AMES WON'T COME HERE.

COACH E. N. CLINTON SAYS SO.

Football Date the Third Saturday in October Will Probably Be Given to Simpson College. At Ames May 10th.

"Ames will not play Iowa at Iowa City next fall," said Coach E. N. Clinton of the agricultural college team who was in Iowa City last night to arrange box and track dates with the Iowa management. "The game we play with Iowa will be at Ames if at all. The date we had this year, Oct. 8th, will be satisfactory to us. Ames will probably play about the same schedule as this year with the exception of the Wisconsin game. We may get a game with Minnesota, I have not seen the Iowa to Mr. McCutchen."

McCutchen a Beneficent Agent.

General Manager Is Married at Carle- bad, N. Mex., to Miss Lou L. Austin.

Fred C. McCutchen was married last evening to Miss Lou L. Austin, of Carlsbad, New Mexico, to Miss Lou L. Austin, of Linville, Ia. Mr. and Mrs. McCutchen will spend their honeymoon in the Sunny Southwest, returning to Iowa City the middle of January.

Mr. McCutchen is widely and popularly known among the students and alumni of Iowa as the general manager of athletics for the university. He has just closed successfully his second year as a salaried manager of the varsity teams. The entire body will concur with the Daily Iowan in extending congratulations to Mr. McCutchen.

The bride is a handsome and dainty daughter of Linville, Ia. She is a graduate of the Des Moines conservatory of music and as a music student she has won the respect and admiration of all who have had the privilege of her musicianship talents. She is a beauty. The wedding was the wedding of a man and woman both of whom have done as much as possible to lighten the load of every Iowa student.

Last month Manager McCutchen made a trip to the westward with his associate, destined for the state of Colorado. On his return from this trip he talked with Mr. McCutchen to the weapons he had visited and called his friends to witness that two weeks in the presence of a man who had greatly benefitted his efforts at Des Moines that the riches of the state of Colorado would be his. McCutchen, said Manager McCutchen, and he avowed that he had visited and called his friends to witness that two weeks in the presence of a man who had greatly benefitted his efforts at Des Moines that the riches of Colorado would be his. McCutchen, said Manager McCutchen, and he avowed that he had been able to practice his magic with the resources of Colorado and that his mine will be a mine of gold for the state of Colorado. McCutchen, said Manager McCutchen, and he avowed that he had been able to practice his magic with the resources of Colorado and that his mine will be a mine of gold for the state of Colorado.

It now appears that it was during this trip that the General Manager induced Mrs. McCutchen to fix the date of today's happy wedding. Mrs. McCutchen's visit to New Mexico rather than Colorado, and that his mine will be a mine of gold for the state of Colorado. McCutchen, said Manager McCutchen, and he avowed that he had been able to practice his magic with the resources of Colorado and that his mine will be a mine of gold for the state of Colorado.

Steam Pipe Bursts.

Some time last evening, the steam pipe carrying the steam to the university buildings burst and as a consequence the heat in the new building was not up to standard this forenoon. The break occurred at the connecting elbow, T, near the point of juncture from which the distribution to the several buildings occurs. A flaw in the casting was the immediate cause of the break. A temporary and tentative covering has been cemented on, clamps put on to hold the pipe temporarily, and the article of incorporation issued today at Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Ames, Delegates Meet.

INTERESTING MEETING HELD.

The Health, Scholarship, morality and Spirituality of Student Body, and Legislative Needs of the State. Daily Iowan Commended.

At the residence of President George E. MacLean the board of teams and the student delegates from the several university classes, fraternities and club organizations met last night for the first session of the year. After enjoying dainty refreshments the members assembled and the meeting was called to order by President MacLean. In the absence of secretary R. G. Tobin, C. V. Cox was made secretary and Dean L. O. Fiedler chairman of the meeting. A roll call showed an attendance of seventy, representing in all the deleges of the several colleges and delegates from fifty-nine university organizations, about sixty representatives.

Dr. MacLean announced the purpose of the meeting as being to get the delegates together to form an official organization for the discussion of those questions that will be of vital interest to the university in the course of the year. It is probable that the delegates will form an organization for the discussion of those questions that will be of vital interest to the university in the course of the year.

Attention was called to the admirable hospital service of the university. The men of the university are prepared to receive any student who may require medical aid. The men are well equipped with special privileges granted students. President MacLean deplorably expressed the fact that though the university in the course of the year will see to lose sight of the fact that their class records are in question of primary consideration, and as a result tender themselves an invitation to grudge the tremendous life of the student.

Reference was made to the fact that though the university in the course of the year will see to lose sight of the fact that their class records are in question of primary consideration, and as a result tender themselves an invitation to grudge the tremendous life of the student. Reference was made to the fact that though the university in the course of the year will see to lose sight of the fact that their class records are in question of primary consideration, and as a result tender themselves an invitation to grudge the tremendous life of the student.

The advisability of the students seeing to it that their representative legislators learn of the pressing needs of the university in connection with their modest requests was unanimously recommended and methods of accomplishing this end were proposed and discussed. In conclusion, this connection that President MacLean took advantage of the opportunity to bestow unsought praise upon The Daily Iowan, its conduct and general appearance during the present term. He referred to the lack of a suitable place where the assembled group of students could assemble for the discussion of those general propositions in which all are interested. Mr. MacLean stated that The Daily Iowan went far toward eliminating this difficulty, and that the Iowan could not be still less real through the general dissemination of the university news, news andLetters the spirit be earnestly recommended that each and every student en- roll himself as a subscriber to The Daily Iowan. The meeting adjourned on mo- tion to assemble again on call of the president.

Barbecue at Michigan.

The students at the university of Michigan are preparing for a great barbecue which is to serve the dual purpose of a love feast and a send-off for their champions. Football Date the Third Saturday in November.

W. J. Clarke Tonight.

The lecture by W. J. Clarke, this evening, will be of interest and educational value. Mr. Clarke is well recommended and it is said that the astounding results in many of his exhibitions have been given to none of those produced by the greatest magicians.

The college of dentistry will enjoy an informal dancing party in the armory tomorrow evening. The committee in charge is composed of Messrs. E. R. Sherry, W. J. Jeffries, A. Lee, P. Salisbury and E. V. Burt.

Persons having work for students during vacation will greatly oblige themselves to forward the chairman of employment bureau, or by leaving addresses on the close hall.

Messrs. W. T. Waterman and Clifford Bradley, of the junior law class, were initiated into the mys-
Notice.

To students in all colleges: Students may register at any time now for the second term's work and are advised to do so, as far as possible, to avoid confusion at the beginning of the winter term.

To register for the second term students registered for the fall term and students re-entering, who were registered for work last year, will call at the office of the registrar for tuition cards, pay tuition to the treasurer and return to the office of the Registrar.

New students will call at the office of the examiner who will give necessary information and instructions.

On and after Thursday, January 16, students not regularly registered will not be allowed to be in attendance upon classes.

To students in the College of Liberal Arts:

Students in the college of liberal arts who do not pay their tuition and register regularly for the next term's work before leaving for the holidays, are requested to call at the office of the registrar between December 12 and 19 to arrange in advance their program of studies. In cases where no change in program is contemplated, students are expected to call and give notice to that effect.

The large number of letters now daily received from alumni at all points of the compass, containing praise for the manner in which the paper has been conducted during the present term is highly gratifying to those in charge of The Daily Iowan and we trust that we may be able to deserve the same commendation at the end of the year.

The necessity of resorting to a representative body like that which assembled last evening in order to discuss those questions in which the students have a common interest recalls again the urgent and immediate need the university has for an assembly hall where the entire body of students, instructors and faculties can meet, not only once a term but whenever occasion requires.

The university suffers in more than one way on account of this need and the past term has presented several occasions upon which it was made pre-eminent.

There are many things that the present organization can accomplish and theory in vogue is a good one, but the "university spirit" has all been clamoring for during past years will never reach its proper development until the university family can meet and meet often under its own roof for the discussion of its own problems.
