WELCOME TO DEAN GREGORY.

Law and Society's Banquet to the New School of the College of Law—Engrossing Times and Peeling

Doomes.

Great is the College of Law! Great is the College of Law! It has long been an honor to the University by the Hammond Law School.

The Hammond Law School was dedicated to the St. James Hotel was a pleasant task. It was a great pleasure to the guests of the evening to be Dean Gregory, a true and able man. The Hammond Law School has been in existence for over two hundred years, and it has been a leader in American legal education. It is a place where law students can learn the skills and knowledge necessary to succeed in the legal profession.

In this regard, Dean Gregory delivered his address, which was well received by the audience. He spoke of the importance of the Hammond Law School and its role in shaping the future of the legal profession. He also emphasized the need for a strong legal education in order to prepare students for the challenges they will face in their professional careers.

The Hammond Law School is a place where law students can learn from some of the finest legal minds in the country. It is a place where students can gain a deep understanding of the law and its impact on society.

Dean Gregory expressed his gratitude to the University for its support of the Hammond Law School. He also thanked the faculty and staff for their hard work and dedication to the education of future lawyers.

In conclusion, Dean Gregory's address was a fitting tribute to the Hammond Law School and its important role in shaping the legal profession. The students at the University can be proud of the Hammond Law School and the education it provides. It is a place where law students can learn the skills they need to succeed in the legal profession and make a positive impact on society.
