COACH KNIFE ON TRAINERS

SAYS THEY ARE BIG NUISANCE

Trainers Coddle the Men too Much-

Iowa Team's been in Good Condition This Year Save for Unavoidable Injuries.

is Iowa to have a trainer for the football team next year?

The Daily Iowan in its editorial column has pronounced on one of its editorial page papers have advised the Hawkeyes to take this step; and the college papers of Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, and of Grinnell have a custom of attributing their victories largely to the work of the trainers and their efforts to the difficulties of their coaches or players.

Coach A. A. Knipe's opinion of a trainer is, "They are on the lines who are interested enough in speculation to be guessing what Iowa will have a trainer or not next year. Dr. Knipe says:

"I do not see why we want a trainer. Football players' brains are a big nuisance myself. A trainer is all the time coddling the men and football men shouldn't be coddled. I wouldn't have a trainer around one of my men for anything. The trainer in this instance was in good condition except for accidents to players which the trainer could not prevent. I do not believe that a trainer could save a man getting his leg broken, or a great many other things which are apt to happen to a football player."

Review of College Teams.

On Saturday the Daily Iowan will present an review of the college teams of the state. The Iowan's writer, who has seen the entire remainder of their best form during the season, will rank the eleven's in order as the gift of the players, their playing feats. An account of the players, their playing feats. An account of the players, is included in the review.

Iowa University's football team next Fall will present a review of the college teams of the state. Iowa's football will hold a meeting at that time as the gift of the players, their playing feats. An account of the players, their playing feats. An account of the players, is included in the review.

Iowa has sent a goodly number of players, their playing feats. An account of the players, their playing feats. An account of the players, is included in the review.

The paper at Baconian club Friday evening will be read by Dr. E. A. Eldredge. The presentation of the pictures, "Sistine Madonna" is to be made at that time as the gift of the翳 College to the women's drawing room.

Hahnenmannian society will give a literary program at the hahnenmannian society at 8 o'clock, Dec. 6. The program will be: Vocal duet, Clappe and Crew. Eulogy, H. B. Roush. Oration, T. L. Clapper. Debate, Rovemel, that the townswoman centralization strum shall be adopted.

ANENT A COLLEGE SONG.

Michigan Thinks "Scarlet and Cream" of Nebraska Suspiciously Similar to the University of Michigan's Song.

"It is rarely that a university feels itself so utterly lacking in athletic talent as to be compelled to adopt its principal song from another institution. Yet this seems to be the situation that confronts Nebraska. The words of the "Scarlet and Cream" which, as the Nebraska Daily says for a number of years has been the semi-official song and the female arts of the students, are adopted almost word by word from the yellow pages of the Macmillan students. The latter song was written by Charles Mills Gayley, now Emerson Professor in its "University of California, during the two years that he was a student here. A comparison of the last stanza of the two songs will illustrate their similarity. * * * *

"It is surprising that such a steal should have been attempted. In all the other universities there is a profound impression of an institution that cannot show originality, which is the second of a series, now just beginning the study of this interesting rivalry.

Upper Iowa has sent a goodly number of players, their playing feats. An account of the players, their playing feats. An account of the players, is included in the review.

The December number of the Century magazine contains an article entitled, "Against the Water Taxi," which is the second of a series on," The Settlement of the West: A Study in Transportation" the Nebraska chapter. The paper at Baconian club Friday evening will be read by Dr. E. A. Eldredge. The presentation of the pictures, "Sistine Madonna" is to be made at that time as the gift of the 疣 College to the women's drawing room.

KING TO SEE KRAENZLEIN

A C. Kraenzlein, the Famous Pennsyl- vaanian, is Asked to Compete at Time of King Edward's Coronation.

The management of the ath­ letic contests which are to take place in London at the time of King Edward's coronation next year, has sent an invitation to Alvin C. Kraenzlein, the famous athlete of the University of Pennsyl­ vania, to take part in the event. Very liberal and tempt­ ing considerations have been of­ ered to Mr. Kraenzlein by the Englishmen to induce him to turn professional, but he has de­ clined them. It is possible that he may compete as an amateur, in which case he would undoubtedly come back with many addi­ tional marks heaped upon him.

Mr. Kraenzlein is a native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and graduated from the university of Pennsylvania in the spring of 1899, taking a post-graduate winter last year. He is perhaps the best athlete in America, and holds the world's records for high and low hurdles and running broad jump.

There are at present more than fifty gold medals deposited in the trophy room of the Houston Club of the University of Pennsylvania which were won by this famous athlete in amateur inter­ national track, and it is probable that he will fill the an­ cient paper. The famous Greek philosopher, 1901.

Athletic Union Election.

There will be a meeting of the Athletic Union Monday evening for the election of officers. All nominations must be made to the presi­ dent of the Union, signed by seven members before Friday, December 6th.

THE DAILY IOWAN
IOWA CITY, IOWA

Entered at the post-office at Iowa City, Iowa, as second class mail matter, Oct. 11, 1901.

Now is the time when the college editor is trying to elevate his college football team into the championship class by the "dope" or comparative score route. The old maxim concerning the veracity of figures seems to lose some of its force when applied to football scores, and rising by this method is worse than by pulling on one's own boot straps.

The exceeding tardiness of the hand book in appearance this year has called forth no little criticism, and as a result we are advised that the book will probably be issued by private parties next year, and on time, too. No reason occurs to us why this should not be done. The advertising in the book more than pays the entire cost of publishing and some wide-awake student who knows a thing or two about printing and book making could make a comfortable salary for himself and do the university a great favor by publishing the book at the beginning of the term. Then is the time when everybody wants a copy and there is no valid reason why it should not be in the hands of the students by the end of the third week of the term at the very latest. The advertising and general information could be in type at the end of the first week and the directory being obtained from the registrar at the end of the second could be set up and the book printed and bound by the end of the third. The table of the present hand book is turned over to a committee who generally know almost nothing about printing and less about the composition of a book and have no great incentive to publish it at an early date. It is true that a book issued this early in the term would be open to the objection that a few addresses would be omitted but that objection is less seriously applicable to this year's book and it almost a Christmas gift.
