IN THE ACADEMY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA.

A WEEK LATER

Senator Healy's case.

John Mullen.

The freshman banquet committee held a meeting on Monday morning, November 22, for the purpose of determining the dignity of the legislation, with the result that the naughty-five jubilation has been postponed one week. The freshman banquet will be held on Thursday, January 30, instead of January 20, as formerly announced," so said a member of the committee this morning to a reporter of the Iowa City.

This change was requested by the committee in charge of the dedicated exercises, which in the last few days have been placed on the calendar. The above is to be considered in connection with the absence of Senator Healy, who must be seeking the protection of the Speaker and others of his ilk.

The new date for the festivities is February 22, until it was found that it would be more convenient, especially to one of the principal speakers, Senator Doliver. Then the plans were hurriedly rearranged. All arrangements are now complete for holding the dedication next week.

It was unanimously decided to have two such important functions as a freshman banquet and dedication exercises held on one day, especially as the dedication of the freshman class is calculated to disturb the rest of the legislators, who must be seeking deep sleep after a long day in the House of Representatives. Everyone, in all the states. There are so many beautiful days when nothing occurs to mar the serenity of the legislative body that it seemed best to string out things a little.

Dedication of arts hall.

At a joint caucus of the members of the senate and house held yesterday to select a trustee of the University of Iowa, C. E. Pickett, president of Danville, Ill., and a member of the board of trustees of the University of Iowa, said that the university does not occupy a place of power and influence equal to that of Wisconsin, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota or Maine. The universities of these states have been handicapped by a lack of funds and have been unable to make rapid and constant progress. If the people of the state would give adequate support there is no conceivably reason why the University of Iowa should not be as strong as those of other states. With a large surplus in the state treasury it would seem that now is a good time to appropriate funds sufficient to meet the needs. At any rate we join in the hope that this may be done not only for the University, but also for the State College and State Normal as well.

Edward's to coach Wisconsin.

Manager C. H. Kilpatrick, of Wisconsin, who has just returned from an eastern trip, reported that Edward H. D. White, of the Board on the preliminary date should be in the state of Wisconsin, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota or Maine. IOWA VS. MINNESOTA IN DEBATE

The above shows that the Minnesota debating team has already been chosen and are ready for work. We are informed that the Iowa men have not yet been chosen, but that the Gophers will have an advantageous position if they get the state paper for preparation. Iowa has generally been able to triumph over Minnesota in debate and the tardiness of the preliminary date should not be such as to prevent this year's representative from maintaining our usual reputation on the debating floor.

The Iowa team has now practically been selected and Minnesota will be represented in the coming contest, which will occur the last Friday in March, by Messrs. O. P. McLain, 0. A. Lintz, and Alex James.

The question for this debate is: "Resolved, that it is desireable that the United States should recognize the independence of the Philippines." Minnesota has the affirmative of this resolution while Iowa has the negative.

Grinnell will ask Bradley.

Reverend Dan F. Bradley is looked upon as the probable successor for Professor W. C. Gates as president of Grinnell college. Mr. Bradley is an alumnus and has been actively engaged in the ministry since his graduation. He acted as president of Yankton college from the year 1875 until 1879 in connection with his pastorate in the same place. He is at present pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Grand Rapids, Mich.

In the Indiana-Illinois game the presidents of the two universities met at the request of Mr. Donaldson of Grinnell college. At Yale every student is called upon to contribute $1 to the athletic fund. Each dollar will help matter here.

Ivy Lane and her alumna members enjoyed a dancing party at the K. O. P. halls Tuesday evening.

If the utterances of the state and college press of Iowa are to be taken as voicing the sentiment of the citizens generally, then the legislators have but to read their daily papers to be assured that the time for dealing fairly with the university is now at hand. In many places the plea made for "liberal" or "generous" support for the state's university. Certainly it would be a pleasure to contemplate a "liberal" or "generous" recognition at the hands of the appropriation committee and we appreciate the spirit which prompts these pleas, but this year if the legislature will provide money for those needs which are absolutely imperative, the university's budget will be honored to the letter. It is the policy of President Mac Lean to ask for only those appropriations which are absolutely necessary, and certain it is that making up this year's budget this policy has been strictly adhered to.

Amusements

One of the many amusing feats that the Flints perform in their hypnotic entertainment, in which they appear next week, is the suggestion to a subject that he is "Dr. Bull, the great Corn Doctor," and that his one mission in life is to sell corn salve.
The fun is further heightened by suggesting to another subject that he has at some former time been treated by the doctor and ruined, so far as walking is concerned. The manner in which the Doctor puffs his wares and the way in which the other demands redress is very comical and never fails to corvalesce the house. The entertainment of the Flints are pure and exceptionally funny, far exceeding in the capacity to provoke laughter the efforts of the ordinary comic performance. Dr. Flint has an able assistant in
