to introduce the presiding officer of the league, Mr William J. Carr, of the University of Wisconsin.

President Carr said that he did not desire to make a speech, but simply wished to express the appreciation of the visiting orators and representatives for the treatment accorded them by the University. "We have been treated excellently in every respect," said he, "and for this we wish to express our thanks, to assure the University of Iowa that we will return its cordiality when it meets with us."

Mr Otto Brackett, of Iowa, the first speaker delivered his oration in a persuasive, convincing manner that held the attention of the audience. He steadily approached his climax and surprised every Iowan by the excellence of his delivery in every respect. When his last word was spoken, Iowa knew that Old Gold had been grandly represented and was willing to give to Mr Brackett and Professor Gordon, the highest praise and grateful remembrance.

Mr Bertram G. Nelson of the University of Chicago, had the most natural, conversational manner of the evening. Under his presentation of the Oratory of Jesus the audience became entranced, forgetting in the spell of Mr Nelson's oratory that he was delivering an oration. Chicago received first in thought and composition and second in delivery.

Michigan's orator, Mr Carroll L. Storey, had not progressed long in his oration before the audience knew that here was the premier speaker of the evening. With a magnetism possessed by no other orator, a voice of great range and modulation, and an unsurpassed knowledge of public address in all its departments, Mr Storey charmed and claimed for his own last night's as fully as did "The Minister Plenipotentiary" hold his Liverpool audience thirty-eight years ago. Michigan received first place from all the judges.

Mr Thomas D. Schall of Minnesota presented A Hero's Mistake in an excellent manner. A pin drop could have been heard in the hall as he warmed up to his subject and delivered the unsurpassed climax and peroration of his strong production.

Mr Hasse O. Ewall of Northwestern University delivered his oration, The Power of a Great Conviction as Illustrated in the Life of Garibaldi, in an enthusiastic manner that told of an orator filled with the convictions he uttered. His effort was most creditable, receiving fourth place in delivery.

The Battle of Saratoga, by Clarence Merle Woodruff, of Oberlin, was an excellent oration, well delivered by a speaker with an impressive appearance. Ober-

CHANGES IN CONSTITUTION

Committee Appointed to Revise Constitution of Athletic Union to Meet Present Conditions to Report Wednesday Night

The committee on constitutional revision appointed last fall by President Egan in accordance with a resolution of the athletic union will report next Wednesday evening. The committee released the instrument at its last meeting. In accordance with request, the important changes are hereafter noted in order that they may be known and commented upon by the alumni, students, and faculty.

The committee was charged with the duty of revising the present constitution to meet present conditions and making such changes as seem necessary at this time. The principal work of the committee has been a condensation of the instrument. All superfluous verbiage has been omitted and the instrument has thus been reduced one-third. The committee will recommend that the athletic union be incorporated after the election of officers in December, postponement to this time being necessitated by the legal provision requiring a filing of the officers for the ensuing year with the articles of incorporation. The cost of incorporation will be but a few dollars and the benefits of having a legal form, competent to sue and be sued are obvious.

Membership in the athletic union is extended to three classes: (1) those who pay the membership fee of one dollar for the current year, (2) those who have been granted by the board of athletic control the right to wear the "Varsity 'I'," and (3) those who purchase a season ticket to the "Varsity" games for the current year.

When Professor Knipe was elected director of physical training, it was stipulated by the regents that he be a member of the board of athletic control. This election has been accepted and, in order to incorporate it in the constitution, the director of physical training is made one of the faculty members of the board. The other four faculty members are appointed by the President of the university.

One of the problems specifically referred to the committee was the conflict implied by having two different kinds of managers of athletics. The committee have solved this by calling the present managers of the different athletic teams student delegates to the board of athletic control. These delegates are to be assigned to the different committees by the president of the board, each one to a chairmanship of the committee to which he is assigned. The functions of the delegates will be exactly the same as those of the present managers. The only change is that they will be called student delegates and probably be known separately as the chairman of the football, base ball, etc., committees of the board of athletic control.

Article VII., section 1, of the constitution reported by the committee reads as follows:

"The regular meetings of the athletic union shall be held on the fourth Wednesday of September, the first Wednesday of November, the second Wednesday of December, the first Wednesday of February, the second Wednesday of April and the first Wednesday of June. A representative of the board of control shall be present at these regular meetings and shall present to the union the actions of the board of athletic control since the last meeting of the union. The meeting on the second Wednesday of December shall be the annual meeting of the athletic union. At this meeting the general manager shall make a report of the finances of the union."

The purpose of having regular meetings every six months is to bring the board of athletic control and the athletic union into closer touch, to arouse the interest in athletics matters among the students, and help the students to co-operate more fully in ways that will benefit athletics. Thus at these regular meetings subscriptions for deficits and plans for securing larger attendance at the games can be inaugurated. The report of the general manager at the December meeting is intended to be a statement of the financial condition as nearly correct as he can make it. It is not understood that this must be the audited and approved report, as it might not be possible to secure such a report owing to the short interval since the Thanksgiving game.

A provision is made in the by-laws that a quorum shall consist of fifteen (15), members, and the number of signatures required to nominating petitions is also reduced to fifteen (15). The old constitution omitted any reference to a quorum, hence the ordinary rules requiring a majority of the members of the union is supposed to have prevailed.

Due provision is made that the adoption of the constitution shall not be construed to vacate any office at present filled by election by the members of the athletic union. All athletic affairs not regulated by the constitution are left as at present, for the determination of the board of athletic control. Except for the changes noted, and condensation, the constitution is left much as at present.

Business Meeting

At the meeting of the N. O. L. Friday afternoon, the constitution of the league was amended giving local associations power to name officers in their turn; any member of the league, undergraduate or otherwise being eligible to office. Minnesota's place in the Big Seven was changed, so that the contest will go there year after next.

An amendment was submitted to a special committee, consisting of the President, Secretary and Treasurer, providing for a change in the method of judging the orations, eliminating the judges on thought and composition and retaining only the judges in delivery.

Officers for the following year are: F. S. Merriau, Iowa, president; F. D. Schall, Minnesota, secretary; E. G. B. Watson, Chicago, treasurer; Eugene J. Marshall, Michigan, 1st vice-president; M. J. Seed, Northwestern, 2nd vice-president; E. W. Pettibone, Oberlin, 3rd vice-president; L. O. Rounds, Wisconsin, 4th vice-president.

A vote of thanks was tendered the University of Iowa for its kind treatment of the contestants and delegates. The contest will be held at Chicago next year.

The engagement of Miss Margaret Beermaker of San Jose, California, to Dr F. L. Breene has been announced.

The Varsity team defeated the Old and Ancient team Thursday afternoon by a score of 11 to 6.

On the morning of May 8th will occur the marriage of Miss Winston Osborn, '00, to Charles Larrabee.

W. W. Loomis, '99, and Mr Bois, proprietor of the Atlantic Telegraph and the Boone Republican, two prominent weeklies of power in the state, were in the city last night for the contest.

PURPLE AND WHITE WINS

Defeats Iowa by 13 Points—Drake Men Work Hard for Victory and Deserve Its Sweets—65 to 52

Fourteen track men and seven rooters came from Drake university this morning for the track meet. If there had been a larger crowd at the meet this afternoon there might have been more enthusiasm; as it was the enthusiasm of those who attended the meet was taken up with approving the fine accommodations that will be afforded meets when the new grand stand is built.

Iowa Wins in Tennis

In the Drake-Iowa tennis tournament this morning the singles were won by Ellis of Iowa and the doubles by Bailey and Shaw of Iowa.

The meet was a great triumph for the stocky Purple and White athletes from Des Moines. They worked hard for their college and deserve praise for their efforts. Iowa came out of the meet somewhat better than was expected from the comparisons of the home meet records. The Hawkeyes all showed good form, being somewhat better, in this respect than last year's team.

Starter A. E. Hurst of the Des Moines Y. M. C. A., did some poor work in allowing some men to start before his pistol was fired, but the trouble was possibly unavoidable and certainly unintentional.

Iowa did not do well in the distance run owing to the physical condition of the men. Weiland was also kept out of the pole vault for this reason. It would have looked better if Emerson, Drake's 2nd half-mile runner had finished the event instead of dropping out after sprinting the first quarter.

The hundred yard dash was won by McCoy, Iowa; second, Arthur, Drake; third, Salisbury, Iowa; time 11 1-5 seconds. Barnes of Drake did not start, not being eligible by the attendance rule.

Graham of Drake took the high jump at 5 feet 6 1/2 inches; Schenck, Iowa, second, 5 feet 5 1/2 inches; Duffield, Drake, third.

Burrier, Iowa won the shot put at 36 feet 11 inches; Pell, Drake, second, 36 feet 8 1/2 inches; Warner, Iowa, third.

The high hurdles was a pretty event. Chapman took the lead but was beat out at the finish by Anderson, Iowa, in very fast time—17 1-5. Call, Iowa third.

Emerson set the pace very fast in the half mile at the start. He then fell out and Jaggard, Drake beat Brown, Iowa out at the tape. Time 2:05. Boardman, Iowa, third.

Arthur, Drake, took the 220 yard dash; Schenck, Iowa, second; Salisbury, Iowa, third; time 25 1-5 seconds.

Pell, Drake, took the hammer throw at 111 feet, 8 3/4 inches; Warner, Iowa, second, 108 feet 10 inches; Brockway, Iowa, third.

Sellards, Drake took the broad jump at 20 feet, 7 inches; Duffield, Drake, second; Edson, Iowa, third.

Dye, Iowa lead all the way in low hurdles; Mantz, Iowa, second; Graham, Drake, third; time 28 2-5 seconds.

Brown, Iowa, won the quarter mile run by 12 feet in 54 4-5 seconds; Kies, Drake, second; Robley, Drake, third.

Smith, Drake, won the discus throw; Chapman, Drake, second; Warner, Iowa, third, distance 101 feet 10 1/2 inches.

Graham, Drake, won the hop, step and jump, 43 feet 3 inches;

The marks of the judges were:

Judge	Thought and Composition	Delivery	Sum of Grades	Sum of Ranks	Final Rank
Iowa	90-1	90-4	80-6	89-5	25
Chicago	97-1	95-1	80-6	91-5	27

EDITORIAL.

THE showing made by the Drake team this afternoon was highly creditable. It is too early in the season to pick the point winners in the state meet but the men of Drake proved today that the contest for state championship will be a close one and that the Drake team will be there with necessary commodity. Rah for Drake!

NEWSPAPER men of Iowa City have called our attention to the surprising charge made in yesterday's Republican that the matter in Thursday's VIDETTE-REPORTER was stolen from some newspaper office in the city. The charge is not only false but absurd. We obtained our material from perfectly proper sources and with no release upon it. We know of no monopoly on contest matter enjoyed by any newspaper office in the city or country. We have always been able to get the news and that after the straightest precepts of our profession. We need no suggestions in the matter from the Republican.

The Oratorical Contest

The eleventh annual contest of the Northern Oratorical League was a source of pleasure to the University of Iowa, whose guests the representatives, of the other universities were, and, we trust to all the orators, delegates, faculty representatives and distinguished visitors. Every contestant acquitted himself with credit to the university whose colors he wore and in whose behalf his work and talents and enthusiasm were expended. Were it possible to give no marks in such a friendly contest and let the good of the contest rest upon the benefits each university and orator has obtained by participating in it, the feelings of those who heard the seven fine orations would be best expressed.

The contest was fairly and squarely won by Mr Storey of Michigan. Only one university and one orator could bear away the first honors but each university may take great credit for itself from the magnificent manner in which it was represented in a close contest of the star orators of six states and each orator may well receive the highest praise for the talents and industry shown by his oration and delivery. In a contest such as this there is glory and honor enough for all.

The distinguished judges who so kindly gave their time and attention to the hard and oftentimes thankless task of marking the orations are entitled to the thanks of the entire league for the fair and able manner with which they performed their duties. The management of the contest by the officers of the league was excellent and great credit is owing them for this. So far as can be learned, the University of Iowa performed its part in the contest without objection, for which the men who did the work, are entitled to great praise. If there was any mistake, the league may rest assured that it was an error of head and not of the heart.

Iowa enjoyed the visit of the Northern Oratorical League. May it prosper steadily in six years' sojourn among our sister universities. And may the time fly swiftly until it comes again to Iowa in 1908.

lin tied with Iowa for third place in thought and composition. Miss Louise Loeb, of the University of Wisconsin scored the success of the evening. Her oration was most eagerly awaited by the audience. When a beautiful young lady appeared on the stage and with perfect self-possession and a most womanly manner began to deliver the impressive, appealing tones of her grand oration, the enthusiasm of the men and women in the house became intense. Miss Loeb delivered her oration in the best possible manner and, at the close of her grand appearance, many were placing her among the honor orators.
