M'KEY A "U" ATHLETE

FORMER FOOTBALL STAR NOW ON THE STAGE

Dick Larrabee in "David Harum" tells of his Football Days at Iowa in the President's office when I was studying in a scrap over the abduction of a freshman president at one time and to some extent in Halloween pranks at another. Judge McClain, now on the supreme bench of Iowa, was lecturer on criminal law then and was very popular in all.

"David Harum, the play I am now with, has been on the road for two seasons and is still received with as large audiences as ever. So many people through the county have never seen the play and have read the book that we are something in the line of an Uncle Tom's Cabin that has never been seen before. We have made a number of college towns, such as Purdue, Yale and others and always like to do so as we have such a 'lively herdrow.'"

The company with which Mr. M'Key presented "David Harum" last night was an excellent one and made a strong presentation. We are used to a good story-teller, and Mr. M'Key has a strong character in the book and Miss Mary Blake, the heroine, was so good that we envied her herers. Mr. M'Key presented a most natural Dick Larrabee, a character that showed his great ability and experience.

Vaccination.

In accordance with the regulation of the Board of Health, requiring the presentation of certificates of vaccination by the residents in all houses in the public schools, every student of the university will be required to present a certificate of recent vaccination from some licensed physician by Wednesday, February 7th, beginning the morning, no student without the presentation of such certificate will be permitted to attend the university.

Dr. Patterson is at present in development of plans for an elaborate, statistical, registry of tenement house conditions in the city of New York. The object of the registry is to secure not only reliable and accurate information regarding tenement house conditions, but to enable the tenement house department of the city to superintend and enforce the municipal and sanitary conditions.

Dr. Patterson is now, through Mr. Robert W. DePorter, the newly appointed commissioner and ex-tenement houses, under the supervision of Mr. Seth Low. His absence from the university, however, will only be temporary."

Give Usual Programmen

This evening the literary societies will hold their annual freshman programmes. On the general appearance which is made by the speakers will depend largely whether or not they will represent their society in the annual freshman contest in a declamation, oration and debate between Irving and Zetagathan, which will take place in the first part of the spring term. The freshmen of the societies are very promising material and very good programmes can be looked for this evening.

Irvine. Because of the large number of freshmen in Irvine, the programme will be more elaborate than usual. The members of the society will be grouped into oratorical and musical departments to play the outside. The Philos, licensed physician by Wednesday, February 7th, beginning the morning, no student without the presentation of such certificate will be permitted to attend the university.

There are several games to be played yet this winter and in recognition of our exceptionally good team and their record, we should show our appreciation of what they are doing for the university and encourage them in their efforts. In order to make every branch of athletics successful, they must receive our support. This can be done by everyone feeling it his duty to give his hearty support and thus not only make them a financial success but help the team on to victory.

Amusements

The only novelty booked for an early presentation here—if a re-written version of an ever welcome offering may be so designated—is "Next Door," that famously funny conception built to exploit the marvelous undertakings of the world's greatest acrobats, the Bros. Royer. This mercurial melange will be seen at the opera house, on Saturday, Feb. 8, not only in a new dress from a line and incident standpoint, but with many new vaudeville innovations, new ideas in costumes, extravagant scenery and an augmented cast, including among others the original and only Bros. Royer.
