YALE over mlctee.,.

In the second number of the lecture course, last night, Senator Tillman held a large audience at intense interest for over two hours. He gave anything but a dignified and polished lecture. No attempt was made to be persuasive and in fact he was antagonistic, waving the bloody shirt and warring with his audience from first to last. He said it was a free place, and that no logic in several instances and falling to be born out by history in others, yet the bloody shirt and warring with his point of view.

The New Rule.

The I. S. C. Student favors the amendment to the football rules as was proposed by the Iowan in regard to allowing the coach to give instructions during games. In our opinion First Base, like Williams at the Iowa-Minnesota game, made frequent trips on to the field during the pauses in the game Saturday. Captain Becon Drake, and captain, also coached from the side lines, after he had been ruled off the field for kicking Sturzinger.

Sophomore Meeting.

At the meeting of the Sophomore collegiates in the liberal arts hall at 3:30 this afternoon, Messrs. Heilberg, Kuns, Dixon, Dyc, Kingsbury, Jones and Moffatt were appointed as members of theiliofll committee. The committee will set to work at once and if an election may be held the latter part of this term. Nothing else beyond routine business was acted upon.

The University of Pennsylvania has adopted the "weeding out" process among debaters in inter-class and inter-department preliminary contests which has been in effect at Michigan.

Professor Arthur Fairbanks contributes a very creditable article on "Recent Discoveries in Geology" to the Current Encyclopedia.

IOWA GROWS CONFIDENT.

WILL YET BEAT MICHIGAN

Practice Showing Great Improvement. HealthCare Shows Great Speed—All Around Improvement on Iowa Field

As the week wears old and Thanksgiving Day approaches, confidence continues to mount the Hawkeyes. No longer is the man who says Michigan will defeat Iowa numerous on the campus. In his place many are telling their belief that Iowa will reverse her form and win against Michigan just as last year. This story has been popular with the football men for some time, and Coach Knipe, like a blushing maiden, will say that the self-impeachment that the Hawkeyes are showing wonderful form.

The halfbacks are particularly as showing great speed. There is a large list of candidates to select from, and five players will be finally selected. Jones, Buckley, and Macy are expected for full back. It will be the endeavor to develop some reliable kicker for the game so as not to compro­mise with Sweeney.

The definition of the team is showing up particularly as we approach this week. Last night the best team of "scrubs," as they are chosen, could be picked from the 30 candidates. It will be the idea to try a "scrub" and a "regular" on the same team to see what the difference is. The idea is to practice and bomb-proof in every way.

The game between the Iowa and Grinnell small college football, is set for Thanksgiving day in Chicago to determine the western championship. Will Iowa agree to play Chicago or will they send a halfback and a delegate to arrange matters.

Manager McCutchen telegraphed back: "Michigan and Iowa will play at the National League grounds at Chicago on Thanksgiving morning at eleven o'clock as scheduled. Iowa is not out of the race yet.

Just as soon as electric lights are placed in the collegiate building the game will be played in the evening until nine o'clock.

The executive board is in session today.
Now do anything of importance seem to have about the bad qualities and this class. They may be nary themselves, but criticize everybody by the idea that somebody is getting the best of them. They waste their time talking about the imaginary fortune that advances someone else. Just somebody get a little ahead of them and out they will get their little hammers and go to knocking. Are these students favorites? Do they have hosts of friends? No. They are soon taken for what they are worth and are disliked by everyone. Each one should see that he does not belong to this knocking class. If your fellow has faults, don’t air your views about them to everyone to their detriment as well as your own. See the good things in others. If you must criticize do it justly and without malice.

Amusements

Mr. Thos. M. Hunter, who plays Nero in the production of "Quo Vadis," copied the celebrated bust of the tyrant in the Vatican galleries, for his make-up. He had a wig made for the part after an engraving of the bust. This portrait of Nero differs somewhat from the generally accepted likeness of Aelius Hadrianus, as Petronius delighted to style the tyrant. It is predicted by persons who have seen the performance that actors in the future will adopt the same plan in preparing themselves for the correct portrayal of historical characters. At the opera house Tuesday, Nov. 26th.

Perhaps the most important operatic announcement for this city in the near future is that of the new Pixley-Luders comedy opera, "King Dodo." This is a purely American product, and has enjoyed a season of uninterrupted prosperity in Chicago throughout the past summer. There are no less than eighty people in the big company, an orchestra is carried, the complete scenic equipment and all the features which attracted such favorable comment during the record-breaking run in Chicago. The Castle Square Opera Company, a concern which has undoubtedly provided the most elaborate and important operatic offerings in the country for the past five or six years, is reopening for "King Dodo." This fact should assure a perfection of detail not frequently obtained. At the Opera House next Wednesday night, Nov. 27.
