POOR GEARAS.
Serious Injuries Will Keep Him Out of the Game this Season and Heartless Board Suspends Him.

At a meeting of the athletic board last Friday night Geo. Gearas, the man accused of assault upon Referee R. R. Williams, at the recent intramural football game, was suspended from the team. This move was made because of the evidence introduced which tended to implicate Gearas, and because Iowa, Grinnell and other schools in the state had been loud in their attacks upon Rutgers for investigating the matter and punishing the offender.

Serious injuries which he inflicted on his friends substantiated his claims, but there was much evidence on the other side.

Under the ruling of the board Gearas must prove himself in no man's court of the cases. It seems that this can be done by the suspension which will be in effect until the end of the season.

Under the ruling of the board Gearas is at present confined to his room. Two of the small bones in his foot are broken - as a result of injuries received in the Iowa game.

A GENEROUS GIFT.

Carneige, the noted Millionaire, will donate Twenty Millions for a Technical Institute in the state of Iowa.

During the past summer an advisory committee composed of Dean Johnson, Professor Robert Thompson, of Cornell, Prof. Victor C. Alderson of Armour Institute, and Professor Thomas Graeser, of the polytechnic institute, have been investigating the plans for an extensive technical college to be established at Pittsburg.

The college will be endowed by Andrew Carnegie, the great and magnificent Mr. Carnegie promised to furnish $1,000,000 at once for the purpose and more, later, as it was needed, provided the city of Pittsburg would furnish suitable grounds. In response to this, Pittsburg offered for the use of the institution a tract of acres. The committee, however, deemed this amount insufficient to meet the needs of such an institution as is planned.

The plans which this committee have formulated are on a broad and definite scale, and if carried out, will probably require about $20,000,000, a sum which will be furnished by Mr. Carneige.

The faculty of Iowa have voted to give their Interest to the institution which will run while on the contests. The credit is to be divided, which means a sum of more than $2,000,000.

Fifty men are candidates for the Freshman crew at Wisconsin.

RALLY WELL ATTENDED.

Vast Crowd of Iowans Assemble to Arouse Enthusiasm and Pledge Loyalty to Old Gold.

The Rally last night was the final appeal to the enthusiasm and football spirit that has been shown since our victories of last year. It was a greater send-off, from the standpoint of enthusiasm and goodwill, than our team has ever been given on a similar occasion.

At about 7:45 the happy crowd began to collect on the campus in front of the old Central Building and by 7:50 it had swelled to large proportions. Every one seemed to be out in force, from the dignitaries to the dancing team, to the newest freshman. The Co-Eds were also loyally represented.

Football chorus and university songs were indulged in freely and from the tempo of the crowd it could be seen that the Hawkeyes are behind their Nemesis.

Wilcox, of the board of control, presented the speakers. Prof. W. H. C. Day, T. Chapman, and Mayor all spoke encouragingly of the prospects of our team being successful.

Wade ruled that in the case of Iowa vs Minnesota that Iowa had the ball, which ruling, on appeal, was affirmed in behalf of the home team by Judge McElroy.

This ruling provoked an enthusiastic lunch applause and cheering from the crowd gathered around the goal posts. The crowd then escorted the team to the Burlington depot and with cheers and yells, waved their hands as the train pulled out that won or lost; all Iowa is still behind her wearers of old gold.

Ladies Will Picnic.

The young women of the freshman class of the University held an informal picnic yesterday afternoon at which they decided to have a picnic meeting Saturday at 3 p.m., if the weather continues to be fine. It is hoped that all freshmen and veterans will meet in the drawing room of the R. C. O. C., each bringing her own lunch. They will then go across the river to Mrs. W. W. Armstrong's lawn, the use of which has been very kindly offered for the purpose.

Rogers Case Decided.

Prof. J. H. S. McCloskey, of the intercollegiate conference of faculty representatives, handed in to Minnesota's athletic authorities, a ruling on the point of order of the Minnesota-Carlsfield last year four foot ball team, is eligible to play on the Minnesota eleven. The conference decides that Rogers, under the one year rule, is not debared from playing; as much as thisrello is a secondary institution.

Scotl. J. ex-co, from Eagle Grove, is visiting fraternity friends at the Tau Delta house.

There will be a crack track meets at Harvard will be held the last week in October.

Gophers as Rooters.

Megaphones, Bands, and Yells Maintain Continuous Upbeat While Visitors Have Ball.

One who was present at the Minnesota-Nebraska game, was heard to say concerning Minnesota's roofing capacity.

"Minnesota's roofing was very near perfection. In one end of the bleachers on the west side was a megaphone chorus of about 1,000 big horns. This band acted as the nucleus and leader of the noise and all the others thunders kept in tune and timed with it. The uproar was continuous whenever Nebraska had the ball, rising to a great roar whenever quarterback Drain was trying to give the signals, and continuing in a sullen groan at other times, when it burst into a triumphant yell during Minnesota's moments of victory.

Another variation was the singing of various popular songs in perfect union, the words being localized to fit the occasion. The most effective stunt of all those by any team which the Gopher rooters employed was the monotonous counting the kick-off. Walter Camp, the Minnesota tailback, was counting the kicks, and the score was 0-0.000. With one man on the campus in the noise and all the other.

GAME WITH GOPHERS.

Iowa Met Minnesota Men Here in 1895. Gophers Don't Fear Rumph.

The game against Iowa Saturday will be the second which has been played between the two universities. The only game which was ever played on the gridiron between the two institutions occurred in 1895, at Iowa City and resulted in a victory for Minnesota; the score being 24-0 Iowa is the only memory of the 'big nine' which has played Iowa and Minnesota and never won from her.

Saturday will also be the first time an S. U. I. football team ever visited Minneapolis. As if to make up for their past absences they are coming several thousand strong, including Manager McGregor's "hunch" prepared to make monkeys of the team which boasts that it has not been scored upon this year. As Drake scored a goal for Iowa, who could make this boast and so has decided to resurrect the annual above mentioned "hunch" that her goal line will not be crossed this year, "This is undoubtedly a fine thing to possess," but there are plenty of maroon and gold supporters who are willing to risk the information that the "hunch" will be in need of repairs Saturday evening. Minnesota Daily.

Phl Kapuna Pai will initiate Measom L. H., Haggard E. L. and C. J. Kelpe, Saturday evening.

The University of California football team will probably take an eastern trip this year.

YALE STARS VS. SCRUBS.

Veteran Players Proved Too Much for the Young Football Aspirants at Yale.

On Tuesday one of the principal events of the year at Yale was the football game between the university sub- academy and an 'offensive' team composed of the most famous stars among Yale's former players. Despite the fact that they were undisciplined and unconditioned, the veterans outplayed their younger opponents from start to finish and during the contest the stars' goal line was never in danger, while the old-timers succeeded in making two touchdowns, both of which were converted into good marks.

The score in the first half stood: Stars 14, second eleven 0. Neither side scored in the second half and the score remained unchanged. At the first line-up for the kick-off it could be seen that there was an array of stars. Every former Yale star that was in attendance returned for the festival, was in football togs, and all were lined up in their respective positions for the kick-off. Walter Camp, the dean of Yale football, was captain. In the dean's absence an armed guard, Corbin, F. Gordon Brown, Heffle- finger, Burr Chamberlain, former Yale stars, + .

Another variation was the singing of various popular songs in perfect union, the words being localized to fit the occasion. The most effective stunt of all those by any team which the Gopher rooters employed was the monotonous counting the kick-off. Walter Camp, the Minnesota tailback, was counting the kicks, and the score was 0-0.000. With one man on the campus in the noise and all the other.

GHASTLY FIND AT MICHIGAN.

The finding of a human leg and thigh in a dump on Peck street yesterday afternoon was the subject of a big sensation in police and newspaper circles. In the afternoon Marshal Warren made the ghastly find, which was taken to the police station. An anatomist expert from the medical department of the police identified it as a femur and one that had apparently been done good service in the anatomical laboratory. The police now have a clue, and the student who disposed of his body to his friends will be called on to pay full price for the article, in addition to the fine for illegal burial. —Michigan Daily News.

Sophomore Social.

At a meeting of the class of 1904, this afternoon, a reenactment of a sophomore social was arranged for the fry of the week. At 7 o'clock the Woodman Halls on the corner of Clinton and Washington were opened for a social, and the committee in charge promises a royal time.

A Communication. Where is the Handbook? This was the query of a recent issue of the Iowan. The handbook committee wish to say that it is on the road and coming. The committee would also suggest the advisability of those students who have changed their address since registering, correcting their cards at once, if this is done those lists as they come from the Office of Registrar will be complete and trustworthy. The date of publication of the handbook will be announced later.
