IOWA LOSES TO MINNESOTA

McCutchen’s “Hunch” Proves an Idle Dream.

Though Seriously Handicapped by Absence of Their Heady Captain, Iowa Team Plays an Admirable Game.

Final Score: Gophers 16 Hawkeyes 0.

Minneapolis, Minn., October 26, (Special to Daily Iowan.)—When referee Allen blew his whistle on Noruth field at 4:30 this afternoon some 15,000 people had passed the gates. A brisk and chilly north wind was blowing, Iowa had six yards to go on the west grand stand, while the remainder of that side and the whole of the eastern was one yelling mass of Minnesota admirers. A roar of applause went up when Roosevelt, sonorous tones the praises of the Gophers, and declared Iowa was poor. The referee tossed the coin and Captain Burrier was uncanny.

After first kick-off Minnesota kicked to Iowa and held for downs on Iowa’s 8 yard line. On second down Knowlton punted. Little Griffith and Rodgers sprinted in sonorous tones the praises of the Gophers, and declared Iowa was poor. The referee tossed the coin and Captain Burrier was uncanny.

The accompanying account of the game yesterday—Simpson 6, Cedar Falls 6—is a surprise at football circles in Iowa. Considering the form in which Simpson has been playing, she was generally in advance of the game accorded a victory, yet she only escaped a defeat by blocking a punt on Iowa’s 20 yard line in the second half.

The game was a fine example of gentlemanly football except when near the close of the first half, when in the yard line, University President McKinley’s head will be printed on the new issue of Independent of Minnesota did not formally protest Iowa faculty refused to let him on her players, Iowa took her punishment from Minnesota.

The story of her defeat reads: "Three touchdown" and all on runs that Captain Williams would have stopped had he been in the game. In the second half Iowa that could be expected with strong, aggressive plays directed against Minnesota’s tackles. By steady gains the ball moved toward the coveted goal after Knowlton missed field for downs and the second touchdown. Knowlton missed.

The memorial window given to Armour Institute by Mrs. P. D. Armour to commemorate her son, P. D. Armour, Jr., has been unveiled. The presentation on behalf of Mrs. Armour was made by George J. Brine of the Armour company. The response was given by Dr. Grinnall. The faculty was present and many of the students attending the school. The presentation to date to the freshmen class at Brown is 900. When the graduate students have all been registered the total number in the university will reach about 900, as against 572 last year. The women's college freshmen number 45 more than ever before, and the total registration of the two colleges is 172 against 151 last year.

The only colleges in the country that support daily papers are Harvard, Yale, Brown, Pennsylvania, Prince town, Cornell, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Stanford, California, Indiana and Minnesota.

January 13, 1916 — Miss Carrie Huggins was so tightly hugged by her lover that the service of a cat physician was necessary to release her overlapped ribs. Miss Huggins' lover had been out walking. On reaching home they spent considerable time talking on the shady porch. This was at 10 o'clock in the evening.

Before his departure for home the strong admirer grasped his sweetheart to his arms and with the help of a cat physician she was able to get up.

Miss Huggins was unable to sleep that night on account of excruciating pains in her side, and in the morning she consulted a physician, who found that her lower ribs had become interlocked...

Miss Huggins, after considerable hesitation and questioning, revealed the cause of her injury.

And now some one has been so unkind as to suggest that the "lover" was one of those University of Chicago men.
