In a fair game on a muddy field at Des Moines, yesterday, the Univer-ity of Iowa defeated Drake University by a score of 6 to 0.

A pretty drop kick from the 25 yard line by Captain Bacon sent the ball on Iowa's 30-yard line in two dashes and 107 yards. Drake players were at it, but, nevertheless, Iowa's backs were at it, and Ball was still uncrossed and yard line. Drake University new students, are called a nd yall masters selected. Let us get together and practice cheering and be truly at the next game to let the team know that we are be-behind them.

Coach Kuipe's statement of the treatment he received from Drake University yesterday is very moderately couched. If Drake University ever stops to wonder why she is regarded as an outlaw by the colleges of Iowa, she has only to consider the petty, unfair spirit of prejudice and passion manifested by her athletics. A Drake player in uniform assaulted the referee of the Grinnell game, October 5, and the Drake University students to a man were jubilant.

They could scarce restrain their happiness on their way home af-fter the game and regarded the tuftan, who knocked Lone to the ground by a blow from behind in the light of a popular hero.

Iowa could scarcely believe that this spirit existed at Drake but the stories unblushingly told by her students to say nothing of outsiders, confirm it the conduct of the college yesterday, made it too potent for the bland-est to remain unconvinced of Drake's attitude in athletics. Dr.

Kuipe hits the nail squarely on the head when he says that Drake's spirit is the kind of thing that mobs umpires at professional baseball games. It was restrained yesterday from overt review unless the spirit of "mock-riving" in the college on the hill at Des Moines is removed by a thorough cleansing, a revival that shall make her be born again in her attitude in inter-collegiate matters, it will speedily break out again in even more disgraceful fashion.

UNIVERSITY GOLF:
Permanent. University Golf Club to be Organized Soon—Game Monday and Tuesday.

Next Monday and Tuesday there will be a match game of golf between the university, represented by a team of six and a picked team of six from the Iowa City 0-0 Club. The match promises to be very close and exciting as some of the best players in the city are on each side, and the city team is going to put forth every effort to keep their younger opoponents from carrying off the trophies.

The links are rapidly getting into good condition, especially the fair greens, and the putting greens, with the exception of one or two holes, are better than they have been at any time this season.
The record on the course has been lowered this summer to 33 for 9 holes and 79 for 18 holes and is held by Prof. H. E. Gordon, who will be one of the players representing the city team. Eighteen holes will be played (match play) and the side winning the greater number of holes wins the match.
The teams are very evenly matched and some very low scores can be expected. The following players will take part:

Varsity
Iowa City
Arthur Gordon
Preston Coast
K. E. Gymnich
H. E. Gordon
C. W. Eastman
J. G. Berryhill
O. H. Carpenter
G. E. Thode
Q. T. Fling
Edwin Carpenter
O. L. Cady
This match is only the forerunner of several which will follow in the near future and was gotten up simply to find out what material there is in the university for the permanent organization of a regular university golf club.
Several of the nearby cities have good clubs and have signified their willingness to play a good team from this city—and a little later—possibly some team matches can be arranged.

Iowa 6; Drake 5.

The game between the second teams of Drake and Iowa began on Iowa field at three o'clock this afternoon. The Iowa scrubs scored about the middle of the first half after working Drake's tackles and ends for good gains.oulhard was the best giver for Iowa and made the touchdown. Macy ticked good. In the second half, Coulthard made a 45 yard run around Smith for a touchdown. Macy kicked goal. Towards the end of the game, Coulthard, of Drake, made a safety after a long punt by Macy to Drake's 5 yard line. Final score, Iowa scrubs 14; Drake scrubs 0.

During a long punt, Blocker, captain of the Drake team, fell on his arm and broke it. No player was within three yards of him at the time.

The line-up:

Drake

Macy kicked goal. In the second half, Pointe, Smith, was hurt by the tackle, and after he tried to continue in the game, was taken to the sidelines. Williams, who passed out of the interference when he seemed about to tackle the runner, but Young and Clark caught Toppett before he was within 10 yards of the goal. Toppett was hurt by the tackle, and after he tried to continue in the game, was taken to the sidelines. Williams, substitute for him. A later in doing was tried on the left, but Welland ran too far back and kept too close to the interference to make a gain. On the next play Williams took the ball 10 yards to hold it. They moved in the goal, Good, for Welland could not make more than a yard in two tries in the right end, and on the next down the ball went to the Christians.
