THE DAILY IOWAN

IOWA CITY, IOWA

Entered at the postoffice at Iowa City, Iowa, as second class mail matter, Oct. 11, 1911.

The Minnesota daily claims that the football championship of the West lies between Minnesota and Wisconsin. It looks as though, in this somewhat premature conclusion, that they have forgotten to mix with his fellow students as well as students of Greek and Latin. Nearly every student in the university is known to them and they go out at the end of their course as trained leaders of men and are prepared for the practical affairs of life. Nothing else has been made more important than the practical end of a university course and the result is that they are a success. Every student should bear in mind that he is not only fitting himself for his work and that the world demands men who are practical. He should do his lessons well, but also should

much as possible. Take an interest in student activities of all kinds. Be a lively rooter at the football games and athletic contests. Become acquainted and be practical for nothing is more important in a university course.

The Carlisle System.
A novelty in college discipline has been introduced at the Carlisle Indian school. The students try themselves, for breaches of college regulations and all other offenses. For this purpose a court-martial is formed which follows the methods of similar bodies in the regular army. This innovation was introduced by Maj. Richard H. Pratt, the superintendent of the institute. It works admirably. It saves the school authorities from the trouble and the odium of trying offenses and puts the students on their good behavior. There are a thousand yw of Indian men and women at Carlisle speaking 30 different languages.

The presidents of several large colleges and universities are investigating the Indian school system, and it is probable that the plan will be adopted in Amherst College and other institutions.

E. S.

We wish to commend the manly stand taken by Iowa in accepting without protest the report of the advisory committee classing Williams, their star quarterback, as a professional. Such compliance is an indication that the status of student athletics in the West is considered to be of more importance than the winning of any game—Michigan Daily News.

We understand that their are several players on some of the Western teams that have not yet been protested—Michigan Daily News.
