PRACTICE BEGINS AGAIN.
KNIFE TO MAKE WINNERS.

Varsity Holds First Practice for Michigan Game Tomorrow—McCutchen Injured.

The varisty will have its first practice in preparation for the Michigan game tomorrow morning. It is believed that until the men have been told that they may rest, get ahead on their studies, and perform and other wonderful feats they may desire. Terrell and Griffith will be at quarter yard on the same team. Terrell will very probably be the quarterback against Michigan. He may be the halfback par excellence at the time he gets back together into the Iowa team. The Big Ten game and his return to active practice will strengthen the back field wonderfully.

Coach Knipe may readily be accorded infinite praise and tribute; he got the team together and in those latter days that will make a decent showing against Michigan. Watters and ibert are not the good players as there are on any team that ever played. The Michigan and California have been playing great ball of late and it will be hard to compare the team better against them. Terrell or Griffith will take charge of quarter back so fast as possible. Coach Knipe will look halfback at halfback. The time before the Michigan game is so short that it will be hard to tell what Coach Knipe can do. The team from Coach Knipe to develop the three backs to compare with the rest of the team and to work all together into a team. Michigan will be able to show the enactment of the most string ant prohibitory action the state has ever seen. The Michigan team is its own leader. The team has been informed of a room where it can be made. The room was made before the Michigan game, and in the strength of the room the team has been informed of the most string ant prohibitory action the state has ever seen.

The comments of the sporting editor of the Chicago Chronicle are also given at the same valuation.

This statement, coming from our opponents, gives a little different aspect to the coming struggle. Manager McCutchen has seen the Michigan team play and he also known exactly what is going on at Iowa City. Consequently, he is in position to know what he is talking about.

Through an error of Coach Knipe in reporting the names of the men to whom football "I's" and sweaters had been awarded, a faculty list was omitted from the list.

Princeton ended her football season with the Yale game.

Pitchfork Ben Will Lecture on the Race Question—A Southern Subject by a Southern Man.

"Pitchfork Ben," the most prominent character that has produced since the war. Strong and forceful, his career as a legislator and his senior senator is most remarkable. Left penniless by the war, his home, school, and college on the verge of bankruptcy, he formed part of that remarkable group of characters of the state organization to which he belonged, he has been in the government and to the United States senate. In Congress he formed part of that remarkable group of characters of which Senator Pfeffier and Jerry Simpson were leading members. That play Grinnell is second team on Iowa field Saturday. Turn out and give the “hard­rub” boys good support.

Saturday's game, as well as those of several years back, was a noted improvement over the times when the almost certain ac­companiment of a close game with Grinnell was a fight.

Tale bearing is a detestable thing. Just now when there are so many and various rumors strolling about, one should be careful what idle tales he repeats. You may do some one an irrepar­able injury.

With Schreiber, of Wisconsin, Mueller, of Minnesota, and Wil­liams all barred from the game and that without a formal protest in any case, even Caspar Whitney and Walter Camp should smile with approval on the amateur­standing of the West.

The lecture Thursday night promises to be one of the best on the course. Ben Tillman is inter­esting at any time but doubly so on the race question. One born in the south and who fathered disfranchising legislation should be able to tell us the other side of the story and give us a point of view that is novel to most north­erners.

There seems to be a general disposition to lose interest in the football team. The same thing occurred this time last year; but from a different cause. Then we were over­confident, thinking we had the Thanksgiving day game won. This year we lack confidence. But the game is nev­er over till it is played and ten days may produce some results if spent in hard work. There is one encouraging thing; we know our strength and weaknesses pretty well and are thus in a position to remedy them. Anyone who has a little time in the afternoon cannot do better than to go to prac­tion, he may see something that will interest him and at any rate show his interests in the team.

President MacLean Honored.

Wednesday and Thursday of last week President MacLean attended the meeting of the American Association of State Universities which was held at the Elliott house in Washington, D. C. There were representatives of 40 universities present at the meeting, being the largest the association has had. President MacLean, together with Chancellor Benton, of the University of Mississippi and President Swayne, of Indiana, carried the greetings of the convention to President Roosevelt. The latter expressed great interest in the work of state universities. When he met President MacLean and being informed he was from Iowa, he said, "Oh, Iowa is a trump state." Dr. MacLean was also elected a member of the executive committee of the association.
