The Board of Regents will ask legislature for additional appropriations—other business transacted.

The board of regents of the University of Iowa will meet tomorrow, according to announcement yesterday, at 10 a.m., at the State Capitol. It was stated that the Board of Regents will ask the legislature for a new liberal arts hall and for additional watchmen. The board will also consider the reports of committees, subjects of other business transacted.

A special meeting of the Midwestern athletic directors was held yesterday. Forty-one of the directors were present. The meeting was called to discuss the question of football equipment. The directors agreed to recommend to the legislature the purchase of football equipment at a cost of $4,000.

Football players notice.

All candidates for the football team are requested to see Dr. Knipe in the northwest room of the old capitol building, first floor, on Friday evening, September 24. It is important that every man who is trying out for the team be present.

The legislature will meet tomorrow, Saturday, at 12:30 p.m., in the amphitheater of the medical school. Business must be transacted and a full attendance is desired.

By Order of President H. C. Hoving:

H. F. Dowling, L. J., is visiting the Chicago World's Fair, and will return home from the Buffalo exposition.

Ross B. Haddock, '24, of Bedford, and O. H. Hammons, M.D., of Moine, are recent pledges to Beta Theta Pi.

Many new men got good meet assurance—track in fair condition only.

The ninth annual fall football game at the University of Iowa will be held at the athletic park tomorrow afternoon, September 28, contrary to previous reports. The candidates, including a gratifying proportion of new men, have signified their intention of competing in the various events. The entries, however, have been weak in the weight events. There are certainly enough strong men in the university who can put the shot and throw the hammer and discus, to prevent these events from being dropped. The last time entering, so that any student of the university who reports to the manager of the event, Anderson, on the track Saturday afternoon, will be permitted to compete.

There will be no admission to the track meet. All are invited to be present and yell for their own classes.

McKinley criticized.

A student at Morning, College, one Roy Tootcher, has created a sensation at Morning by attacking the temperance attitude of the late President McKinley. In the course of his address, Mr. Tootcher, a member of the class of '01, expects to try for the position of director of university journalism. His speech is anticipated with interest by the members of the Epworth League and students by Mr. Tootcher's statement.

Fresno's victory.

The sophomores were up a tree. Here they nursed the freshman, but they could nurse for two hours. The freshman were gazing at their younger brothers and Romans were brought into action to make the horrid sounds that the leaves and the bells and the fences were not able to make. The sophomores held their ground and the dummy. Finally a freshie succeeded in getting the dummy down, and at the next break a dazed squad of freshmen and sophomores were just going out of sight, each squad hanging on to a member of the freshman infant.

Seniors elect officers.

Lin M. Butler was last evening chosen president of the Senior class of an overwhelming majority on the first ballot. Mr. Butler's relation to professors and students, his managing ability, and his reputation for a rustler, presses a grand administration. Other officers chosen are: Vice President, Merritt Brackett; Secretary, Florence Seery; Treasurer, F. H. Randall; Sergeant-at-Arms, Fred Emery, H. S. Funks.

Professor Bolton's academic handle was changed from "Professor of Pedagogy" to "Professor of the Science and Art of Education," upon his own request and that of President MacLean. The excuse for this lengthening of the professorial appellation is to make it more intelligible to the general public.

The library hours were fixed at from eight to six, six days in the week with provision for extension until ten o'clock, at night, so soon as the electric lights are put into the new buildings. Arrangements were made for completing the furnishing the hall of liberal arts.
