FOOTBALL SITUATION.

Team Steadily Improving but Not Yet in Good Condition.

The football practice yesterday afternoon developed no surprises of any kind. There is the same ragged work that has characterized the play since the opening of the season. However, there was a little more enthusiasm and a faint glimmer of team work on offensive play. Wyland, Burrier, Terrell and Buckley gained at will against a very weak second eleven, so that it was impossible to judge of the real strength of the first team. No line could be gotten on the defense, owing to the absolute lack of aggressiveness on the part of the "scrubs", except when Macey bestirred himself to extra effort and some gains were made through the varsity's line. One bright spot, however, cheered those who are hoping against hope that the team will finally develop. There was disposition to help by the men behind the line. The play, however, was slow, particularly in lining up after a play and the evident distress in breathing showed the entire squad a long way from good condition.

The game Saturday is awaited anxiously by the enthusiasts and then some definite estimate of the strength or weakness of the team may be made. There is no doubt but that the men trying are doing their level best and it is up to the students of the university to show some disposition to help rather than to look for opportunities for adverse criticism. The gates of the Athletic Park have and will be open till the crowding upon the field by the spectators makes it necessary to again close them.

Yesterdays line up as follows:

Maresh,	rt. e.	Williams.
Lurmer,	rt. t.	Brown.
Smith,	rt. g.	Channan.
Biggs,	c.	Commack.
Siberts,	lf. g.	Spaulding.
Hollenbeck	lf. t.	Berry.
Wyant,	lt. e.	Walker.
Terra,	lt. b.	Griffith.
Watters,	rt. h.	Olinger.
Herbert,	lt. h.	Seteck.
Buckley,	lt. b.	Macy.

The following men were substituted in various places during the practice:

B. P. Williams, Ocheltree, Williamson, Coulthard, Melzner, S. C. Williams, Louis, St. Clair, Jones and Brown.

Notice.

It is essential that all the men in the football squad should appear before the board of eligibility before Saturday. Candidates may present themselves to Professor E. A. Wilcox at the central building any day between 2 and 3 P. M.

Professor A. G. Smith will be at his office in the College of Liberal Arts between 9 and 10 A. M. Professor Nutting will be at his office in the science building between 9 and 11 A. M.

Miss Esther Ashby, ex '02, is visiting friends in the city.

CHANGES FOR LAWS.

College of Law Indicates Advancement in a Manner Becoming to the University.

The college of law starts out this year a firm believer in the policy of expansion. In every feature of the college this is true. Dean Gregory has entered upon his duties with a vim and determination that speaks a great deal for the future. Now the whole of the old Capitol building, with the exceptions of the president's secretaries, the treasurer's rooms and the basement, has been put to the use of the law department. The general increase in the attendance of the college was the cause of this. The office of the dean is on the first floor in the rooms formerly occupied by Professor Wilson and his German classes. The dean's office is about to be furnished with tables and chairs of oak, and several sets of state reports and digests will be found here.

The law library has been greatly changed since last year. It is now in a large room instead of being partitioned off in small ones. To make room for all the books, there is a gallery extending around the four sides of the room. At both east and west sides are stairs by which access to the gallery can be obtained. Oak furniture has been ordered to equip the library throughout and is expected to arrive in a few days. In all, the college of law indicates progress in its every movement.

The Iowan at Michigan.

The Daily Iowan is one of the few college papers that is worthy of being called more than a bulletin. It is a lively, newsy, up-to-date paper, and will do much to help the reputation of western college journalism. There are now published throughout the country, fifteen college papers, and the Daily Iowan ranks well up toward the list. It is not as large a paper as the Daily News—the Daily News is the largest college paper published—nor does it have a cartoon, but the style, arrangement and subject matter of paper causes one to peruse its pages with care and interest.—The Michigan Daily News.

W. T. Shepard, '83, of Harlan, is in the city on business.

The Tau Delts will give a dancing party tomorrow evening at their chapter house.

Misses Clara Slavata, '04, Dala Everett, Soesbe, '05, and Williams, '05, have joined Hesperia.

In a few days the commandant of the university battalion will issue a pamphlet containing a revision of military regulations.

Registration goes steadily on at the office. From thirty to fifty a day are being added to the list. At present the number approaches 1250.

Norman Crans has formed a law partnership with J. W. Elliott of Davenport and is located at 224 W. Third Street.

FORENSIC CONTESTS.

Preliminary Debaters and Questions Chosen. Iowa Meets Wisconsin and Minnesota in February.

At this time of the year football is the order of the day, but other departments of student contests are not lost sight of. The Debating League is already laying plans and making the necessary preliminary arrangements prior to the forensic battles with Wisconsin and Minnesota which will take place about the middle of the winter term.

The men for the preliminaries have been chosen and they have already selected their questions and begun to collect material and data for the home contests.

The question for the Wisconsin preliminary is:—Resolved: That in the commonwealth of Iowa a system of taxation in which the personal property would be taxed by and for the state, reserving to the local bodies the exclusive taxation of realty, would be preferable to the present system.

This will be affirmed for the Zetagathian by E. K. Brown, W. H. Anderson and A. W. Lauer. Denied for Irving by C. T. Kenmerer, L. A. Minkel and H. E. Spangler.

The Minnesota preliminary question is:—Resolved: that the United States should permanently retain the Philippine Islands. It will be affirmed for Irving by J. F. Kunz, Merritt Brackett and L. M. Butler. Denied for Zetagathian by E. H. McCoy, H. E. Hadley and W. M. Barr.

These preliminaries will be held the last of this term or soon after the Holiday vacation. Two from each of the winning teams and one from each of the losing will be selected for the final contests.

Dual Tennis Tourney.

Manager Marsh states that a dual tennis tournament with Cornell has been scheduled for October 12, at Mt. Vernon. The meet will come off on the morning of that day, for the Grinnell-Cornell football game is in the afternoon. Iowa is to send four men and the match consists of two doubles and two singles.

Of the old players Bailey, Ellis, Mather and Marsh have returned for school work. Some new men have appeared at the courts who are putting in good work so as to make the team if possible. Manager Marsh urgently requests all tennis players in the university to show their loyalty by joining the ranks of the enthusiasts of this department of athletics.

Nicholson L '04 left for his home at Lamoni, Iowa, this afternoon, on account of sickness. He expects to return to school as soon able.

William's I. C. Commercial now has a much larger attendance than on this date last year. 8-11

Dr. L. A. Wilkinson, H. M. D., '01 of Winfield, Iowa, brought a patient to the hospital Tuesday.

SCRAP AT DRAKE.

Terrific Class Scrap at Drake University Results in Severe Injuries to Two Boys—Fair Sex In It.

One of the warmest class scraps in the history of Drake University occurred this morning at Drake University between the sophomores and the freshman classes, the latter coming out ahead. From 7:30 to 10 o'clock neckties were seen flying in the air, coats and hats tumbling all over the campus and yells loud enough to be heard for many blocks rang in the morning air. Yesterday morning the two classes made a desperate effort to pick a fuss and not succeeding it was postponed until this morning.

During the night, when all the freshmen were fast asleep, the sophomores crawled out and dressed up an immense rag baby in the freshman colors, green and pink. A gallon bottle of milk with a large rubber hose was attached to the hideous looking child, and this combination was hung upon a wire near the pole in the south campus. At the foot of the pole several strong "sophs" stood in guard and around them was a large crowd of freshmen all eager to grab them and pull down the baby. But it was too well guarded.

The scrap then commenced and for a long time the dust was flying, college yells given and everything in reach torn up and even the girls of the respected classes were seen pinning their dresses together, and wiping dust from their faces after the scimmage. Eventually a brilliant member of the freshmen class, Will Blocker, succeeded in getting to the post, and, with considerable effort, climbed to the top, poured oil on the wonderful baby and in a second more the child was in flames, and the new famous "Billy" was helped down by his classmates.

The freshmen then hung crepe over the place where the doll was burned and it was formally asserted that the freshmen came out on top.

A number of boys were badly hurt. Claude Smith was seriously injured, and Harry Car got a bad hurt on the foot. For some time several doctors were on the scene.

It was about the hottest class scrap in the history of the college and lasted until chapel time.—Ex.

Notice.

There will be an important meeting of The Daily Iowan board at the office, 923 East Iowa Avenue, Saturday, October 5, at 1:30 P. M.

Foot-ball practice at Iowa hereafter will be secret except on Fridays. Iowa has been getting out a choice assortment of wolf stories hoping to give the other colleges a feeling of over-confidence. No one ever believes these stories, however, and the college which sends out the reports is the only one injured by them.—Minnesota Daily.

Granting that the Cleveland program for the dedication of the new building of the college of Liberal Arts, was a newspaper fake story, yet all agree that it would be just the thing to have Grover Cleveland here on that day. He would be most cordially welcomed by the University.

Saturday at the foot-ball game every old student should assist in showing the new men as well as the visitors how we treat our opponents in athletic and like contests. In the midst of the words of encouragement to our supporters of the honor of old gold, we can do nothing more to our credit than to urge the Normalites to do their best, for, by doing this it will be evident to them that we wish to win by fair means only. Many athletic teams have the determination to be victorious whether the means are fair or foul, it matters not which. Iowa's past and future purpose has always been to treat its opponents as friends rather than foes, and to wear their college colors and give their yells as enthusiastically as our own. The result is that all the sister colleges who come here leave the city with a feeling of good will for us.

The Athletic Union is much gratified over the fact that so many of the students are availing themselves of the opportunity to purchase season tickets to the football games. Some buy these tickets to make evident their faith in Iowa's team and to do all within their power to make athletics a financial success at the university. Others secure them to save money, for the average cost of each game will be but $.33 1/3. At the Illinois game alone the regular admission price is to be $1.00, which is one third the price of a season ticket. No matter what the motive is, those who purchased them will never regret having done so.

October 2, 1901.

ORDER NO. 5: All students whatsoever, who under the rules of the University, are required to take military instruction, excepting those who have been excused by the battalion surgeon, will be required to drill until their applications have been acted upon by the Military Committee of the Faculty and they have been officially notified of the result. All authority to the contrary is hereby revoked.

By ORDER OF COMMANDANT.

ORDER NO. 6. I. All students desiring to be exempt from drill, no matter what grounds, and whether they have previously made applications or not, must obtain a blank from the commandant immediately, before or after drill, and submit their petition in the manner described thereon.

II. Cadets desiring to be excused from any particular drill must make a formal application in writing on the form provided, stating the particular reason, therefor, before drill hour. If too sick to comply with this requirement they must produce a doctor's certificate in their explanations. All explanations must be in writing after the prescribed form and submitted on or before the next drill following the offense.

By ORDER OF COMMANDANT.

Amusements

A splendid company will appear at the opera house on Saturday evening, Oct. 5th, in the great success "When We Were Twenty One." "Dick Carewe," the leading character, is the quiet bachelor of the period. But he doesn't remain one long. O! no. The play ends with his head bowed to the yoke of matrimony, and after the most charming four acts ever penned, Dick Carewe ambles gently in double harness, side by side with the beautiful Phyllis Ericson. We don't wish to anticipate pleasure, so the plot of the play we will keep until we give our further views of the players, but this we say without fear of contradiction:—"When We Were Twenty One" will make your mind and heart better in every way, so don't fail to see it.

While the comedy "Two Merry Tramps" as presented by Wood & Ward's company has been pronounced a bright satire by the press throughout the country during the past two years, the play in itself is of minor importance, the specialties and musical numbers introduced almost continuously during the action of the comedy being the features that have placed this organization at the head of its class. Some twenty pleasing, tuneful and novel specialties are given, among the most noted being the "Hobo Two-Step" by Wood and Ward and the Elmore Sisters, the rage of New York; "Tell us Pretty Ladies", as sung in "Floradora," "My Blushing Rosie," with chorus by entire company; "The Big Detective," a musical satire on Sherlock Holmes; The Bowery Quartette in "The East Side Belle;" the Indian Opera and numerous individual specialties. The abundance of bright and pretty costumes, dashy, tuneful music, and scenery make the production of the "Two Merry Tramps" so closely resemble an elaborate extravaganza that theatre-goers scarcely realize that they are witnessing a farce comedy, it being so different from the ordinary play of its class.

Resolutions.

The sophomore class at its meeting this afternoon adopt d the following resolutions:
Whereas in the wisdom of our Heavenly Father, Daniel L. Zwilling has been called from this life to the life beyond; and
Whereas, it is our desire as members of the Class or 1904 of the State University of Iowa to express our high appreciation of and esteem for our departed classmate;
Resolved That in Daniel L. Zwilling, we found a classmate and gentleman abounding in love, sympathy and helpfulness; and
Resolved, That in the departure of our dear classmate, we, as a class, have sustained a loss individually felt by each member; and that to his bereaved parents and friends we extend our love and sympathy in this their great sorrow—
