THE DELIBERATION

SETTLED FOR JANUARY 3

Plans Being Made to Make it one of the Greatest Days that the University has Ever Seen

The arrangements for deliberations are coming along rapidly and from plans already completed the day is expected to be the greatest one ever seen at the university. The grand celebration has been finally settled for Jan. 3. Gov. Commins this morning, as president of the board of regents, convened to preside at the ceremonies and it is highly probable that Senator Dolliver will be present.

A number of the legislators will be called upon for addresses. Some one representing the faculty and students and someone representing the citizens of Iowa City will also be asked to speak.

The day will be a gala one for the university. All the stores and business houses will be stowing with colors and bunting. Every effort is being put forth by the university and citizens of Iowa City to make this day memorable.

The University Senate committee on deliberation, consisting of Professors Hinsdale, Wright, W. C. Wilcox, Wilson and Seabrook, met this noon and appointed committees for final arrangements which are now in progress.

The committees are:

Program and publicity, Prof. Wright.
Banquet, Prof. Smith.
Citizens, A. Newhall.
University, Prof. Loss.
Marshall of day Capt. Burnett.
Press and advertising, Prof. Pres. and Mrs. MacLean at their home.

Michigan and Minnesota Win

The Central debating league, composed of Northwestern, Minnenesota, Chicago and Michigan held their preliminary contests Friday night. Chicago met Minnesota at Minneapolis in a discussion on the negative-framing question and was defeated by a decision of two to one. The Michigan-Northwestern debate was held at Ann Arbor and a majority of the judges voted for Michigan. They discussed the "comparative arbitration question." The results of these debates will leave Michigan and Minnesota to fight it out for 2nd honors in the League.

It is rumored that Neal Snow, Michigan's famous end, will leave the Buckeye team next fall.

W. H. Delisle, '93, who was manager of the Michigan team, has entered the C. C. C. of Des Moines, this term.

THE UNIVERSITY

APPROPRIATIONS NEEDED

Iowa at the Head in Many Things, Why Does She Not Support Her University More Liberally?

This is an age of rapid advancement in every part of the world, and any university that does not move forward steadily and with rapid strides will soon be left behind when compared with other institutions of higher learning. The demands of the time are for trained minds and in order to have them for better schools and facilities for training them.

How is the state of Iowa meeting this demand? Is she giving her university a chance to maintain her position among the best universities of the land? A glance at the material support in the form of money for improvements and facilities will throw some light as an answer to these questions. The official figures show that all of the states in the central west, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan have an income of about four times of what our University receives, and all of these are state funds. If we compare with some of the eastern universities, especially Harvard, it makes a great contrast with our material support in the smallest appropriations for Iowa and the highest for Michigan. It is obvious that a greatly increased income would prove a hard proposition for some of the larger states which have spent a great deal of money for improvements and facilities.

The results of these debates, which are very important, will be published later.

The Sophomore Cotillion promises to be one of the finest and most enjoyable of the season.

Managers C. C. McCutchlon, E., in the city this morning. He is busy going over the schemes for spring athletic and musical events for the football team next fall.

There is some talk of a military ball being given by some of the men and officers of the battalion.

Senior Class Play

The Senior class play committee are hard at work selecting members from the class to fill the place of the Whales. The play that has been selected is 'The Bachelor's Romance,' which was very popular in England years ago. According to the steamboat line was told the play will be said to be far superior to the one given last year.

Illinois' Eastern Trip

The University of Illinois baseball team will play six eastern college teams when it invades the East next year. Their schedule includes as follows: May 25, Princeton; May 29, Brown; May 30, Harvard; May 31, West Point; June 3, Yale; June 7, Penn. The engagements are interspersed with a gala luncheon in Chicago and a gala dinner at the University Club in Iowa City.

The arrangements for dedicating the new central building, which will be a gala one for the students, was given tonight by the J. D. Wright, justice of the supreme court and the Illinois governor.

The program includes:

1. H. C. Gilman, late president of the Johns Hopkins University.
4. Carroll D. Wright, commissioner of labor.

Representatives from all of the Big Nine, except Iowa and Indiana, met yesterday at the Victoria hotel in Chicago for the purpose of arranging schedules for football and spring athletics. The statement was given by the captain of the team that they expected to play games with Chicago, Iowa and Minnesota.

The date for the Minnesota game being set for Thanksgiving day in Detroit.

Besides these games with members of the Big Nine, Michigan will play a number of other hard games, making her schedule probably the busiest of any of the states. Michigan may also meet an Eastern team, preferably Harvard.

Amusements

One of the many amusing feats that the Flints perform in their hypnotic entertainments, in which they appear next week, is the suggestion to a subject that he is "Dr. Bull, the great Corn Doctor," and that his one mission in life is to sell corn seed. The fun is further heightened by suggesting to another subject that he has at some former time been treated by the doctor and ruined, so far as walking is concerned. The manner in which the Doctor puts his wares and the way in which the other's demands redress is very comical and never fails to convulse the house. The entertainments of the Flints are pure but uproariollsly funny, far exceeding in the capacity to provoke laughter the efforts of the ordinary comic performance. Dr. Flint has an able assistant in Grace Marion Flint, the only lady hypnotist.

How About Your Feet

How About Your Feet

H O P E they are not worrying you. No man can develop the better part of his nature while his feet ache. Aside from making himself disagreeable to others he loses considerable of life's sunshine. It gets right by him—he is busy thinking about those feet. Its good business to buy shoes intelligently. The Walk-Over Shoe is the smartest shoe for men on the market. They wear longest and look best and they feel broken in from the start. They cost $3.50 and $4.00 and are for sale here—can't get them anywhere else in town—come and see them.
