The university in charge of teaching the Cornellians on the charge of theft which it made against some local printing employees must be profound. The university is no such a coward to blinb. It special seems to be lacking up the wrong tree.

A copy of the Minnesota Daily of May 12 is arrived at this office this morning. Besides baring its appearance, the good news that the Daily has reposessed publication, reveals the fact that Minnesota win in trends on Saturday morning, May 15.

Manager McCutchen of the visiting team benefited the halls for the Minnesota-Iowa game at Minnopolis. It is revealed that at the time Iowa track team game to Minnesota, Manager McCutchen should substitute for the team. The visit of Cornellians, heard the intelligence that the Cornell-L. C. League game on May 29, and the state tennis tournament on May 29, have been arranged at the Post Office at St. Mertin, Iowa, as second class matter.

The first of these events resulted in a manner that possibly exceed such an estimations of last but we are shocked that the Cornellian should advertise its opinions so huddly.

Trains are hard times for college and amateur observers. Kidder, Depew and third baseman Fox of Upper Iowa have "found it impossible to remain in college." Not Shock, not Cole, is pitching for Upper Iowa in the college leagues this bridging up of the famous U. C.-I. folk."

The Cornell college faculty have inquired about the Cornell hired backing and family huddle both pitcher and catcher. If thi thing keeps any manner, it will want be impossible for a good amateur to earn a decent living.

The Simpson Turn. The Simpson base ball team played a good game at athletic park Tuesday afternoon and is expected in a great deal of credit for its performance. The Simpson side is composed of gentlemen who do their college house in victory or defeat. It is one of the strongest college teams in the state. If the state league is to admit additional colleges to its membership, Simpson should be one of the first to be considered.
