BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

TWO TRIPS

Team Leaves Tomorrow to Play in Dubuque and Rock Island—Next Game Here February 8

The basketball team by careful and constant training has worked into a condition in which finals in three days will be ready to start out on the remainder of its schedule, the first two games of which were played last term. In the game with Grinnell the team was able to win only by star individual work, but in the game with Upper Iowa University just before the close of last term, the team played well at every point of the game, rather than allowing their opponents but one. The following schedule has been arranged by Manager Rule and approved by the faculty committee of the board of control.

Upper Iowa University at Fayette, Jan. 13.

Des Moines College, at M. C. A. at Davenport, Jan. 16.

Augustana College, at Rock Island, Jan. 17.

Western College, at Toledo, Jan. 29.

Western College, at Iowa City, Feb. 8.

Augustana College, at Iowa City, Feb. 15.

Iowa College, at Grinnell, March 1.

Des Moines College, at Des Moines, date unfixed.

University of Minnesota, at Minneapolis, date unfixed.

State Agricultural College of Minnesota, at Minneapolis, date unfixed.

The University of Kansas has been offered a game and will probably accept.

This schedule, including the games already won by Grinnell and the home of the heaviest basketball schedule ever offered for any Iowa college and includes every college team in Iowa having any claims of strength, besides four games outside of the state.

The University of Minnesota has for several years maintained one of the best teams in the country and this year has announced itself as a candidate for the world's honor in the game for which it is a favorite, and having already defeated Yale.

Kansas University also has a strong team and every effort will be made to give the Iowa students a chance to view one of the "big" games of a sport which is this year attracting such widespread attention.

Our basketball is very strong, but in basketball as in no other game a team is at great disadvantage when it is an opponent's substitute and if they come back from their trips they should be accompanied by someone against them they will deserve our best praise.

Next Thursday the team will play in Fayette, Thursday in Dubuque and Friday in Rock Island. The players will be: Schuchard (captain), guard, Brock; Johnson, guard; Parsons, center; DuBois, center; Farrel, forward; Ross, forward.

Rule will accompany the team as manager and will be an official at the games.

KATHERINE EVENTS

MAGNIFICENT IMPERSONATION

Reading from the Novel 'To Have and To Hold' Very Well Done—Audience Interested and Pleased

Yesterday three hundred people assembled in the general lecturing room of the hall of liberal arts to hear Katherine Jewell Everts give her rendition of Joselyn Leigh. For an hour and thirty minutes the audience sat motionless, entirely absorbed in the characters the artist was portraying, and the entire time that was spent was so intense it was almost painful and a gemline of emotion involuntarily caught unconsciously from many as a critical point in the life of the woman portrayed. The absorbed attention and hearty spontaneous applause furnished the trust criterion and highest praise of Miss Everts's skill as an able and dramatic impersonator. Her rapid transitions from one character to another were particularly fine, as she at times representing five or more characters in one scene. This most difficult dramatic reading she showed herself able to handle with wonderful skill.

After an introduction by Prof. Gordon, Miss Everts gave a short review of the book "To Have and to Hold" as to lead the audience up to the first scene. Then the book was read aloud and thrown in to the connection, the audience were carried rapidly over the career of the beautiful scion.

The dramatic adaptation contains:

1. At the courting meadows
2. Visit to John Rolph
3. Arrival of My Lord Cardin
4. Intermission
5. The Search in the Forest
6. Flight from Jameson
7. The Cabin of the Royal George.

Homeop Notes.

Beadle ex-'95 has gone to Chicago.

Seniors had operatic surgery Friday.

Habnemeyer society gave an excellent program at their last meeting.

Saturday evening, following their regular open program, the Octave Harmonists informed their audience that with the exception of the song they were to consider themselves guests for the remainder of the evening; forthwith a pleasant hour was spent in social conversation and prayers for some well rendered music. A dainty luncheon was also served.

Baconian

The Game of Nin or Fan Tan is it variously called was the subject of a paper read before the Baconian Friday night by Dr. J. V. Westfall. The game of Fan Tan which was considered not the Chinese game as its name and for the purpose of distinguishing the two, the name "Nin" has been suggested for the former.

There are few rules as to the play of the game. It is played by two persons by means of three piles of counters, the object being to force your opponent to remove the last counter from the table. It is simple to understand but hard to play correctly. It is a game in which chance enters but little, where the initiated his almost sure to win and the beginner to lose, the proverb about beginner's luck falling here. With both players playing with perfect manner the result of the game will depend on who makes the first play. The real difficulties of the game appear so little to the superficial observer; that it is used to be used at county fairs as a method of fleecing the unwary.

The complete rule was published in the Westfall's paper. The major part of the paper was read by Dr. Westfall. The exposition of two new theorems in regard to the law of choice is given, and the game which have been have been covered and worked out by Dr. Westfall.

Josephine Ritter-Powell

Miss Josephine Ritter-Powell has been secured to present J. M. Barrie's "The Little Minister" on Saturday evening Jan. 29th at 8 o'clock. The readings have been dramatically adapted in four parts.

PART 1
a. Mr. Carraige gives advice to the new minister.

b. The strange woman appears.

c. She becomes friendly to the Little Minister.

PART 2
a. She proves a benefactress.

b. She wins the Little Minister.

PART 3
a. She rises to the way.

b. The Minister prevents.

c. They fly to the Gypsy encampment.

PART 4
a. Their flight is reported.

b. The several weeks and finds Lord Kintoul.

c. The congregation forgives the Little Minister and harmony is restored.

This program is presented by special arrangement and is not included in the series covered by season tickets already sold. Admission twenty cents, college of liberal arts hall.

F. W. Crockett, '23, left for his home in Kildeer, Ill., yesterday on urgent business. He will return in two weeks.

DEDICATE ARTS HALL

AN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY ARRANGED

Will Probably Occur on January 23

Prominent Men Invited to Attend—Gov. Cameron in Charge

While the matter is not yet decided upon, it is probable that the dedication of the new Hall of liberal arts will take place a week from Thursday, or Jan. 23. What is causing the indefinite among the powers that be in regard to the matter is the delay of a telegram from Mr. Carroll D. Wright, whom it is desired to have present on that occasion.

It has been planned that the dedication take place on Washington's birthday, but it has been developed that it would be more convenient to all concerned, especially to the authorities here, so the change has been advised as a matter of course. The legislatures will be down in force. Perhaps this is why the Bill will be brought out and the civil matters, for some recalcitrant member will probably prefer to see the building as the day will pass, and view their own homes to viewing that of Iowa University. However, it has been arranged that the legislature will have a recess on that day for the declared purpose of allowing their members to come to Iowa City and attend the exercises as well as see the magnificent new flat.

The ceremonies will be the head of the Board of Regents, Governor A. B. Cameron in charge. It has been invited to be present and has signified his intention of coming. As the day will pass, the Governor will be in attendance at the next meeting to make preparation and if possible get into shape to sing at the dedication exercises next week.

Wisconsin Debaters Chosen

Seathamians and Irvings both held meetings yesterday, the former in the evening and the latter in the afternoon for the purpose of choosing their representatives on the Wisconsin debate. The debate will be held at Milwaukee under the latter R. H. Spangler and C. T. Kemmerer, Mr. Spangler will be leader of the team.

The home of C. E. Print, L. 24, was gladened yesterday morning by the presence of the young lady, eight pound girl. The freshman. laws are smoking on Wednesday night.

The senior collegiate class will give a social next Wednesday night.

How About Your Feet

Hope they are not worrying you. No man can develop the better part of his nature while his feet ache. Aside from making himself disagreeable to others he loses considerable of life's sunshine. It gets right by him—he is busy thinking about those feet. Its good business to buy shoes intelligently. The Walk-Over Shoe is the smartest shoe for men on the market. They wear longest and look best and they feel broken in from the start. They cost $1.95 and $1.90 and are for sale here—can't get them anywhere else in town—come and see them.

Amusements

One of the many amusing feats that the Pints perform in their hypnotic entertainment, in which they appear next week, is the suggestion to a subject that he is "Dr. Bull, the great Corn Doctor," and that his one mission in life is to sell corn salve. The fun is further heightened by suggesting to another subject that he has at some former time been treated by the doctor and ruined, so far as walking is concerned. The manner in which the Doctor puts his wares and in which the subject demands redress is very comical and never fails to disgust the house. The entertainments of the Pints are pure but uproariously funny, far exceeding in the capacity to provoke laughter the efforts of the ordinary comic performance. Dr. Flint has an able assistant in Grace Marion Flint, the only lady hypnotist.
