WANTS SHOWN

PICKETT BEFORE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

The Needs of the University are Fercibly Brought Out—$12,000 Would Construct the Buildings

President MacLean and members of the board of regents appeared before the senate committee on ways and means this afternoon. Regent Charles Pickett, of Waterloo, as chairman of the committee on legislation, made the report for the board of regents and presented the argument of the university for appropriations.

Mr. Pickett in the report said in substance:

"The one tenth mill tax for the last five years has amounted to some $266,276 and it has all been used in the erection of one university hospital, the liberal arts hall and the heating plant. It is evident that if many building operations are to be begun in 1909 new methods must be employed. In short, building operations at the university are at a standstill unless the levy is increased.

The assembly hall including an assembly room is necessary for university and chapel exercises. The commencement exercises, the general university lectures, debates and oratorical contests suffer greatly for the lack of such a hall. The University has to rent offices from $400 to $600 a year for renting halls and will now be forced to rent a cercus tent for commencement exercises. There is no proper place for military drill but under these adverse circumstances an excellent battalion has been maintained, justice to the U. S. would require that the state furnish a proper armory.

The lack of a gymnasium prevents the development of a professor department of physical training that should benefit every member of the student body. We cannot, without a gymnasium, hope to hold our place in athletics students and for the graduate college with laboratories, extension of the college of dentistry, detachment hospital for men, gymnasium and a bill for the literary societies and a president's chapel.

The total cost of such buildings would be $1,12,100. These figures take no account of the actual increase in students and in secre-cary and gymnasium, at present for economy combined in one building; as proof, a fireproof museum, a library building, a college of law building, a college of pharmacy building, a building for the gymnasium college with laboratories, extension of the

pital for men, for the literary societies and a president's chapel.

"Kansans wants to play at football next fall and is willing to do anything to make arrangements to that end," said Fred Owens, one of the backs of the Kansas University football team, while resting at the Kirkwood hotel before the basketball game this afternoon.

"Kansans is not particular where the game is played and it will probably be at Iowa City.

Kansans has wanted for some time to play Iowa, but the Iowa management has been unable to make the date. We expect to play Wisconsin again next fall,

Nebraska, Texas and the Haskell Indians. The great game of the year for us is always with Missouri at Kansas City Thanksgiving day. Excorcising the airy from Lawrence to the game at a $1.00 round trip rate and the historical select of KansasENSE Missouri. We were beaten by Missouri this fall for the first time in six years—the men just went up in the air.

The football coaches agree next year is not yet determined upon," said different members of the coaching team who, expressed various preferences for Ben Owen, Yoel's assistant at Michigan last year, Captain Curtis of Wisconsin and the present coach, Dr. Outland of the University. The impression seemed to be that the board of athletic control would stay with Outland. Joe Alb. who played forward this afternoon against Iowa, was a member of the football team in law year and a promising candidate for the first team this year.

There is no game like basket ball," declared all the seven Kansas in union. "Our success depends on the men; we usually find our opponents gentlemen. We are having a tennis game on and back our trip, the only hardship being that we were unable to change eight men to change off for the games, that come thick and fast.

Captain C. A. Smith, Fred

Owens and C. A. Fee, backs; Pat

Atkinson, center; Don and Joe Alford, forwards and E. J. Bernhard, manager, constituted the Kansas basket ball aggregation.

The game this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium was close and clean and exciting. At the usual call of, time, Kansas scored defeated 27 goals to 14.

HAWK'S ADVENTURES

MEETS A LECTURER ON "GOOD

AND EVIL SPIRITS"

Another Who Becomes Disgusted

When informed that he Must Perform a Hearth of Duty in Order to Obtain Financial Aid

A.Y. M. C. A. secretaries meet with many odd characters and receives even stranger requests, said Secretary Hawk the other day. Into his office came all people of the ghillian-anthropist seeking this avenue of helping his fellow men to the most and greatest worth of those whose contact with the bark side of life has led them to be petitioners for public charity.

Between the two runs the whole gamut of men moral and physical humanity.

Not long since a medium sized man with long light hair and the air and deportment of broken down tragedian appeared in the office, engaged Y. M. C. A. office and his eye lighting on Mr. Hawk at his desk, he exclaimed, "Peace

Be Unto This House." Seating himself he said, "My name is Evil Spirits that I should like to deliver to your members." He then proceeded with a theory he had been the recipient of a divine revelation which came to him at a pastime on a hill in a great open country. As he was there alone a great effulgence seemed to come from the setting sun and while he was in the midst of it the revelation was given him.

When asked what the revelation was that the spirits had intuited unto him, he solemnly said,

"My Blood of Christ is Sprinkled on Fort.

"I was a godly individual who, however, was blessed with a physique that would do honor to a football player. I have been disappointed after the above incident and am now using half an hour of Secretary Hawk's time explaining his needs that he might undertake the duty that he could give him nothing but work, he said, "If you had told me that half an hour ago I wouldn't have wasted my time."

Another caller accosted the genial Secretary with the alarmng query, "Have you any unemployed and still another after making an abject plea of poverty, and hanging around the association building for several days during which time he was helped in various ways, finally with a small bag of money in his pocket and boasting that he had $100 at home which would be here to and that he was going to take two girls sleighing that evening.

At many colleges and universities the students are asked by voluntary subscriptions to support athletics. And in response to this demand to college loyalty and varsity spirit no small sums are raised. But here, although there is a great need of funds for baseball and track team this demand of subscription is not made. Instead of asking the students to voluntarily raise the money, the board of control is only asking that they pay for the games in advance by buying season tickets. Furthermore in the circulars which are now being placed before the students the price for admission to the games is at a very low figure. Thus in order that our baseball team will be able to make a big trip and meet the large universities next spring it is not necessary that the students pay the expenses but only necessary that they buy tickets in advance to the games and that at only a nominal price. Thus in order to help spring athletics, which are a losing institution financially, the students, when these season tickets are placed before them, should respond liberally. Not only the six hundred which are necessary for the guarantee should be sold but the number should be swelled to one thousand at the very least. Everyone buys a season ticket and helps Spring Athletics and thus helps the University.

The famous comedy, “David Harum” will be produced by Charles Frohman here on Thursday, Feb. 6, at the opera house, with all special scenery and effects as near as possible identical with Mr. Frohman’s original production at the Garrick theatre, New York, last year, where it ran the entire season. In transplanting the story from the book to the stage three acts have been made and all its scenes are laid at Harum’s country home. It is said, if few, any, liberties are taken with the original story, with the exception that the comedy is far more dramatic than the novel.

The only novelty booked for an early presentation here—if a re-written version of an ever welcome offering may be so designated—is “Next Door,” that famously funny conception built to exploit the marvelous undertakings of the world’s greatest acrobats, the Bros. Royer. This merry melange will be seen at the opera house, on Saturday, Feb. 8, not only in a new dress from a line and incident standpoint, but with many new vaudeville innovations, new ideas in costuming, extravagant scenery and an augmented cast, including among the original and only Bros. Royer.

THE JUNIOR PROM

Date Set for April the Eleventh

The Prom committee announce the date set for their party to be April the eleventh or just after the Easter vacation. Although negotiations are under way, it is not definitely settled what orchestra will furnish the music. The committee realizes that the Prom in former years has been looked upon as the greatest social event in university circles. Realizing this, they feel that the responsibility is upon them of giving a party which will come up to the expectations. They announce it to be their policy to spare no effort or expense which will make the party a success.

Appreciations of Dedication Day

Resolutions were introduced in the house Monday, giving thanks for the excursion and reception at the University on Dedication Day. The Resolutions read: "Resolved, that the thanks of the members of the House of Representatives of the Twenty-ninth General Assembly be extended to the Hon. Geo. W. Hoyns, of Johnson county, to President George E. MacLean and the faculty of the Iowa State University, and also to the citizens of Iowa City, for their kindness in caring for the members of the house of representatives and their friends during their visit to the University to attend the dedicatory services of the hall of Liberal Arts on January 23, 1902; and be it further "Resolved, that a vote of thanks be extended to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad for their generosity in furnishing transportation."
