HADDOCK IS SARCASTIC

THE Judge Believes that the University is Rich with Talent in Science.

Under the heading, Haddock is sarcastic, professor Des Moines Capital prints the following.

Attorney General Mallican this morning received communication from W. J. Haddock, secretary of the University of Chicago, who asks that the attention of the bar be directed to the question whether the university is entitled to the $5,000 which demands as the unbalanced payment of an old appropriation and who speaks in no gentle terms of the failure of the senate of the state to honor the requisition made for the payment of the same.

The closing clause of the communication is as follows:

"The university and the State of Illinois have been in arrears to the amount of $5,000.

The Senate and the House of Representatives have failed to appropriate the amount of $5,000 to the President of the university and the State of Illinois for the purpose of paying the above amount owing to the University of Chicago.

The President of the university hereby requests the Senate and the House of Representatives to appropriate the amount of $5,000 to the President of the university and the State of Illinois for the purpose of paying the above amount owing to the University of Chicago and to the President of the university and the State of Illinois for the purpose of paying the above amount owing to the University of Chicago and to the State of Illinois.

The university and the State of Illinois have been in arrears to the amount of $5,000.

TOWNSEND'S STUDIO.

Iowa City, Iowa, June 6, 1900.

The picture exhibition from the Low啦 house of upon which the jurists, and those who have not been in the latter's own house of which he is so proud, are of course anxious to see it in its entirety, is to be on view at the Lowala house this week. The picture exhibition from the Lowala house is the most complete exhibition of pictures in this city, and it is the most complete exhibition of pictures in any place in the United States.
