Hayner Says, Team is Unexperienced Green and Willing—At Present Illinois Should Beat Her.

If Coach Knipe wins any one of the Iowa's big games at Memorial Art gym held in the general lecture room at the school, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: B. A. Moffit, president; E. A. Nickson, vice-president; Miss Francis Gardner, Secretary; W. M. Ball, treasurer; C. Kingsby, first, and E. H. Carpenter, second, sergeant-at-arms. On motion, the president appointed Mrs. L. D. Dixon, Assistant Professor of English, to the committee to look after the matter of a class social and to report at the next meeting.

The election of president was a spirited contest, there being two tickets at issue: the H. C. R. ticket, aided by a few fraternity men supported F. L. Dixon, while the other ticket, consisting of the "butility" favored the winning candidate. Mr. C. P. Schenck was the independent and receiving seven votes on the first ballot, which resulted: Dixon 22, Mack 4, Keaster 2, Schenck 1. On the second ballot stood, Moffit 29, Dixon 27. The president of the sergeant-at-arms also aroused considerable enthusiasm, the winning combination being chosen by selecting the undersigned named gentlemen for those "important" positions.

Homeop. Juniors Elect

The Junior class of the College of Homopathy met recently and elected the following officers: President, B. C. Keaster; Vice-President, C. E. Beutle; Secretary, J. B. Keaster; Treasurer, E. H. D. Hotham. After a spirited debate on the plans for the work of this year the meeting adjourned.

Homeop. Sophis Elect

The sophomore meeting yesterday morning was held after a warm debate on the manner in which the officers should be elected, chose the following by ballot: President, C. E. Loesean; Vice-President, Fred Littleman; Secretary, R. A. Jacobson; Treasurer, J. J. Snuey. A committee was then appointed to await upon Mr. Bailey for an assignment. The next regular business meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held sometime this term. The ladies' classes and tells us that at least 600 boys and girls will attend this business meeting. Miss Mabel Morgan has also started the ladies' classes and tells us there are 50 girls interested in the work, the largest number of the class thus far.

Spring Protests

Rogers, a Minnesota Man, the Victim—Iowa's Action Depends Upon Decision of President Waldo.

The authorities have not taken action on the matter.

That is not for us to decide. The President of the Conference College games committee, A. E. Wilcox, president of the Iowa board of control, when asked what was regards Rogers, stated: "Iowa has no attitude regarding Reg. No. 1707."

IOWA CITY, IOWA

Application made in Iowa City post-office for entry as second-class mail matter.

The second team men, this year, made no mistake in choosing Clarence Macy captain of their team. Perhaps not a more deserving man is in our squad. He is a tireless worker, an unassuming player of ability, and a leader of the scrubs.

Of course no one east of the Missouri river has any more fear of Nebraska defeating Minnesota next Saturday than he has of Bryanism winning in Iowa next November, but the Nebraskan canners hunters would hardly touch ground if he knew how badly they have scared the gophers.

The incident that occurred at the baseball park in Des Moines Saturday night in the football game between Drake and Grinnell is one unprecedented in American colleges. It is certainly a black spot on Drake's history.

The very act of striking an official is a serious offense. In professional games a player is fined for disputing an umpire, and when he assails an official he is heavily fined and discharged. In amateur, college games a crime of this kind is so rare that no provisions are made for the punishment of the offender.

If Greaser is guilty of striking referee Lane he should have been placed in the hands of the law. It is being denied, by some, at Drake that Greaser did the act. But who else on the side lines would be interested more than a Drake student? However that is now a matter of secondary importance. The seriousness of the affair is that the Drake university boys and girls, in mob fashion, upheld the act of their offender, and cried for the blood of the innocent official. Very often an official on the gridiron is unsatisfactory. Even in case he is, it affords not the slightest excuse for the student body to endanger his life.

But this is not all. A man who wears the uniform of any college or university has no more individual honor to sustain. He represents the institution, and his deeds and character form, in a large measure, the criterion of hers. The athletic followers of the middle west will stamp the indefatigable imprint of cowardice and disgrace upon this act and with a vengeance, and if the matter is ignored at Drake university, no little dishonor will accrue to her consequence. The matter should be acted upon justly and promptly and severely. No effort should be spared to ascertain the identity of the guilty, and when so found he should be branded by the faculty and students as a bully and a coward of the most damnable kind and unfit to be associated with those who go out to represent that institution.

W. H. Bremner, of the firm of Bremner & Schnel, has been appointed by Auditor of State, Merrian, as receiver for the Home Savings and Trust Company of Des Moines. The appointment of the popular athlete and attorney is at a salary of $110 per month.

Football practice this week has been listless. Monday evening the teams did not line up for a scrimmage on account of the lineup condition of the pads, occasioned by the Saturday games. The candidates, especially the new men, are not in the best physical condition, and the game with the Normal crippled them up more than was apparent Saturday. Briggs has not been out to practice this week owing to the weakness of his back, which was hurt in the Normal game.

Burrier also received injuries in his leg, which is expected to be all right by Saturday, but has kept him out of practice. The scrum also showed effects of the Cockeye last night at practice, and the scrimmage was about as usual. In a long struggle in the mud and rain last night the varsity made three touchdowns. Welfare was wet and slippery and some good practice was had in freezing to it.

You look at life in the Arkansas Hills and in Greater New York when you see 'Human Hearts,' the melodramatic success of several seasons that will be presented at the Opera House to-night, Wednesday evening. No play ever held the mirror up to Nature more accurately than does 'Human Hearts,' and that is one of the secrets of its phenomenal run for the past five years. As a drama of real life it is classed with 'The Old Home- stead,' 'Shore Acres' and similar plays and it is justly entitled to this distinction. It is presented by a large and competent company and set with costly scenery.

A grand opportunity to select your fall and winter clothing while you see the goods in the piece. A representative of the Joseph Husak Merchant Tailoring Co., Chicago's leading custom tailor, will be in your city for a short time with a complete line of fall and winter woolens for men and women. Suits to measure, $14 upwards; overcoats to measure, $14 upwards. First-class fit and workmanship guaranteed. An expert cutter will take your measure, assuring you a first-class fit. Woolens in the piece will be on display at T. C. Kelley's, Iowa City, Iowa, 121 Iowa Avenue, over Brumback's ball, Thursday, Oct. 7.

Townsend's Elite Studio. "Artist Proof" is the name of the picture, which attracted marked attention at the national photographers' convention. They are very fast parallel in art photography. We buy an exclusive line of card mounts which speak for themselves and our work is metropolitan in character. You can pick a down well finished, up-to-date photograph for a little more than you pay for cheap, poor ones.

We invite you to call and see a set in modern photography. Studio, 223 South Clinton street.
